THE BRENDA

April 2, 2002 – Brenda Frese is named the new head coach of the Maryland women's basketball team. She is only the third coach in the history of the program. [1]

2002-03

Nov. 19, 2002 – Even before coaching a game at Maryland, Frese signs the No. 10 recruiting class in the nation, which includes McDonald's All-American Shay Doron.
Nov. 22, 2002 – The Brenda Frese Era begins when the Terrapins defeat Loyola, 80-72, in the first game ever played in the new Comcast Center. [2]
Dec. 1, 2002 – The Terps break 100 points for the first time in almost 10 years, defeating UMES, 102-31.
Feb. 1, 2003 – Over 5,000 fans watch the Terps edge out NC State, 74-72, in the largest crowd since 1996.

Nov. 21, 2003 – Shay Doron, Frese's first recruit, puts on a free-throw shooting clinic in her first-collegiate game, making an NCAA-record tying 23 free throws against Coppin State. [3]
Feb. 22, 2004 – The excitement had been brewing all season and Terp fans get their last shot to see the team in action. A then-Comcast Center record 13,446 fans come to watch Maryland play Duke, the then-second largest crowd in ACC history.
Feb. 29, 2004 – In a must-win situation, Maryland travels to Clemson and wins, 80-69, finishing in a tie for third in the ACC, its best showing since 1997, also earning a first-round bye in the ACC Tournament.
March 6, 2004 – Maryland tops Florida State, 62-47, in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament, advancing to the semifinals for the first time since 1998.
March 21, 2004 – In what was supposed to be a rebuilding year, Maryland earns a 12th seed in the NCAA Tournament and upsets Miami, 86-85, for the team's first postseason victory in 12 years.
March 2004 – Three Terps earn postseason honors, with Shay Doron leading the way earning third-team nods becoming the first rookie in school history to garner All-ACC honors.

Nov. 2004 – Maryland is ranked 23rd in the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches preseason poll, the team's first preseason ranking since 2002.
Dec. 6, 2004 – After opening the season with a 5-1 record, Maryland cracks the top 20 in the rankings for the first time in 11 years.
Jan. 9, 2005 – The Terps stun No. 5 North Carolina, defeating the Tar Heels, 92-77, for Maryland's first upset of a top five team since 1992.
Feb. 3, 2005 – Maryland's win over Georgia Tech is Frese's 100th-career victory as a head coach.
Feb. 12, 2005 – The Terps ask fans to "Cram Comcast" and they respond. 17,243 fans fill the stands to set the then-ACC single-game attendance record. [4]
March 4, 2005 – Maryland wins its 20th game of the season, the first 20-win campaign since 1992-93, defeating Clemson, 66-55, at the ACC Tournament.
March 5, 2005 – The Terps upset No. 19 NC State to advance to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.
March 20, 2005 – Maryland's win over UW-Green Bay in the first round of the NCAA Tournament is Frese's 50th as head coach of the Terrapins.
March 2005 – Crystal Langhome is named the ACC's Rookie of the Year, the first to earn the honor since 1991. She is also a second team All-ACC selection, the highest honored rookie Terrapin in school history. Shay Doron garners first team all-conference nods, Kodak/WBCA All-Region honors and is a Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American.
April 2005 – The Terps end the season ranked 24th in the final poll, the first time they appear in the last poll of the season in 12 years.

Feb. 9, 2006 – Maryland hands the Tar Heels another stunning upset, 98-95 in overtime. Ashleigh Newman hits an improbable shot to force overtime.

March 4, 2006 – The Terps continue to shock the women's basketball world, defeating No. 2 Duke, 90-81, in the ACC Tournament, reaching the championship game for the first time since 1993.

March 2006 – Crystal Langhorne is named first team All-ACC, while Shay Doron and Marissa Coleman are second team selections. Coleman is also the second-straight Terrapin selected the ACC's Rookie of the Year.

March 13, 2006 – The NCAA Tournament bracket is announced and the Terps earn their highest seeding since 1993.

March 27, 2006 – Frese helps the Terps overcome a stomach flu, leading them to a 75-65 overtime win over Utah putting Maryland in the Final Four for the first time since 1989. Crystal Langhorne is selected the region's Most Outstanding Player.

April 2, 2006 – Facing a familiar foe, Maryland pulls off another upset, disposing of top-seed North Carolina to advance to the program's first-ever NCAA championship game.

April 4, 2006 – Maryland wins its first-ever National Championship, defeating top-seeded Duke, 78-75, in overtime. Freshman Kristi Toliver hits a game-tying three-pointer with seconds remaining in regulation to force the extra time. [5]

April 4, 2006 – Sophomore Laura Harper is named Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four and Toliver is named to the all-tournament team.

April 2006 – Sophomore Crystal Langhorne is the first Terrapin in 17 years to be selected an All-American, earning the honor from the Associated Press and the USBWA. [6]

2006-07

October 2006 – Five Terps are named Naismith Award preseason candidates, a first in the history of the honor. Four are named to the preseason WBCA Wade Watch list, also a first in the history of the award.

November 2006 – Returning all five starters from the championship team, Maryland receives its first-ever preseason No. 1 ranking and remains in that spot for 10 weeks.

Dec. 2, 2006 – Sophomore Marissa Coleman is the first Terrapin in school history to record a triple-double and the 11th in the history of the ACC. [7]

Jan. 3, 2007 – The Terps handily defeat NC State, 80-61, in the ACC opener, giving Frese her 100th win as head coach of the Terrapins.

Jan. 10, 2007 – Maryland runs out to a school record 18-0 start, also breaking the school record for longest win-streak, winning 24-straight games with the victory over Miami, 111-53. It is the largest margin of victory in an ACC game for the Terps.

Jan. 28, 2007 – An ACC-record and sold out crowd of 17,950 fill Comcast Center to watch a rematch of the 2006 NCAA semifinals vs. North Carolina.

Feb. 18, 2007 – Terp fans tie the ACC attendance record, selling out the game vs. Duke, the third women's basketball sell out in school history and the second in Comcast Center. It also marks the final home game of seniors Shay Doron and Aurelie Noirez, who end their careers as the winningest class in program history (102 wins).

March 2, 2007 – Maryland avenges its loss to Georgia Tech, defeating the Yellow Jackets, 75-59, to advance to the ACC Tournament semifinals for the third-straight year.

March 2007 – Crystal Langhorne is a first team All-ACC pick for the second year in a row, while Coleman is named to the second team. Kristi Toliver gamers all-conference nods for the first time and is named to the third team.

March 18, 2007 – Maryland is the No. 2 seed for the second-straight year and advances to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-straight year with a win over Harvard.

March 20, 2007 – Shay Doron leaves Maryland as the program's second-leading scorer, tallying 1,878 for her career. [8]

April 2006 – Crystal Langhorne is selected to the WBCA All-American team, the first to be honored by the organization since 1989. She is also named an All-American by the Associated Press and USBWA, the first Terp to earn multiple All-American honors in school history.

Maryland's home for Terrapins Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002 and has provided five seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball games and serves as the campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public basketball event at the arena was the 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to become one of the premier student events of the academic year. The women's basketball team holds the distinction of playing the first-official game in Comcast Center, an 80-72 victory over Loyola on Nov. 22, 2002, also the first game of the Brenda Frese era.

In each of the five seasons Maryland has called Comcast Center home, attendance for women's basketball games has soared. The Terps have ranked in the top 25 in scoring the last three seasons and in 2006-07, ranked sixth in the nation in average home attendance. Maryland made the largest single-season improvement in home attendance in the nation last year, nearly doubling its average attendance from the previous season. A school-record 150,000-plus fans attended games in the state-of-the-art arena, while more than 240,000 spectators watched the Terrapins play in home, road and neutral contests, the fourth-most in the country in 2006-07.

Comcast Center has also been the site of seven of the 10 largest crowds in ACC women's basketball history. Among the top crowds are two sold out games in 2006-07, breaking the conference's single-game attendance record, a mark held by the Terrapins.

The top-notch facility was site of the first and second rebounds of the 2005 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship, and is again a proud host in 2008 and 2009.

Fans can also relive its memories of the men's and women's basketball national championship seasons. The arena also holds both team's crystal national championship trophies in glass-encased display on the concourse level, while the Final Four playing surfaces are prominently displayed on the arena's floor level.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletic administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing enhanced study atmosphere for the school's near-750 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams. The Sprint-Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room, which is located on the concourse level, is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena, while the 20 suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby allows visitors to outfit their pride, Maryland has, once again, reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 127 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2006, 91 programs rank in the top 25 nationally and a school-record 31 programs were in the top 10 in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate ranking of top public universities.

Specifically, the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business was ranked 18th nationally, while the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 25th. In graduate school rankings, the Smith School of Business, the College of Education, the Clark School of Engineering, the College of Information Studies and the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences each had

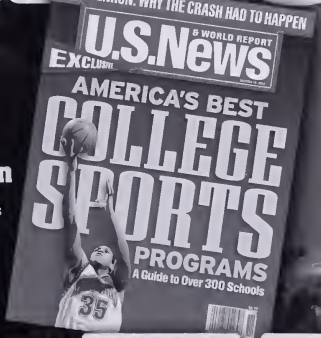
High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

PLACE TO BE



Terps Athletics Tops In Management, Innovation

The University of Maryland athletics department won the inaugural collegiate PRISM Award given by the University of Massachusetts Department of Sports Management. The award honors demonstrated excellence and innovation in sports management of NCAA Division I A and I AA institutions.

IT'S ALL HERE

beyond the University of Maryland campus.

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just a city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of College Park. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE

The 12th-largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS

The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

THIS IS TERRAPIN BASKETBALL

SEASON OUTLOOK

With so much returning in 2006-07, losing in the second round of the CAA Tournament left a bitter taste in the Terrapins' mouth. Understandbly expectations were high with five starters returned from the championship team and the top eight scorers, overall. Despite a fourth-consecutive p to the NCAA Tournament and a third-straight 20-win season, the Terps ere bitterly disappointed.

This year, the expectations remain high. Four starters from the championship squad are back in 2007-08 and three were named to the WBCA ade Trophy Preseason Watch List. But this year, the Terps are older and ser. With the addition of the No. 2-ranked recruiting class in the nation, aryland is poised to make another serious run at a title.

For the first time in four years, the Terps are the "elder statesmen" the ACC, with eight upperclassmen, including five seniors. The "older d wiser" Terps bring with them valuable experience from a year ago d they are looking for redemption.

"There is more of a sense of urgency this year," said sixth-year ad coach Brenda Frese. "The biggest lesson learned is there is no bstitute for hard work and our players are backing it up with their acns. They've had tremendous summers and that's going to carry them rough the season."

Looking to avoid a repeat of last year's second-round exit and driven the disappointment of not fulfilling expectations, the Terps have put the extra work in the offseason. Marissa Coleman, Laura Harper and ystal Langhorne brought home gold medals competing against the st in the world as members of two US teams. Kristi Toliver enrolled Point Guard College to refine her skills in a rigorous and competitive aming environment. The rest returned to campus with focus, hitting the eight room and conditioning workouts as if on a mission. Meanwhile, e freshmen arrived on campus over the summer to get a head start in e classroom and to work out with their new teammates.

"We're ready and hungry to go out and get better every single day. hen you have that kind of mindset, your actions speak for themselves. ey are taking their games to another level."

Five seniors dominate the 2007-08 roster, the biggest senior class nce Frese arrived six years ago. This class has shouldered the load nce arriving in 2004, leading the Terps to 84 wins and a national title ring that span. That experience, maturity and leadership will be a critical ement this season, especially with five newcomers on the squad and e redshirt freshman.

In addition to the senior class, Maryland's juniors will also play a large e. Coleman and Toliver walked in with great expectations placed on em as freshmen and have welcomed the challenge of living up to em. And with Christie Marrone's experience, the newcomers will not d themselves short of team members to rely on.

Frese has had a core group of eight players to count on for at least o seasons. With all the things that are the same for 2007-08, there e some changes heading into the new season. Aside from the large shman class, four new staff members have been added, including two w assistant coaches. And the biggest difference for Frese will be the ss of Shay Doron to graduation.

"One of the biggest themes of the season will be change," said Frese. s exciting to see what this program has evolved into. Daron [Park] and ane [Richardson] are not only hard working, positive and energetic aches, but they are so excited to be working with our team and players. eir creativity and positive energy is going to be an additional element t's going to be new and unique to the team this year."

Shay Doron had been a cog in the lineup the last four years. Her pact was far reaching, becoming the first prized recruit to sign with ese. Earning numerous accolades, including three All-ACC honors d Honorable Mention Associated Press All-American last year, Doron t College Park as the program's second all-time leading scorer, netting 378 points in her career.

"Shay was a huge piece to laying the foundation of this program. She had the vision to come in here and be a part of a rebuilding process," said Frese. "She brought a lot of intangibles to the team, her competitive spirit, work ethic and heart. But she obviously left the program in good hands."

After all is said and done, Frese's newest Terps have all the elements to build a winning team – talent, drive and hard work. And while there will be some unknowns along the way, Maryland certainly has what it takes to be the last team standing in Tampa.

GUARDS

Maryland has a mix of veterans and newcomers on the perimeter, led by All-ACC performers Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver. There is depth on the perimeter this year, however, the group has health issues to overcome, with five battling injuries. Regardless, the five upperclassmen will mentor the newcomers and help to transition them to the collegiate game.

Coleman's summer included a trip to Brazil to win gold for the U.S. at the Pan American Games. Her drive has been unmatched, spending extra time in the gym and weight room during the offseason. Her versatility alone, with the ability to play almost any position on the floor, is problematic for opponents. The AP Honorable Mention All-American can take an outside shot and defend any perimeter player, or she can go inside and battle for a rebound with the best post players in the country.

Kristi Toliver did not take it easy in the summer, as well, honing her skills at the Point Guard College. She has improved at the position every season and knows how to get her teammates involved, but can also knock down a big three when needed as the team's best long-range shooter.

"Marissa and Kristi have taken it upon themselves to make this team better. They have really focused on improving what they can do," said Frese. "Kristi gained a lot of knowledge at the Point Guard College and this is the most motivated I have seen Marissa. They have stepped up to become leaders on this team."

Also at guard are returnees Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood, who is looking to compete in her first full collegiate season, Ashleigh Newman and Christie Marrone. The three have been marred by nagging injuries, however.

Wiley-Gatewood is still battling tendonitis in her knees, a problem she has had since before arriving in College Park. However, when healthy, she is explosive and brings a different energy on the floor.

Newman has also been plagued by injuries the last two seasons. She is one of the team's best defenders when at 100 percent and also one of the team's deadliest perimeter shooters. Newman has been a starter and a key player off the bench in her career.

Christie Marrone finally hit the floor last season after sitting out 2005-06 because of NCAA transfer rules. Her addition added another perimeter scorer, but Marrone had to sit out the postseason because of a stress fracture in her foot and has been working on recovering since then.

Four newcomers look to work themselves into the guard rotation this season. Marah Strickland, Kim Rodgers and Anjalé Barrett were Parade All-Americans, while Kat Lyons led her high school team to back-to-back state championships before graduating.

Strickland's name might be familiar to the Terrapin faithful. She is the younger sister of former Maryland standout Marché Strickland. A McDonald's and WBCA All-American, Marah can score with ease and her size and athleticism will also cause problems for opponents.

Lyons will add depth to the guard position. She committed to Maryland as a sophomore in high school and is a smart player on the court.

Rodgers and Barrett underwent offseason surgeries and are both rehabbing to try to get on the court as quickly as possible. Rodgers is a pure shooter and a three-point threat, while Barrett is a quick point guard with great court vision.

he senior post players have made a big impact on the program, each iving postseason honors at some point in their careers. Headlining class is Crystal Langhorne. A two-time All-American, she has been alwart in the post since she was a freshman, earning numerous ac-des and breaking records. Her legacy will show her ability to score rebound, but also her accuracy. Last year, she nearly broke the NCAA rd for shooting percentage and has led the nation in the category the two years. This year, she will threaten two of the biggest records in program – the scoring and rebounding records.

laving already achieved plenty of individual success, Langhorne did rest this summer, still working on different areas of the game. She ed with the USA U21 Basketball team, winning gold at the U21 World mpionships. Four All-Americans were on that roster and Langhorne hem all in scoring and rebounding.

Crystal is looking to have another All-American season. She has n working very hard this summer and has not been satisfied with re she is at," said Frese. "Her experience with USA Basketball has made her better."

lso in the post are seniors Laura Harper and Jade Perry. Harper, also played on the U21 USA squad, was the 2006 NCAA Final Most Outstanding Player and is among the best shot blockers in ol history. She plays with energy and passion, but her consistency oing to be key.

What Perry does not have in size, she makes up for in physical ngth. Perry has shown she can bang with the best post players in ntry, but also has the finishing touch to knock down shots.

Laura and Jade have played important roles for us in their careers. ra has been energized and is on a mission this season. I look for her ave a consistent senior year, which will be much needed in the post," Frese. "Jade is a tremendous rebounder and her ability to get on the rds is one of the big things she brings for us."

Drey Mingo and Emery Wallace will look to be tutored by the seniors. go led her high school team to the state tournament and was twice ed to participate in the USA junior team tryouts. A Parade, McDonald's WBCA All-American, Mingo not only has a presence inside, but she step outside and hit the open three.

A versatile post, Wallace missed the 2006-07 campaign because of y and has been working hard on returning to the court and finally put he Maryland uniform.

Not to be forgotten is Coleman's ability to play in the post. She is a d rebounder and shot blocker, ranked among the best in the ACC ast two seasons.

CHEDULE

The 2007-08 schedule is the most challenging we've faced in our six rs," said Frese. "Given where our program is at, we felt we needed to e the next step and be challenged and tested. I'm extremely excited ause, early on, we'll know where we stand and where we will need nprove."

Maryland fans are going to be treated to some of the best games of season in 2007-08 and they will not have to wait until January.

Before the season officially gets underway, the Terps host the US onal Team on Halloween, Oct. 31 on the USA's first stop on their Col-e Tour. Some of the national team players they could face are current BA players, former Olympians and World Champions.

The season becomes official on Nov. 9. Maryland accepted an invita-to participate in the Preseason WNIT, where the Terps are guaranteed lay three games. In the tournament, they could face perennial powers SU, Michigan State and Notre Dame. Dates, times and locations are ounced at the conclusion of each game.

In the midst of the WNIT, one of the top games of the season will take ce as Maryland and Oklahoma battle in Chapel Hill, N.C., in the State m Tip-Off Classic on Nov. 11. Two of the nation's top post players in Crystal Langhorne and the Sooner's Courtney Paris go head-to-head on national television.

After hosting Loyola on Nov. 20, Maryland takes off to California to play UC Santa Barbara and UCLA over the Thanksgiving break. Returning back to the East, there is little time for rest, as the Terps host up-and-coming squad Pittsburgh on Nov. 27.

The inaugural women's Big Ten/ACC Challenge brings Big Ten Champion Ohio State to Comcast Center on Nov. 30, in a rematch of the 2005 NCAA Tournament game between the teams.

Participating in another prestigious event, 2007 NCAA Runner-Up Rutgers, who also has three Wade Trophy candidates, host the Terrapins on Dec. 3 for the Jimmy V Classic in a nationally televised contest. It will be the first meeting between the teams in almost 10 years.

The schedule does not get any easier despite having five of the next six games at home. NCAA Sweet 16 team Middle Tennessee visits College Park on Dec. 5, followed by a visit from Northern Iowa on Dec. 7. Another NCAA Tournament team in Temple comes to Comcast Center on Dec. 9, before a breaking for finals. On Dec. 20, the Terrapins are back in action in Kristi Toliver's hometown, facing James Madison.

The Terrapin Classic takes on a new format, with one game played on three consecutive days. Richmond and NCAA Tournament squad UMBC get things started on Dec. 28, and the Terps host the Spiders and Retrievers on Dec. 29 and 30, respectively.

The ACC season gets underway as Wake Forest hosts Maryland at the turn of the calendar year on Jan. 3.

"When you look at the strength of the ACC in the past two years, with the number of teams in the Final Four and teams breaking through to the NCAA Tournament and Sweet 16, from top to bottom, the ACC is the toughest league in the nation," said Frese. "We're tested every time we step out onto the court.

"To win the ACC title, it takes consistency," continued Frese. "We have the veteran leadership to lead us to that and our non-conference schedule will prepare us for the long haul in league play and also down the line in the postseason."

The Terrapins will trade home and away games for the month of January, traveling to Boston College (Jan. 10), Virginia (Jan. 18) and North Carolina (Jan. 26), while hosting Clemson (Jan. 6), Duke (Jan. 14), Georgia Tech (Jan. 20) and Miami (Jan. 31). The Terps' games vs. the Blue Devils and the Tar Heels will be nationally televised on ESPN2 and Fox Sports Net, respectively. The games are two of at least seven nationally televised contests this season.

The Terps kick off February on the road at Virginia Tech (Feb. 4) and return home for a pair of games against Virginia (Feb. 8) and Boston College (Feb. 14). Maryland closes out the home-and-home series with Duke on Feb. 17 on national TV in Durham, N.C.

Senior Night features Florida State on Feb. 24 and the regular-season schedule ends on March 2 at NC State, the first time since 1994 the Terps play a regular season game in the month.

Owning the record for the most ACC Tournament crowns, Maryland will begin its quest for its ninth title and first since 1989, March 6-9 in Greensboro, N.C.

The road to the national championship begins in College Park.

"We feel fortunate to play in front of our fans for the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament," said Frese. "We have some of the best fans in the country who I know will get out and support this team. To have the comforts of two home games in our backyard, is a definite advantage for us."

If Maryland gets an invitation to the Big Dance, it is guaranteed to play its first and second round games in Comcast Center on March 23 and 25. The Terps made the largest single-season improvement in home attendance last year and ranked sixth in the nation in average home attendance. There is no doubt a sea of red in the stands will help bolster the Terrapins' cause.

Teams that win the first and second rounds of their respective brackets move on to the regional tournaments, which begin on March 29. The 2007 NCAA Final Four is in the warmth of Tampa, Fla., on April 6 and 8.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

EARLY POLLS HAVE TERPS IN TOP FIVE

Three preseason polls were released and each have Maryland ranked in the top five. In Lindy's Basketball Preview, the Terrapins were ranked No. 4 and were in that spot in the Women's Basketball Preseason Poll. Athlon's College Preview tabbed the Terps No. 5. Maryland was the highest-ranked ACC team in all three polls.

Both Crystal Langhorne and Marissa Coleman garnered recognition in the previews. Langhorne was named first team Preseason All-American by Lindy's and Women's Basketball and was on Athlon's second team. Coleman was a third team selection in Lindy's preseason squad.

THREE TERPS NAMED WADE TROPHY CANDIDATES

For the third-consecutive year, Maryland has placed at least one candidate on the State Farm Wade Trophy Preseason Watch List. Of the 25 players named, three were Maryland Terrapins. Among those named were Marissa Coleman, Crystal Langhorne and Kristi Toliver. Langhorne's name appears on the list for the third-straight year, while Coleman and Toliver were preseason candidates last season.

The 2008 State Farm Wade Trophy winner, presented to the national player of the year, will be announced at the WBCA National Convention held in conjunction with the NCAA Final Four.

LANGHORNE REACHES FOR THE TOP

Senior Crystal Langhorne is approaching two important school records, currently held by former Terrapin great Vicky Bullett. Bullett currently holds the career records for scoring (1,928) and rebounding (939) and Langhorne is within striking distance of both. Langhorne enters the season ranked third in points (1,711) and second in rebounding (939, only 217 points and 29 boards from tying the records.

SHOOTING FOR 1,000

Three other Terrapins will also be approaching records this season. Juniors Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver, and senior Laura Harper are all nearing the 1,000-point plateau. Coleman, in just two seasons, has scored 958 points and needs 42 more for 1,000. Harper has netted 885 points, 115 points away, while Toliver's 802 points in her career put her 198 points shy of the milestone.

In the history of the program, 22 Terps have scored at least 1,000 points in their careers, including teammate senior Crystal Langhorne, who was the most recent player to join the group.

WHO'S BACK

Maryland returns four starters from last year's 28-6 squad that was ranked No. 1 in the nation polls last year for 10 weeks, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-straight year under head coach Brenda Frese. The starters returning were also starters on the Terps' 2006 National Championship team.

The Terps lost the school's second leading scorer all-time in Shay Doron, but coming back is 83.1 percent of the team's scoring, as well as, 86.6 percent of he team's rebounding. Maryland was second in the nation in scoring last year (82.6 ppg) and led the nation in rebounding margin (+14.3 rpg) for the second-straight year.

FRESE SIGNS FIFTH-STRAIGHT NATIONALLY RANKED CLASS

Known for her top-notch recruiting, Brenda Frese signed the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation, according to the Blue Star Report, in the fall. The class consists of freshmen Anjalé Barrett, Kat Lyons, Drey Mingo, Kim Rodgers and Marah Strickland. Four of the five freshmen were Parade Magazine All-Americans, while Mingo and Strickland played in the McDonald's and WBCA All-American games in the spring. Strickland, who is the younger sister of former Terrapin Marché Strickland, was named co-MVP of the WBCA game.

Three of the five classes Frese has brought in during her tenure have been ranked in the top five. This year's senior class was also ranked No. 2 in the nation in 2004.

ALSO JOINING THE TERPS...

The Terrapins also welcome four new staff members to the team. Diane Richardson and Daron Park were named assistant coaches over the summer. Richardson had a successful head coaching career at Riverdale Baptist in Maryland before joining the American University staff for a year. Park comes to the Terps from Utah, helping them reach the Elite Eight in 2006. Also on staff are new director of basketball operations Rhet Wierzba and administrative assistant to the recruiting coordinator Billy Fennelly. The four staff members join the successful tandem of Frese and assistant coach Erica Floyd, who has been with Frese since she was at Minnesota.

MARYLAND ON THE TUBE

With the upgrade in schedule, Maryland will make at least 11 television appearances this season, including playing seven games in front of a national television audience.

Terp fans across the country can catch Maryland on ESPN2 on Nov. 11 against Oklahoma and on Jan. 14 against Duke. Fox Sports Net will televised Maryland games played on Nov. 25 at UCLA, Jan. 26 at North Carolina and at Duke on Feb. 17. ESPNU will broadcast the inaugural Big Ten/ACC Challenge on Nov. 30 when the Terrapins host Ohio State.

Regionally televised contests on Jan. 18 (at Virginia), Feb. 4 (at Virginia Tech) and on March 2 (at NC State).

Four first and second round games of the ACC Tournament will be televised on the ACC's Regional Sport Network, while the semifinals and championship games will be on Fox Sports Net.

The NCAA Tournament is televised on ESPN and ESPN2.

There was no better fit for the University of Maryland women's basketball team than head coach Brenda Frese. The expectations placed on her when she arrived in College Park in April 2002 were great. Confronted with reviving a once-prominent women's basketball program, the young and vibrant coach took on the challenge with open arms and has not disappointed. Since her first season at the helm when the team won just 10 games, Frese has guided Maryland to a National Championship in 2006, four winning seasons, three-straight 20-win seasons and four-consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. In 2006-07, Maryland also received its first-ever No. 1 preseason national ranking, remaining in the top spot in the polls for 10-consecutive weeks.

"This has been an incredible journey and winning the national championship in 2006 was just the beginning," said Frese. "My coaching staff and I had the belief we could win a national championship here at Maryland. With all the administrative support, the first-class facilities – we knew we could build something great. We did not set any timetables, but what we have achieved so far … it's beyond expectations."

Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow courted the 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year because of Frese's reputation for making amazing turnarounds and her relentless work ethic with recruiting. Described as dynamic, overachieving, determined and enthusiastic, the 37-year old coach is one of college basketball's rising stars. Standing atop the podium in Boston in 2006, Frese became the fifth-youngest coach in NCAA history to win a national title and only the ninth to win on her first trip to the Final Four.

Despite owning the ACC record for most tournament titles, Maryland had been tabbed an "also-ran" until Frese arrived. In her second season, she led Maryland to a tie for third in the ACC standings, its highest finish since 1996-97, and has placed in the top three in the conference in three of the last four seasons, including a tie for second place in 2006-07.

Frese has built the team's success around recruiting, hard work and a positive atmosphere. The instant she arrived on campus, she has determinedly worked the recruiting trails in an effort to reclaim the elite status Maryland once had in the 1980s. Success came quickly and early. Before she even coached a game in the newly-constructed Comcast Center, she convinced high school All-Americans Shay Doron and Kalika France on the idea of playing in the nearly-18,000 seat arena. They would be the first of two of 11 high school All-Americans to don a Maryland uniform under Frese's reign. Four years later, Doron would end her career second on Maryland's all-time scoring list and go on to play for the WNBA's New York Liberty.

All five of Frese's recruiting classes have been ranked in the top 10, while three have been rated in the top five. The landmark signings of Crystal Langhorne, Laura Harper, Jade Perry and Ashleigh Newman were rated No. 2 in the country, while the class of Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver were ranked No. 4, the core of the Terps' national championship team. Her latest batch of Terrapins includes four high school All-Americans and a No. 2 national ranking.

Frese's recruiting classes have lived up to their billing and her pupils have earned numerous accolades, which had eluded the Terrapins for over a decade. In 2006, Crystal Langhorne became the first Maryland All-American in 17 years and then became the first multiple All-American in school history when the Associated Press and the United States Basketball Writers Association selected her for the honor again in 2007. She earned WBCA All-American nods in 2007, as well, the first in school history since 1989 and only the fourth overall.

Frese's players have also received numerous ACC honors. Langhorne was selected the program's first ACC Rookie of the Year since 1991 in 2005. The top rookie in the conference came out of College Park for the second year in a row as Marissa Coleman also nabbed the honor during the Terps' championship campaign.

In all, 12 Terps have been named to the All-ACC team in Frese's first five years, including three first-team honorees. Shay Doron, Frese's first Maryland recruit in College Park, became the second Terrapin in school history to be selected all-conference three times. She was the first freshman in school history to be named All-ACC in 2004. Langhorne was the highest-honored freshman in the program, garnering second team honors in 2005, and became only the third Terp in school history to be a two-time first team all-conference pick. Six of Frese's players have also been named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

Several Terps have also garnered national recognition under Frese, earning spots on national player of the year candidate lists and making history in the fall of 2006. That year, for the first time ever, four players from the same team were selected preseason candidates for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's (WBCA) prestigious Wade Trophy when Doron, Coleman, Langhorne and Kristi Toliver were put on the Watch List. All five starters were tabbed preseason honorees for the Naismith Award, also a first in the history of the honor.

Frese has seen success on her three stops in eight seasons as a head coach. Making amazing turnarounds her calling card, she captured her 100th-career victory in 2005 against Georgia Tech and boasts a 169-81 record (.676), posting seven winning seasons in all, while leading her teams to five NCAA Tournament appearances. Her Maryland squads have posted a 112-61 mark in five years (.687), advancing to at least the second round of the tournament in each of the last four seasons.

Maryland has rewritten several records over the last five seasons. The Terps' 34 victories in 2005-06 were a school record, shattering the previous mark by five. The championship squad also set new standards for home wins (15), highest road winning percentage (.900), points (3,166), field goal attempts (2,363), three-point field goals (216), three-point attempts (540), free throws (690), free throw attempts (924), team free throw percentage (.747), rebounds (1,720) and blocked shots (195). Numerous individual records have also fallen since her recruits began donning a Terrapin uniform.

In the last two years, Maryland has been crowned the statistical champion five times. The Terrapins have been the best rebounding team in the nation, posting the best rebounding margin in 2006 (+11.9) and 2007 (+14.3). Also in 2006, the Terps shot 40.0 percent from three-point range, tops in the country, while posting the most wins of any team (34). Last year, the team's 18.3 assists per game average was also the best in the country.

With all five starters averaging in double figures over the last two years, Maryland has been one of the most prolific scoring teams in the nation over the last two years, ranking No. 2 in scoring average in back-to-back seasons. It has also ranked in the top 15 in the nation in scoring margin, field goal percentage and blocked shots in one or both seasons.

Maryland's rise into the upper-echelon of, not only the ACC, but in the country, has bolstered the excitement surrounding the team. In 2007, Maryland recorded the largest one-season improvement in home attendance, averaging 9,533 fans in 16 games, almost double the average from the previous season (4,183). More than 150,000 people made their way through the Comcast Center turnstiles, a school-record. By seasons' end, the Terps were sixth in the nation in average attendance, also placing fourth in overall attendance, as 241,280 spectators filled the stands at home and on the road to watch the Terps play in 34 games.

One of the highlights of the 2006-07 campaign was the announcement of two sell-out games in Comcast Center, the first- and second-ever in the young facility. The stands were filled to capacity when the Terps hosted North Carolina on Jan. 28, 2007, breaking the ACC's single-game record, the first women's basketball sold-out game since 1992. The record was matched in the regular-season finale on Feb. 18, 2007, when Duke came to College Park.

Maryland owns eight of the conference's top 10 attendances all-time, four coming in 2006-07 and seven overall coming since Frese has roamed the sidelines. The Terps' game vs. Michigan State on Jan. 2007 also drew more than 12,000 fans, while games vs. Wake Forest and Virginia were well attended, with more than 10,000 arriving to support the Terps.

In the classroom, the Terps have also been all-star students. Fifteen of Frese's Terps have been named to the ACC Honor Roll, while Shay Doron and Crystal Langhorne have received Academic All-American nods by ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA.

2005-06: A SPECIAL SEASON

The 2005-06 season was primed for a successful season. With two freshmen, two sophomores and a junior in the starting lineup,

Maryland's chances to contend for a national title were projected to be a year away according to the experts. But after a near upset of then-No. 1 Tennessee early in the season, the young Terrapins were filled with confidence and looked primed to make a statement.

Stacked with six former high school All-Americans on the roster, the Terrapins were ranked in the preseason poll for the second-straight year, breaking the top 10 in November for the first time since 1993. Maryland climbed to as high as No. 4 in the national polls until its regular-season meeting with then-No. 1 North Carolina on Feb. 9. Considered the underdogs throughout the season, the Terrapins went into a packed Carmichael Auditorium and stunned the Carolina fans, handing the Tar Heels their first loss of the season in overtime, 98-95.

That evening, Frese uttered, "Our program took a step forward tonight."

It certainly had. Inching up to No. 3 in the polls, the first top-three ranking in 13 years, the Terrapins remained there until winning the national championship and becoming the undisputed No. 1 team in the nation, earning the top spot in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time in school history.

The Terps overcame numerous hurdles en route to being crowned national champions. Playing in the toughest conference in the nation, Maryland's 12-2 record was good enough to tie for second in the ACC standings, the best finish since 1993 and the most conference wins since that same year. Ranked in the top three and logging wins over five ranked opponents heading into the ACC Tournament, the Terrapins faced a tough Duke opponent in the ACC Tournament semifinals while also facing a 14-game losing streak to the Blue Devils. The Terps broke that streak, toppling the second-ranked Blue Devils, earning a spot in the championship game for the first time in 13 years.

Maryland earned its highest NCAA seed in 14 years, garnering the No. 2 seed in the Albuquerque Regional, improving its seeding for the third-straight year. Reaching the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1992, the Terrapins easily knocked off defending champion Baylor. In the Elite Eight, playing for a chance to reach the Final Four for the first time in Frese's career and the program's first since 1989, the team was struck with a stomach flu, affecting nearly half the players and staff. Despite their struggles, Frese, who had also come down with the sickness, rallied her troops. A hard-fought game to the end, the contest was forced into overtime against a well-coached Utah squad. Riding a wave of confidence, the outcome would be the same for the fifth time that season, as Maryland punched its ticket to Boston.

In Boston, Maryland faced familiar foes. The first time in the history of the NCAA, three teams from the same conference had reached the Final Four and the Terps had overall top-seed North Carolina as their first challenger. The Terrapins pulled away from UNC, 81-70, knocking off the No. 1 team in the nation for the second time this season, with No. 1-seeded Duke on the horizon. The Terps were the only team in the country to beat the Heels and was the first time in school history they had beaten the No. 1 team in the nation twice in the same year.

In the championship game, Maryland found itself down 13 points in the second half. It looked like the same story in 14 of the previous 15 meetings between the teams, but the young Terrapins fought back in the final 15 minutes, overcoming the second-largest deficit in finals history. Toliver hit one of the biggest shots in tournament history, a three-pointer over Duke's 6-7 center Alison Bales, sending the game into overtime. And the Terrapins knew they had the game already won.

After claiming the 78-75 victory, five players were in double figures and sophomore Laura Harper, who missed two-thirds of the previous season because of an Achilles' tendon tear, was voted the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, while Toliver was named to the all-tournament team.

Maryland's 34 victories were the most in the country and the most in school history. Its four loses were to teams ranked No. 1 at some point during the season. Playing the season with "seven starters," the second-ranked offense in the nation had numerous weapons as five players on the team averaged double figures. Langhorne was an AP and USBWA All-American, while earning first team All-ACC honors. Coleman, who tied Langhorne's school record of five ACC Rookie of the Week selections, was the conference's Rookie of the Year. She was also the only conference freshman to be named All-ACC, earning a spot on the second team, along with Doron.

The most astonishing aspect of the season was the Terrapins' perfect record in a school-record six overtime games, none of which were at home. Maryland rode the mantra "Overtime is Our Time" into

IN THEIR WORDS ...

"Under the leadership of Coach Frese, we have made extraordinary progress in the last four years. Her passion for the well being of her student-athletes, her determination to win and her obvious joy in leading the Terps team is a powerful combination. There is no program in the nation better positioned to succeed in the next decade. The 2006 National Championship is only the beginning for our young Terps."

— Maryland Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow

"I knew she would do a good job [at Maryland] but to do it this fast, it's really unbelievable. It's like, "Where the did Maryland come from?" Now, they're a force to be reckoned with. It's amazing what's she's done in a short time. She's a great motivator, she gets her players to run up and down the court, and, in talking to some of them, it's just a positive feeling and that's why she's getting some of the [top] kids."

- ESPN Basketball Analyst Pam Ward

"Brenda is definitely one of the brightest young coaches in America. She's a great student of the game. She will be very successful at Maryland."

— Arizona Head Coach Joan Bonvicini

LAYING THE FOUNDATION

Despite a roster with eight freshmen and sophomores in Frese's third season, Maryland was picked to finish third in the 2004 ACC Preseason Media Poll, with two Terrapins earning preseason honors, including Langhorne who was selected Preseason Rookie of the Year, the first Terrapin to ever receive the recognition since the polling began in 1991. Frese's young Terps garnered a top 25 ranking in both the AP and ESPN/Coaches poll, rising to as high as No. 15 during the regular season, the team's highest ranking since 1993. Their 22-10 record that year was the team's first 20-win season in over a decade. On Jan. 9, 2005, the Terrapins recorded one of the biggest wins in school history in over a decade, upsetting No. 5/4 North Carolina at Comcast Center.

The Terrapins advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year and was ranked No. 24 in the season's final Coaches poll, the first time the Terps had appeared in the final rankings since 1992-93.

Doron was selected Kodak/WBCA Region II All-American, the first Terrapin to earn the honor since 1993, and was also tabbed a first team All-ACC performer. 2005 was also the first in time 14 years a Terp was voted the ACC's Rookie of the Year when Langhorne earned the honor and was also voted second team All-ACC.

In 2003-04, just her second season at the Terrapin helm, Frese took Maryland to an unexpected run to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the program's first tournament victory in 12 years.

In what was supposed to be the second year of the rebuilding process, Frese instilled confidence into a Maryland squad that went 4-12 in ACC play the season before and was depending on players with limited experience, including two highly touted recruits in Doron and France. The Terrapins surprised all prognosticators, placing in a tie for third after being picked eighth in a preseason poll. Maryland went 18-13 on the season, its first winning season in four years. In ACC play, the Terps posted an 8-8 mark, doubling their conference win total from each of the previous two seasons and their best showing in the standings since the 1996-97 campaign. Collecting 18 wins overall, the most since 1996-97, Maryland was rewarded with an NCAA Tournament bid, the first time since 2000-01, and was the only 12th seed to advance to the second round.

The long list of accomplishments that season included reaching the ACC semifinals for the first time since 1998, averaging a 12.3 margin of victory in conference games and sweeping Wake Forest and Clemson, its first sweep of any ACC squad in three years.

Frese's first season at the Terps' helm was the rebuilding year it was predicted to be. With a roster short on depth but high on effort, she led Maryland to a 10-18 record, narrowly missing wins at several junctures. Frese's Terps also notched several positive steps in her first year including: breaking 100 points in a game for the first time since Dec. 28, 1993, winning their first ACC road game since Feb. 19, 2001, drawing a crowd of 5,078 - at the time the largest at a Maryland women's basketball game since Feb. 24, 1996, and bringing home their first win from Florida State since the 1995-96 campaign.

LEARNING THE ROPES

One of college basketball's rising stars, Frese fits with Maryland's legacy of success. At Minnesota, she earned AP National Coach of the Year honors as well as Big Ten Coach of the Year recognition for turning the Gophers' 8-20 program into a 22-8 team and a top 25 contender in 2001-02. One of the biggest one-season turnarounds in NCAA history, Minnesota set a then-school record with 22 wins and tied for second in the Big Ten with an 11-5 conference mark. Frese also took the Gophers to what was only the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance. The Golden Gophers earned a fifth-seed in the NCAA Tournament and defeated UNLV in the first round before being eliminated by three points in the second round by North Carolina.

Frese's revitalization of the Minnesota program rocked the Big Ten establishment, with her team's 10-win improvement in conference play marking the biggest one-year improvement in Big Ten history. Moreover, the 11 Big Ten wins were three more than Minnesota totaled in the previous six seasons combined. The Golden Gophers had also achieved their highest ranking in school history to that point when Minnesota was listed 14th in the AP Top 25 in mid-February and garnered a No. 18 national ranking in the final regular season AP poll. Undoubtedly, Frese had arrived.

Frese started her head coaching career during the 1999-2000 season at Ball State, a program that had gone 66-169 in the nine seasons prior to her arrival. She guided the Cardinals to a 16-13 showing in 2000 and garnered Coach of the Year honors in the Mid-American Conference. Frese led Ball State to a then-school best 19-9 mark in 2000-01, capturing the school's second back-to-back winning seasons in Ball State history. In her final year at Ball State, the 2000-01 team received votes in the AP poll, climbing as high as No. 28 in the country.

Frese's enthusiasm has been contagious for the fans of her teams as well, as support increased significantly at both Minnesota and Ball State under her leadership. Buoyed by the best start (9-1) in school history, the Golden Gophers finished the season ranked 19th nationally in home attendance average (4,360), including an average of 8,828 fans during the second half of the campaign when the team moved to Williams Arena from the Sports Pavilion. The Gophers attracted the top four crowds in school history, including a record attendance of 12,142 vs. Michigan State and a crowd of 11,389 vs. Indiana. Frese's 2000-01 Ball State team posted a 10-2 home record and set a single-season home attendance record.

She launched her Division I coaching career in 1994 as an assistant coach at Kent State University, helping the Golden Flashes to records of 20-8 (1994) and 17-10 (1995) during her two years there. The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, native then joined Bill Fennelly's staff at Iowa State as the Cyclones' recruiting coordinator, where she assisted in another impressive turnaround, helping ISU to three NCAA Tournament appearances in four years. All told, the Cyclones posted a composite record of 84-38 with Frese as an assistant, including a 17-10 record in 1995-96 when Iowa State recorded the biggest one-season turnaround in school history. In 1997, the Cyclones made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a feat they duplicated in 1998 and 1999 with identical 25-8 records. In 1999, Iowa State was ranked among the nation's Top 25 for the entire season and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

During her stay at Iowa State, her 1998-99 recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 10, and the Cyclones enjoyed tremendous success at the gate, drawing a record crowd of 12,337 vs. Santa Clara in the first round of an NCAA Tournament game played in Ames, Iowa, and rewriting Iowa State's single-season attendance mark multiple times.

Frese is a 1993 graduate of the University of Arizona, where she was a three-year letterwinner for the Wildcats as a guard. When injuries sidelined her during her senior season, she joined the Pima Community College coaching staff in Tucson, Ariz., as an assistant coach in charge of recruiting and scouting. Aside from her bachelor's degree in communications from Arizona in 1993, she also earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Kent State in 1995.

Frese has found success in her personal life, as well, marrying husband Mark Thomas on August 20, 2005. The couple, who live in Howard County, Md., are expecting twins in the spring.

IN THEIR WORDS...

"Brenda is one of the bright young coaches in the game today. Maryland is very fortunate. She'll do an unbelievable job of adding to the great tradition that Chris Weller had started there."

— Connecticut Head Coach Geno Auriemma

"I think this is a great hire for the University of Maryland. Brenda will do a great job of continuing the great tradition of Maryland basketball. She is outstanding in all areas needed to lead a program to national prominence. She is hard working and extremely organized. She knows what it takes to find players who can succeed at this level."

— Iowa State Head Coach Bill Fennelly

"I think the University of Maryland made a good choice in hiring Brenda. She is obviously an up-and-coming coach and she did a great job at the University of Minnesota while she was there. She worked for me so I feel I know her a little better than some other people. I think she will do a great job there, I think it was a good hire and I think that five years down the road, the University of Maryland will have a very good team on their hands."

— Kent State Head Coach Bob Lindsay

"Coach Frese has built a motivated, skilled basketball team that will strive to be on the top of their game. It is a fun and exciting style of play for players and for fans. Coach Frese is a hard working and dedicated coach who will continue to win at a very high level."

— Debbie Antonelli, National Basketball Analyst

A 14-year assistant coaching veteran, Erica Floyd enters her sixth season at Maryland and begins her seventh as a member of head coach Brenda Frese's staff, dating back to the days the two coach at Minnesota.

"Erica has been the glue to our program," said Frese. "She played at a high-profile program and that experience has really benefited our players. She is a dynamic person with tremendous organizational and people skills, and she's had a direct impact on our recruiting efforts. She is a star in our profession."

Floyd made the move from Minnesota with Frese and has helped to transform and rebuild the Terrapin program to the national power it is today, resulting in the 2006 National Championship title and four-consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Maryland's improvements are apparent not just in hardware, but also on the stat sheets. Assisting with on-court development, opponent scouting and player development, during Floyd's tenure the Terps have led the nation in rebounding average in each of the last two years, while ranking in the top 15 in scoring (including the top two in the last two years) over the last three seasons. The Terps have set records for wins (34), achieved a top five national ranking in 2005-06, the highest in 13 years, and were ranked No. 1 for 10 weeks in 2006-07.

In Floyd's five years, she has mentored the 2005 and 2006 ACC Rookies of the Year in Crystal Langhorne and Marissa Coleman, while 12 Terps have earned all-conference recognition. Her recruiting efforts have helped to land five-straight top 10 incoming classes, bringing in some of the top talents in the nation, including the No. 2-rated classes in 2004 and 2006, and the No. 4 class in the nation in 2005. Among the players she helped to recruit to College Park is Maryland's second all-time leading scorer and three-time All-ACC honoree Shay Doron, a member of the WNBA's N.Y. Liberty.

At Minnesota, Floyd assisted not only in on- and off-campus recruiting, but also with scouting and film breakdown. The position coach for forwards and centers, she helped guide 2002 Big Ten Freshman of Year Janel McCarville, also a member of the N.Y. Liberty, and also led the Gophers' community service efforts. Minnesota experienced the biggest one-year turnaround in Big Ten history in Floyd's year there, going 22-8 after inheriting a program that had been 8-20 the previous season.

She called Cleveland State home from 1998-2001 and served the Viking program in all capacities. She coached Audra Cook, 2000 Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year while at CSU and was in charge of coordinating team travel and assisting in recruiting efforts both on- and off-campus. She continued to lend her experience to the forwards and centers and also aided in monitoring academics, scouting and coordinating summer camps.

Floyd joined the coaching ranks at Kent State from 1994-98 where she coached alongside Frese, who was an assistant at the time. A position coach for forwards and centers, Floyd assisted with various aspects of the program including coordinating team travel, scouting and summer camps. A Kent, Ohio, native, she also served as the school's assistant marketing director from 1995-98.

Graduating with a bachelor of science degree in education in 1993, Floyd played basketball at Ohio State University from 1989-92. She was on the Buckeye team that shared the 1989 Big Ten title. A graduate of Theodore Roosevelt High School, she was named the 1988 Gatorade High School Player of the Year for the state of Ohio and was inducted to the Theodore Roosevelt High School Hall of Fame in 2006.

Floyd is an active member of the Black Coaches Association (BCA) and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA). She resides in Columbia, Md.

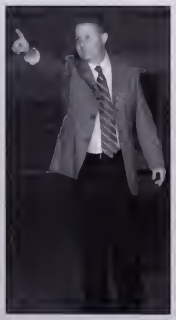
FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND
EIGHTH OVERALL



Daron Park enters his first season at Maryland, after being hired by head coach Brenda Frese to replace long-time associate head coach Jeff Walz. Park brings with him over 11 years of coaching experience, including eight at the collegiate level, recently spending three seasons at the University of Utah.

"Daron is an upbeat, energetic coach who will have a direct effect on our players," said Frese. "His strengths include on-court player development, scouting and game management. He brings fresh ideas and will have a huge impact on our team."

During Park's tenure as an assistant to legendary Utah head coach Elaine Elliott, the Utes won two Mountain West Conference Championships, making two NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2006, Utah made its best-ever showing in the Big Dance, advancing to the Elite Eight, falling 10 points short of the NCAA Final Four to the eventual national champion Maryland Terrapins in overtime.

Helping the Utes to 72 victories during his three seasons, his primary responsibilities included development of perimeter players, scouting of opponents, game preparation and assisting in recruiting efforts. He coached former Ute standouts Kim Smith and Shona Thorburn, both MWC Players of the Year and first-round WNBA draft picks.

Prior to arriving at Utah, Park was head coach of the women's basketball team at Westminster College, a NAIA school in Salt Lake City, for four years from 2000-04. He handled all facets of the program, including developing the team's offensive and defensive philosophies, game management, practice planning, team travel and recruiting, while also serving as the head coach of the golf teams and the department's sports information director. Park produced 30 academic all-conference and eight Academic All-America selections while there. In 2003-04, the Lady Griffins led the league in field goal percentage, had two all-conference picks and the newcomer of the year.

Park began his coaching career as an assistant coach for the Valley High School boys basketball team in Las Vegas, a position he held from 1996-99, winning the 1997 zone championship and 1998 state title, amassing a 61-27 record over his three years. He went on to be an assistant men's basketball coach at Westminster in 1999 before being appointed the first head coach of the women's team.

Park was a team manager for the University of Idaho's men's basketball team in 1989-90, then transferred to Montana State, where he also served in that capacity until graduating in 1994 with a degree in health enhancement.

Park is married to his wife, Laura. The couple has two children - a daughter, Rylee (7) and a son Dillon (2) – and live in Laurel, Md.

DIANE RICHARDSON

ASSISTANT COACH • FROSTBURG STATE '80
SECOND YEAR OVERALL

"Diane is an incredible, inspirational success story," said Frese. "One of the most well-known and respected coaches in the area, her energy and enthusiasm for the game is contagious. She excels on and off the court and, because of that, she's contributed to this program from the day she was hired."

Richardson took over for former assistant coach Joanna Bernabei and will assist with on-court player development, game management, opponent scouting and recruiting.

Richardson has logged 15 years of coaching experience, including one year at the collegiate level. In her only season as an assistant coach at American University, she helped the Eagles reach the 2007 Patriot League Championship finals.

Most of Richardson's success on the coaching sidelines came as head coach of Riverdale Baptist High School in Riverdale, Md. From 1999-2005, she amassed a 142-20 record and was selected the 2005 Black Coaches Association National Coach of the Year after leading the Crusaders to a No. 2 national ranking by USA Today.

Richardson guided Riverdale to the National Association of Christian Athletes national title in 2006, en route to garnering Regional Coach of the Year honors by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA). Her 2003 and 2004 teams won the Association of Christian Schools International national crown and were runners up in 2002.

Over 20 of Richardson's players earned Division I scholarships, with three garnering All-American honors by Parade Magazine and McDonald's, including Duke's Wanisha Smith. Richardson was head coach of the USA Red Team which won a bronze medal at the 2005 Youth Development Festival and also had three players selected to play in the 2003, 2004 and 2005 Festivals. She has been involved with numerous AAU teams and tournaments, and serving as head coach of the adidas All-American Camp and adidas All-American All-Star game.

Richardson was the Executive Director and coach of the Beltway Lady Cougars AAU team in Lanham, Md., from 1991-2000. The Lady Cougars were voted the No. 1 girls basketball program in the nation and reached the AAU National Elite Eight four times.

Earning her Master's Degree in management and finance from Central Michigan University in 1984, Richardson earned National Marketing Director of the Year honors three-straight years from 1990-1992 and founded RCI Financial in Lanham, Md., in 1984 serving as president and C.E.O of the company.

Richardson is a 1980 graduate of Frostburg State University, lettering in basketball and track. In basketball, she was the NCAA's regional field goal percentage leader in 1976 as a freshman and was the 1979 NCAA Regional Champion in the 200 and 400 meter races, earning a spot as a qualifier on the 1980 U.S. Olympic team, which did not compete in the games. As a graduate of nearby Largo High, she was also a basketball and track athlete and was state champion in 1975 and 1976 in five sprinting events.

Richardson currently resides in Ellicott City, Md., with her husband, Larry. The couple has three children - Dana, Larry II and Michael.

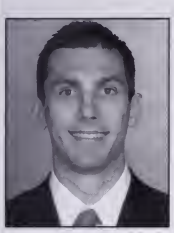
RHET WIERZBA

DIR. OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS • AUSTIN PEAY '04
FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND
FOURTH YEAR OVERALL



Entering his first season at Maryland, Rhet Wierzba was hired by head coach Brenda Frese to be the Terps' director of basketball operations. Wierzba's primary responsibilities include handling the day-to-day operations of the team, while also coordinating team travel, scheduling practice time and monitoring the players' academic progress as the liaison to the Academic Support and Career Development office.

"Rhet is extremely hard working, organized, prepared and a great problem solver," said Frese. "We are very fortunate to have him on the staff. He will oversee all administrative issues in the office. He will also coordinate all team travel and summer camps."

A native of Farmington, Ill., Wierzba, who replaces former director of basketball operations Mark Pearson, spent two seasons at Evansville serving in the same capacity for the Purple Aces' men's squad. After two seasons, he was named interim assistant coach in the spring of 2007, before packing his bags to come to College Park. Among his responsibilities at UE was handling team travel, monitoring players' academic performance and was the camp director of the team's summer camps.

Wierzba is a 2004 graduate of Austin Peay State, where he helped the Governors win back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference titles, while making an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2003 and a WNIT showing the following season. A team captain for two years, he was named an OVC Scholar Athlete his senior year, also winning the department's Joy Award, presented to the most outstanding senior student-athlete. He was also twice selected APSU's Male Scholar-Athlete.

After graduating summa cum laude with a degree in business management and earning honorable mention academic All-American honors three times, Wierzba went on to play professionally in Mexico and Canada.

Wierzba returned to Austin Peay after his professional stint, joining the coaching staff as a graduate assistant coach in 2004. In that position, he assisted with on-court player development, recruiting and planned team travel, while also earning a master's degree in science in health and human performance, with a concentration in sports administration. He completed his degree in 2005.

Wierzba was a member of numerous honor societies and was the school's Vice President and President of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) in 2003 and 2004. He received the conference's Medal of Honor in 2001 and 2004 for achieving the top grade point average and earned the Dr. Leon Bibb Postgraduate Scholarship.

Wierzba played high school basketball at Farmington High where he was a valedictorian, a National Merit semifinalist and an Illinois State Scholar. He has an older brother, Ben, who is currently an assistant coach with the Evansville men's basketball team. Wierzba is single and currently resides in Laurel, Md.

BILLY FENNELLY

1ST YEAR AT MARYLAND • 1ST YEAR OVERALL

Billy Fennelly was the last member of Brenda Frese's staff to be hired this summer, as he enters his first season as the administrative assistant to the recruiting coordinator.

"Billy has incredible enthusiasm to make our program the best," said Frese. "He arrives with a great basketball pedigree. He will assist in all areas as needed and oversee our managers and scout team. We are thrilled to have him on our staff."

Fennelly's duties will also include supervising and managing the team managers and assist in the day-to-day operations of the team.

Fennelly graduated from Iowa State this past May with a degree in sports management after transferring to the school from the University of Iowa. During his three years at ISU, he served as a student manager for the Cyclones women's basketball team, supervising and coordinating the team's staff of managers by his senior year. Also in his final year with the team, he was the color commentator on the Iowa State Cyclones Women's Basketball Radio Network.

Fennelly is the son of Iowa State's women's basketball head coach Bill Fennelly, who has led the Cyclones to 12-consecutive winning seasons and seven NCAA Tournament berths. Coach Fennelly was also head coach of the Cyclones when Frese was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 1996-99.

Billy Fennelly has worked various basketball camps, including camps at ISU and Missouri State University, and was camp director of Lil' Bill's Basketball Camp in Huxley, Iowa, during the summer of 2006.

Fennelly resides in Laurel, Md.

FRESE ON NEWMAN:

"We are looking for Ashleigh to make a complete recovery after undergoing offseason surgery. We need Ashleigh to establish herself as a defensive presence. She is a tough competitor who plays with pride and can provide this team with a spark."

NOTEWORTHY:

Ranked among the top three-point shooters in the history of the program, entering the season ranked fourth in makes, fifth in attempts and tied for 10th in 3-point shooting percentage.

2006-07:

One of three juniors to appear in their 100th-career game, coming in the final regular-season game at Boston College ... briefly owned Maryland's single-game three-point shooting record, knocking down 87.5 percent of her attempts, going 6-for-7 at Miami, shattering the previous record of 66.7 percent set in 1989 ... teammate Kristi Toliver broke Newman's mark four games later ... knocked down one of the team's record-setting 12 three pointers against UNC-Greensboro on the first day of the Terrapin Classic ... scored 13 consecutive points vs. Wake Forest, en route to a 20-point effort, recording a season high ... led the team in scoring three times, including against the Hurricanes, vs. George Mason and vs. Arizona ... grabbed at least five rebounds in eight games, including a career-high nine in the loss at Duke ... also achieved personal bests at Northern Iowa (six steals) and vs. GMU (six assists) ... 27 three pointers made is tied for the fifth-most by a junior at Maryland, while the 79 long-range attempts are third in the class records.

Hit one of the more memorable shots of the 2005-06 NCAA women's basketball season, knocking down the game-tying three pointer from nearly half-court, aiding in the eventual upset of then-No. 1 North Carolina in overtime at Carmichael Auditorium, despite a 1-for-11 showing from three-point range over the previous five games ... improved on all but one (blocks) of her career-high marks last season, taking on a larger role as a starter in 25 games (including the first 22 games to start the season) and the team's top defender ... had a six-game double-figure scoring streak from Dec. 11-Jan. 2 ... posted 15 double-figure games ... netted a career-high tying 21 points at George Mason ... 5-for-8 from the floor and perfect on five tries from the free throw line for 16 points against Appalachian State ... a solid outing at Virginia, contributing 15 points on 5-for-9 shooting, including 3-for-7 from beyond the arc, in the overtime victory ... grabbed a career-high seven rebounds in the wins at Wake Forest and Clemson ... also picked up a career-high six assists vs. Georgia Tech at Comcast Center ... broke out of a shooting slump where she scored no more than eight points over an 11-game stretch, scoring 14 points and 12 points at the ACC Tournament ... gave the Terps a second-half boost, scoring all 14 points in 20 minutes in the ACC Tournament final against North Carolina ... 12 points in the first-round win over Sacred Heart, knocking down 2-of-3 three-point attempts ... 3-for-3 with six rebounds in the Sweet 16 against Baylor ... dished out at least five assists against Mount St. Mary's, Central Connecticut State, Georgia Tech, at North Carolina and against Northern Colorado ... recorded one of the top 15 three-point shooting percentages in school history, while also ranking in the top 15 in treys made and attempted.

Team's top three-point threat while also serving as backup point guard ... 10th in the ACC in three-point field goal percentage (.351) ... was within one trey of tying the school record, knocking down 7-of-11 threes, scoring a career-high 21 points in 22 minutes at Clemson ... seven 3-pointers vs. the Tigers were all in the first half ... nine points on 4-for-7 shooting in first-collegiate appearance at Appalachian State, to go along with three assists, two rebounds and a steal ... 2-for-3 from behind the arc and four rebounds against Loyola ... back-to-back 11-point outings, then a career high, vs. St. Bonaventure and Monmouth ... also 3-for-5 from three-point land vs. the Bonnies and a perfect 5-for-5 from the floor vs. the Hawks ... nine points and a career-high six boards vs. UMass ... perfect from the field (2-2), three-point range (1-1) and from the charity stripe (2-2) in the overtime win at Arizona, netting seven points and grabbing four rebounds in 12 minutes ... followed up the 21-point performance at Clemson with a 12-point outing vs.

PERRY'S HONOR ROLL
• Second team All-ACC Tournament (2006)

FRESE ON PERRY:
"Jade is a strong player with a touch of finesse. It would surprise some to learn that she was among the ACC's best free throw shooters last season, but she knows her job is to battle in the paint every game and make life difficult on our opponent."

2006-07:
Shot a career-best 87.1 percent for the season from the free throw line, the 10th-best single-season performance from the charity stripe in school history ... one of three juniors to make their 100th-career game appearance in the final regular-season game at Boston College ... back-to-back double-doubles in blowout wins over Michigan State and at Miami ... two points and 10 boards in the win over MSU ... led the team in scoring (19 points), going 8-for-10 from the floor, and rebounding (14) against the Canes, nabbing season highs in both categories ... posted six games with double-digit rebounding, including ACC contests at home vs. Virginia and BC, hauling down 10 in each game ... grabbed 11 boards in wins over TCU and Northern Iowa ... blocked a pair of shots in three games – vs. Gardner-Webb, at UNI and at Loyola ... averaged 5.5 rebounds per game, a career high, and tied a career mark with 17 blocks ... ranked fifth in free throw shooting in the ACC.

Earned second team All-ACC Tournament nods, due in large part to a stellar 18-point effort in the tournament final against North Carolina ... 14 of those points came in the first half ... it is the first ACC accolade of her career ... in the starting lineup against Gonzaga at the Paradise Jam, remaining in the starting five in 20 games overall ... grabbed a then-career high 11 boards to go with nine points against the Zags ... helped to limit Tennessee's Candace Parker to just eight points over the final 27 minutes (after she scored 11 in the first 12 minutes), in an 80-75 loss to the Lady Vols in the championship game of the Paradise Jam ... bounced back from a 0-point, 1-rebound outing against UT to register her first-career double-double vs. Appalachian State, netting a then-career best 16 points and hauled down a career-high 16 rebounds ... followed up with a 23-point, 13-rebound effort vs. Mount St. Mary's ... also had three blocks in both games ... 11 rebounds in the next game at Monmouth ... 5-for-9 from the field, connecting on a career-high seven free throws for 17 points, 10 rebounds against Manhattan ... helped to limit Duke's Alison Bales and Mistie Williams to a combined 13 points and five rebounds at Comcast Center ... 5-for-10 with 11 points and six rebounds in the victory over Florida State ... closed out the ACC slate scoring 14 points against Clemson, knocking down 6-of-9 shots ... had a dominant performance in the paint, tallying 20 points and grabbing 10 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season vs. Sacred Heart in the NCAA Tournament ... hampered by a stomach virus in the Elite Eight and was limited to just four minutes of playing time ... shot nearly 46 percent from the floor and 75 percent from the charity stripe, a major improvement from her freshman campaign.

Stepped into the starting lineup at the Terrapin Classic after teammate Laura Harper was sidelined with an injury for the duration of the season ... posted then-career highs of 10 rebounds and three blocks in the win over Pennsylvania at the Coors Classic ... recorded eight points and eight rebounds in first-career start vs. Marshall ... scored three points and grabbed seven rebounds with two blocks, limiting second team All-ACC performer and the ACC's field goal percentage leader, Erlana Larkins, to below her scoring average and just 3-for-10 shooting in the upset-win over No. 5/4 North Carolina ... responded with one of her best efforts of the season, scoring 10 points and grabbing six rebounds in a career-high 35 minutes at No. 1/4 Duke ... knocked down the game-tying bucket with 0.8 seconds remaining in regulation in the nationally televised, overtime win at Arizona ... the buzzer beater was No. 2 on that evening's ESPN Sportcenter's Top 10 Plays of the Day ... set a then-career high with 12 points on 6-for-11 shooting against Wake Forest, also grabbing seven rebounds ... six points and five rebounds against then-No. 3/4 Duke in front of a record crowd at Comcast Center ... knocked down 5-of-9 shots for 10 points in the home contest vs. Virginia Tech ... 11 points and six rebounds in the upset-win over No. 19/21 NC State in the second round of the ACC Tournament ... 4-for-8 from the field in the NCAA Tournament first-round game vs. No. 24/21 UW-Green Bay ... averaged 5.1 ppg and 3.4 rpg in ACC-only games.

SA'DE WILEY-GATEWOOD

SR. • 5-9 • GUARD
POMONA, CALIF.
LYNWOOD HS (TENNESSEE)

WILEY-GATEWOOD'S HONOR ROLL
• Terrapin Classic All-Tournament (2006)

FRESE ON WILEY-GATEWOOD:
"Sa'de has the ability to push the tempo in the open court and to lead this team when she's healthy. After offseason surgery, we're hoping she will be close to 100 percent. She's a special player when she's clicking on all cylinders."

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE:
Member of the West team at the 2003 USA Youth Development Festival ... averaged 12.8 points, 3.6 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game, helping her team capture the bronze medal.

2006-07:
After sitting out the first 12 games of the season due to NCAA transfer rules, returned to the court at Loyola and made an immediate impact ... in her first appearance in a Maryland uniform, scored seven points against the Greyhounds in front of a sold-out crowd ... followed up with three-straight double-figure outings ... had a then-career high 15 points in the first game of the Terrapin Classic against UNC Greensboro, her second game back on the court ... the following day, netted a career-high 17 points against eventual NCAA Sweet 16 participant on the second day of the tournament, garnering all-tournament team honors ... set new career highs in assists (nine at Miami), rebounds (seven against Michigan State), field goals made (five against Georgia Tech), three pointers made (four vs. NC State) and blocks (two vs. North Carolina) ... 22 games played are the most appearances in a season ... a starter in both games of the NCAA Tournament.

2005-06 AT TENNESSEE & MARYLAND:
A starter at the point guard position in eight of nine games played before coming to College Park... averaged 8.0 points, 2.6 rpg and 1.3 apg ... 12 points, four assists and three rebounds in the win over #9/9 Michigan State at the Paradise Jam ... followed up with an 11-point outing against the 10th-ranked Terps ... scored 11 points, going 3-for-4 from three-point range, and four rebounds against No. 16/18 Texas ... transferred to Maryland in January 2007 ... spent the spring semester as a member of the practice squad, helping the team prepare for its national title run.

2004-05 AT TENNESSEE:
Averaged 3.9 points, 1.5 rebounds, 1.5 assists and shot 91.7 percent from the free throw line playing in 13 games, helping Tennessee reach the NCAA Final Four ... played in 13 games, missing most of the season because of patellar tendonitis ... underwent surgery in late March ... made her collegiate debut netting nine points, four steals and four assists, connecting on 3-of-5 three-point shots, in a win against TCU ... scored the team's final six points to seal a 68-67 victory over Connecticut, en route to a career-high 12 points ... knocked down a trey at the first-half buzzer to complete UT's 15-point comeback against Vanderbilt in an eventual 79-65 win ... had a career-high six rebounds in a victory over South Carolina.

BEFORE COLLEGE:
2004 Parade Magazine National High School Girls Player of the Year, becoming the first prep national player of the year to play for Maryland ... also tabbed the National Player of the Year that season by All Game Sports ... USA Today and Parade All-American twice ... McDonald's, WBCA and SLAM Magazine All-American in 2004, winning the McDonald's three-point shooting contest ... a four-time Street & Smith's All-American, earning first-team honors in 2003 ... 2004 Gatorade Player of the Year for California ... selected the National Sophomore of the Year by Student Sports, also earning first team All-America nods twice (2002, 2004) and second team once (2003) ... a four-year starter at Lynwood High School, leading the team to a 119-7 record, including a 33-0 mark as a sophomore, en route to claiming the state title and being named

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE

FRESE ON COLEMAN:

"There are very few players with Marissa's combination of size and skills. She can play so many positions, it's like having four players in one. She presents a real match-up nightmare for opponents. She's worked very hard to elevate her game to new heights and I think she has a chance to be our best defender."

NOTEWORTHY:

The only player in school history to record a triple-double, coming in December 2006 ... 42 points from 1,000 for her career ... needs 20 boards to reach the top 15 in the Maryland record books ... boasts one of the top 15 scoring and rebounding averages in school history ... in the top 10 in the school records in career shot blocks, three pointers made and threes attempted, while her three-point shooting percentage is in the top five ... boasts an 81.9 shooting percentage from the charity stripe, which would be a school record, but needs one more attempt to qualify.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Member of the 2007 U.S. Pan American team, winning a gold medal ... played in all five games of the tournament, averaging 9.4 points and 4.2 rebounds per game, shooting 57.7 percent from the field and 46.2 percent from three-point range ... won a gold medal at the 2005 FIBA U19 World Championship in Tunis, Tunisia, in her second stint with the USA U19 Basketball team, averaging 8.8 ppg and 4.4 rpg, while shooting .778 from the free throw line ... the U19 squad was named USA Basketball 2005 Team of the Year ... also helped the USA win a gold medal at the International Sports Invitational in San Diego, Calif. ... member of the 2004 USA U19 team (formerly the Junior World Championship Qualifying team) that captured a gold medal at the Junior World Championship Qualifying tournament in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico ... 8.6 ppg, 5.0 rpg and 2.0 apg in Puerto Rico, helping the United States capture a gold medal and a berth into the 2005 FIBA World Championship.

Received national recognition and was named Honorable Mention All-American by the Associated Press ... a Midseason Wooden All-American, as well as, a preseason candidate for all three major national player of the year awards – the John R. Wooden Award, the Wade Trophy and the Naismith Award ... a second team All-ACC pick for the second-consecutive year ... the first Terrapin and the 11th player in ACC history to record a triple-double, tallying 15 points, 14 rebounds and 10 assists against UC Santa Barbara on Dec.

2 … went on to earn ACC Player of the Week nods for the first time in her career … Terrapin Classic Most Valuable Player after averaging 14.0 points and 7.0 rebounds per game … 4-for-4 on three pointers against eventual NCAA Sweet 16 participant Marist in the Terrapin Classic … eight double-doubles, including three-straight from Feb. 18-Mar. 2, ending the season with a double-double in the NCAA Tournament loss to Mississippi … in the last eight games of the season, averaged 15.0 ppg and 9.1 rpg, which included five double-doubles and was no more than two boards away from a double-double in the other three games … garnered All-ACC Tournament honors for the second time, earning a place on the second team, averaging 17.0 ppg and 9.5 rpg, while shooting .583 from the floor over the two games … an all-around threat, ranking 17th in scoring in the ACC, ninth in rebounding, 12th in field goal percentage, 11th in assists per game (3.21), sixth in free throw percentage, 14th in three-point field goal percentage, 14th in blocks per game (0.85) and 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio … voted to the Preseason All-ACC team … received preseason honors from numerous national publications … a High Honorable Mention All-American by Street & Smith's and a Preseason second team All-American by ESPN.com … tabbed the No. 2 Wing in the nation by ESPN.com before the start of the season.

Second-straight Terrapin to be named ACC Rookie of the Year, earning 61 of 70 votes … only freshman in the league to earn All-ACC honors and was voted to the second team … five-time ACC Rookie of the Week, the most of any freshman in the conference and tying a school record … led the ACC with a 47.0 three-point shooting percentage, ranking in the top 15 in seven different statistical categories … 10th in the ACC in scoring, third in rebounding, 13th in field goal percentage, fourth in free throw percentage, eighth in blocks and second in defensive rebounds (6.16 rpg) … tied the ACC record for most double-figure games by a freshman (29), also ranking in the top 10 among the all-time best freshmen in the conference in three-point field goals made

TOLIVER'S HONOR ROLL

- Preseason Wade Trophy Candidate (2006, 07)
- Preseason Naismith Award Candidate (2006)
- Nancy Lieberman Award Finalist (2007)
- Third Team All-ACC (2007)
- NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team (2006)
- NCAA Albuquerque All-Tournament Team (2006)
- Terrapin Classic All-Tournament Team (2006)
- ACC All-Freshman Team (2006)
- ACC Rookie of the Week (1/26/06, 2/6/06 [co])

FRESE ON TOLIVER:

"Not many people play the game as beautifully as Kristi. There isn't a better shooter in the country and her ability to make plays separates her as one of the best point guards in the country. She spent the offseason refining her game and I think she's going to have a terrific season."

NOTEWORTHY:

Needs just five assists to move into the top 15 in the Maryland record books … 4.5 career assists per game average is the fourth-best in the history of the program … 42.7 percent career shooting from long range is second all-time at Maryland and ranks third in the ACC record book … also ranks fourth in career three-pointers made and is among the top five in three-point attempts in the school annals … needs 200 points to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

2006-07:

A finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award, presented to the nation's top point guard … one of four Terrapin preseason candidates for the Wade Trophy and one of five for the Naismith Award … broke the single-game school and ACC record for three-point shooting percentage, going a perfect 6-for-6 (1.000) at Clemson … set a new Maryland record with 72 threes made in a season … ranked fourth in the nation and first in the league in three-point shooting (44.7 percent) … also among the top 50 in the country in assists per game (4.7) … led the team in scoring in the NCAA Tournament, averaging 18.5 ppg, also dishing out 6.0 apg … had a 12-game stretch scoring in double figures from Nov. 25-Jan. 10 … reached double figures in 25 games overall … had three games with at least 20 points, netting 24 in the final game of the season vs. Mississippi in the NCAA Tournament … put together a streak of 11 games with at least two three pointers made from Jan. 19-Feb. 25 … the streak was snapped in the first round of the ACC Tournament, but finished out the season averaging 2.7 threes made per game … handed out at least five assists in 18 games, including a season-high 10 against TCU in the first game of the BTI Classic at Comcast Center … hit four of Maryland's school-record 12 treys in the win over UNC Greensboro in the Terrapin Classic … also had seven assists in the game vs. UNCG and followed up with an 11-point effort to earn Terrapin Classic All-Tournament honors … grabbed a career-high seven rebounds in the home loss to second-ranked North Carolina, handing out six assists to go with 10 points … 87.7 percent shooting from the free throw line is the second-best single-season performance in school history, behind her record-breaking showing in 2005-06 … ranked 22nd in the ACC in scoring, third in assists per game (4.7), fourth in assist-to-turnover ration (1.69), first in three-point percentage and sixth in made threes per game (2.12) … led the team in scoring seven times … Street & Smith's Honorable Mention All-American in the preseason.

2005-06:

Became a household name during the NCAA Tournament, hitting one of the most memorable shots in Maryland women's basketball and in tournament history, a three pointer with just six seconds remaining in regulation over Duke's 6-foot-7 center Alison Bales in the title matchup to force overtime … named to the NCAA Final Four and Albuquerque Regional All-Tournament teams … in a "Michael Jordan-like performance," her career-high 28-point outing against Utah in the Elite Eight while battling the stomach flu was one of the top performances of the 2006 NCAA Tournament … went 6-for-9 from the three-point line against the Utes, as well, with six assists … named to the ACC All-Freshman team, leading all conference rookies with a 4.39 assists per game average and ranked third in scoring (11.6 ppg) … 16 points and six assists in first-career game in a Terrapin uniform at Siena … dished out a then-career high 11 assists to go with 17 points against Appalachian State for first double-double of the season … started out the season with double-figure scoring games in five of six games … saw minimal playing time from Dec. 4-30, sitting out five games and playing only three minutes vs. Arizona, because of injury … had a solid week leading to ACC Rookie of the Week honors on Jan. 20 … started with a 16-point, six-rebound performance on 6-for-8 shooting in the win over Florida State and followed up with her second double-double of the season against the Cavaliers (12 points, 10 assists), while playing in her home state for the first time … closed out that week with a 17-point game against Virginia Tech, tallying the team's final 10 points in the last four minutes of the game to come away with a 68-62 victory … nearly had another double-double, sinking 16 points while collecting nine assists in the home victory over UVA, helping the Terrapins sweep the Cavs for the first time since 1987, also earning ACC co-Rookie of the Week nods… 14 points, eight assists in the upset, overtime win at then-No. 1 North Carolina … scored a then-career high 19 points in the very next game at Duke, also ranked No. 1 at the time … a 16-point outing against the Blue Devils helped knock off the then-No. 2 Blue Devils in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament … 12 assists

ABOUT THE ACC

THE TRADITION

John Swofford,
ACC Commissioner

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 55th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 105 national championships, including 56 in women's competition and 47 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 139 times in men's competition and 86 times in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With North Carolina's victory over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured 10 NCAA basketball championships, including six over the last 17 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1939. With an impressive 65-33 mark over the past six years, the 12 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 364-203 for a sterling .642 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

In the 23 years of the current 64-team field, the ACC has produced 21 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and five more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 227-111 (.672) NCAA record, including 62 "Sweet 16" appearances and 21 Final Four berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 62 of the 116 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Following their title run in 2005, North Carolina's Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with four NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke has claimed three national titles, NC State two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels have captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in four of the last seven years and 13 times overall and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 18-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play is tops among all conferences.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 36 consensus All-Americans - 16 more than any other conference. Since 1981, the ACC has accounted for 26 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (36-of-140).

Six of the last 11 and eight of the last 15 consensus National Players of the Year have come from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 15 consensus national players of the year - 12 more than any other conference. Eight of the ACC's 15 National Players of the Year were unanimous selections.

A year ago the ACC led all conferences with 54 players in the NBA. In addition, over the past two years 23 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including 15 in 2006 and eight last year.

This past June the ACC led all conferences with six players selected in the first round of the annual NBA draft. The ACC has had the most, or tied for the most, first round draft picks in four of the past six years and in 10 of the last 15. Since 1986, the ACC has had 88 first round selections - 19 more than any other conference.

The ACC became the first conference in NCAA history to have 10 teams finish the season with 20 or more wins and for the second-straight year, 10 ACC teams took part in post-season play in 2006-07, including an ACC record seven NCAA Tournament teams.

For the first time in league history, the ACC surpassed the 2.4 million mark in attendance in 2006-07. The 12 league schools totaled 2,435,441 over 213 regular season games and six ACC Tournament sessions.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by the league's regional and national television exposure. A year ago, a record-setting 278 television appearances involving ACC teams, highlighted the 2006-07 schedule, including 156 appearances on national television networks.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2007-08 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

THIS IS TERRAPIN BASKETBALL

LANGHORNE ALL-AMERICAN AGAIN

Crystal Langhorne has achieved many "firsts" in her career at Maryland and another came at the end of the 2006-07 campaign. For the second-straight year, Langhorne was selected an All-American by the Associated Press and the USBWA, the first Terrapin to repeat for the national honor by any naming organization.

Langhorne was also tabbed a WBCA All-American, voted on by the NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches. She is the first player in school history to garner an All-American nod by the WBCA as a junior and is the fourth Terp all-time to receive the WBCA honor.

Shay Doron and Marissa Coleman also received AP Honorable Mention All-American recognition.

TERPS MAKE BEST ATTENDANCE GAINS

For the fourth-straight year, Maryland broke its own attendance record, making the best single-season improvement in average attendance in the NCAA in 2006-07.

In 16 games, over 150,000 fans visited Comcast Center to watch the Terps, the first time in school history over 100,000 people made their way through the turnstiles for Maryland women's basketball games. The Terps averaged 9,533 fans per game, almost double the average in 2005-06 (4,183). They posted six 10,000+ attended games last season, including two sell outs.

Maryland was sixth in the nation in average attendance and fourth in attendance in all games, as the team played in front of 241,280 spectators in 34 games last season.

TERPS SELL-OUT; BREAK ACC RECORD

In 2006-07, Maryland announced a school-record two sold out women's basketball games, marking the first-ever women's basketball sell-out in Comcast Center. It was also the second and third sold out women's basketball games in school history.

The sellouts also set a new ACC single-game attendance record, breaking the previous record of 17,243 which was held by the Terrapins. The 17,950 fans attending the Jan. 28 vs. North Carolina broke the league mark and then was tied in the final regular-season home game vs. Duke on Feb. 18.

After also drawing 10,000+ fans for games against Virginia (Jan. 19) and Wake Forest (Jan. 21), Maryland boasts eight of the top 10 single-game attendances in the history of the conference.

LANGHORNE NEARLY SHOOTS DOWN NCAA RECORD

For the second-straight year, Crystal Langhorne boasted the country's best field goal shooting percentage, nearly taking the NCAA record with her. Her 70.7 percent shooting from the floor was just 1.7 percent off the single-season NCAA mark, setting an ACC and school record and ranking as the sixth-best shooting performance in NCAA history.

Langhorne led the nation in shooting as a sophomore, as well, knocking down 67 percent of her shots, which is ranked among the top 20 shooting percentages in NCAA history.

TERPS TOPS IN NCAA STATISTICS

Maryland posted the best averages in the NCAA in two statistical categories. For the second time in as many years, the Terps had the greatest rebounding margin of any team in the country, outrebounding its opponents by +14.3 rpg. They also had the best assists per game average, dishing out 18.3 apg.

The team was ranked in the top five in the nation in three other categories and in the top 20 in seven overall. Its 82.6 points per game was the second-highest scoring average and the team's 50.0 percent shooting was third-best in the NCAA. Its +21.3 ppg scoring margin ranked fourth.

Maryland also ranked in the top 20 in three-point field goal percentage (37.1, 15th) and win-loss percentage (82.4, 16th).

TOLIVER AMONG TOP POINT GUARDS

Kristi Toliver was named a top-11 nominee for the Nancy Lieberman Award, presented to the top point guard in Division I women's basketball. The list of nominees were selected by sportswriters across the country.

Toliver ranked third in the ACC and in the top 50 in the country in assists per game (4.7). She was also fourth among league point guards in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.69. With Toliver's leadership at the point, Maryland led the nation in assists per game at 18.3.

TERPS TABBED TOP-FIVE IN PRE-PRESEASON POLLS

Even though the 2006-07 season had barely ended, the analysts were already making predictions for the 2007-08 campaign.

Moments after the national championship game concluded, ESPN analysts Kara Lawson and Stacey Dales had the Terrapins among their top five. Lawson picked the Terps fifth, after Tennessee, Rutgers, Connecticut and LSU. Dales had Maryland in fourth, picking the Lady Vols, the Huskies and the Scarlet Knights in front of the Terps, and the Lady Tigers in fifth.

A few days later, ESPN.com's Mechelle Voepel and Jeff Lippman of CSTV.com tabbed the Terps No. 2 behind the Lady Vols.

TERPS RANKED IN FINAL POLLS FOR THE THIRD-STRAIGHT YEAR

Maryland appeared in the final national polls for the third-straight year, garnering a top-15 rating in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, coming in at No. 14.

The Associated Press' final poll, which was released prior to the conclusion of the NCAA Tournament, had the Terrapins at No. 6. The team has been in the AP's final poll in each of the last two seasons and 14 times since 1976-77.

THREE TERPS NAMED ALL-ACC

Three Terrapins were named to the All-ACC team, the fourth-straight year at least two players garnered all-conference nods. Crystal Langhorne was voted to the first team for the second time, becoming only the third Terrapin to receive first-team honors twice. Marissa Coleman was a second team pick for the second time, while Kristi Toliver was named to the third team, her first All-ACC accolade.

Since head coach Brenda Frese took over the reigns, at least one player has been named to the All-ACC squad (including honorable mention) in her five years.

STARTERS ON PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LISTS; MAKE HISTORY

At least three Terps were named to several national player of the year watch lists in 2006, including all five starters - Marissa Coleman, Shay Doron, Laura Harper, Crystal Langhorne and Kristi Toliver. The Wade Trophy preseason Watch List featured four of the starters, the most for any school in the history of the award. The Naismith Award had all five as preseason candidates, also a record for the honor. The John R. Wooden Award had three Maryland candidates named to the preseason list.

In 2005-06, en route to Maryland's national championship run, all five starters averaged double-digit scoring and each received some kind of postseason honor.

CHAMPIONSHIP BANNER UNVEILLED

In its home opener vs. George Mason on Nov. 12, Maryland unveiled its national championship banner, commemorating the team's 2006 National Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA title. The banner was displayed to fans at half court but then took up permanent residence in the rafters across the way from the men's 2002 national championship banner.

2007-08 MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GREAT START!

Coming off its national championship win, Maryland continued its winnings ways well into the 2006-07 campaign, winning a school-record 24-straight games. The win streak began with its 2006 NCAA Tournament first-round victory over Sacred Heart and continued through its win at Miami on Jan. 10, 2007.

Within that tear, the Terrapins opened the season with an all-time best 18-0 record.

COLEMAN MAKES HISTORY

On Dec. 2, 2006 vs. UC Santa Barbara, Marissa Coleman recorded the first triple-double in school history, also becoming the 11th in the ACC to accomplish the feat. Coleman had 15 points, 14 rebounds and a then-career high 11 assists on the historic evening. She went on to receive ACC Player of the Week honors.

FIRST-EVER PRESEASON NO. 1 RANKING

Returning all five starters from the 2006 National Championship team, Maryland garnered its first-ever No. 1 preseason ranking in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Polls. It was the first time in 10 years a team other than Connecticut, Duke or Tennessee had been No. 1 in the initial ranking of the season.

TERPS WIN TOURNEY TITLES

Maryland played in three regular-season tournaments during the 2006-07 season, capturing the titles in all three. The Terps opened the year claiming the BTI Classic crown, defeating George Washington, TCU and Arizona. It followed up with a win at the Junkanoo Jam after dominating Gardner-Webb and Mississippi. The Terps wrapped up capturing its home tourney title in the Terrapin Classic just before conference play began.

RV MIDDLE TENN. ST. 76
MURPHY CENTER

His Blue Raiders gave her top-ranked Maryland Terrapins a lesson Friday night on what it's like to be the team everyone wants to beat. Kristi Toliver hit a 3-pointer with 3:11 left to break a tie at 72, and the defending national champions pulled out an 80-76 victory in the opener for both teams.

Not exactly a game to ease into the season.

"They made us better tonight, and that was tremendous," Frese said.

"One of the better college games I've ever been a part of. ... They made us work for everything. It was a tough battle like you saw but a tremendous environment. We loved the fans, the energy. ... It's just going to make us both better."

The victory extended Maryland's winning streak to seven straight, a run that started in the NCAA tournament last spring en route to the school's first national title. Opening on the road, the Terrapins drew 10,010 - a record crowd that was more than twice the previous best for a Blue Raiders women's game.

"Middle Tennessee has prepared us for what's going to come ahead in every game," said Crystal Langhorne, the Terrapins' preseason All-American. "We know we're going to get everybody's best game."

The teams swapped the lead five times with one tie, all in the second half. Chelsia Lymon scored with 1:59 left to pull Middle Tennessee to 75-74, but the Blue Raiders missed their next three shots.

Laura Harper hit a free throw, and Langhorne put back a miss by Shay Doron with 27 seconds to make it 78-74. Middle Tennessee turned over the ball once again, and Maryland got the victory.

Insell said his Blue Raiders got a little tired and had to come out of the press that had worked so well. Maryland had 23 turnovers the Blue Raiders turned into 30 points.

"But you know, they're the national champions. They've been picked No. 1 already this season by everybody. I'm proud of our young ladies. They made the plays when they had to make plays, and that's what they're supposed to do."

Marissa Coleman had 19 points for Maryland. Langhorne and Doron each finished with 16, while Harper had 11.

Coleman said they knew they would be a target for opponents this season.

"I don't think we knew what that meant until tonight. We knew they were a great team, but I don't think we realized how good a team they were," she said. "They were coming after us based on what we accomplished last year."

Amber Holt, a junior college transfer who originally signed with Georgia, led all scorers with 28 points for Middle Tennessee. She signed in August, and Frese's staff had no tape to study on the 6-foot guard. Chrissy Givens had 14 points, and Lymon added 13.

"They could definitely play in our league," Frese said of Givens and Holt. "They're that talented. They're tremendous."

These teams met Friday for the first time. Frese had a couple reasons for opening on the road: She's friends with Insell; and junior guard Ashleigh Newman is from Murfreesboro and won three state championships with Insell at Shelbyville Central High School.

Newman had about 200 family, friends and fans wearing special Maryland shirts for the occasion, and she knew Insell would have Middle Tennessee ready.

"He's really prepared them. They're going to do some great things this year," she said.

But Maryland started as if it hadn't taken a break since beating Duke in overtime for the national title in April. With its starting five back, the Terps scored the first six points and led by as much as 15 when Langhorne scored with 2:52 left and put Maryland up 38-23.

But the Blue Raiders forced the Terrapins into 14 first-half turnovers, and Maryland didn't score again after Langhorne's bucket. Middle Tennessee finished the half with a 10-0 run with five coming from Holt, who went 5-of-6 at the line, and they trailed 38-33 at halftime.

"I think we're just really excited for that day and to be able to celebrate with our fans at home," Langhorne said.

GEORGE MASON 43
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Top-ranked Maryland unfurled its national championship banner, then staged an impressive performance reminiscent of its play a year ago.

Kristi Toliver and Ashleigh Newman each scored 16 points, and the Terrapins rolled to a 99-43 rout of George Mason on Sunday.

Toliver had 10 points during a 22-0 run that put Maryland (2-0) up 43-15 in the first half. The margin swelled to 40 points with 13:34 left, and 50 with 7:14 to go.

Crystal Langhorne scored 14 points and Shay Doron and Christie Marrone had 12 apiece for the Terrapins.

"The most encouraging thing is how unselfish we were with the ball, offensively, and then being able to focus defensively on what we needed to get done," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said.

That was the Terrapins' method of operation last season, when they used a balanced attack to go 34-4 and beat Duke in the NCAA title game.

Maryland shot 66 percent in the first half and went 6-for-10 from 3-point range in building a 50-20 lead. The blowout was a sharp contrast to the Terrapins' opener two days earlier, an 80-76 struggle at Middle Tennessee.

Lateisha Wade scored 15 for the Patriots (0-1), who failed to make a basket over the final 10 minutes of the first half.

"Obviously, Maryland was the national champion last year for a reason," Mason coach Debbie Taneyhill said. "They're going to win a lot of games this year."

The afternoon began with a video tribute to the women's first national championship team. At the same time, still images were displayed on long white curtains that extended from the scoreboard to the center of the floor.

Then the curtains dropped, revealing the 12-foot white banner that ultimately will hang from the rafters, directly across from the red banner from the men's national title in 2002.

"Obviously, it was a very special day for us in terms of being able to unveil the banner and being able to share that moment with our family, friends and supporters," Frese said.

Before the Terps came out to the floor, Frese gathered them to stress the significance of the event.

"I told the team to really reflect on that moment," Frese said. "That banner means so much, in terms of the hard work the players put into it. They were so unselfish and cared about each other. That's the team we want to be this year."

Maryland returns all five starters from last season's squad. Although the Terrapins were pressed on the road in the opener, their talent and depth were evident against the Patriots.

Maryland made nine of its first 12 shots and received points from five different players in taking a 21-12 lead. Langhorne was 3-for-3, including two straight layups at the outset that put the Terrapins ahead to stay.

After the Patriots closed to 21-15, Doron hit a 3-pointer and scored off her own steal to begin the 22-point blitz that put Maryland in control. Toliver then connected from beyond the arc, sank a 10-footer and buried another 3-pointer.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Laura Harper quit thinking and started playing. The result was a performance reminiscent of her play in the Final Four last year when she earned Most Outstanding Player honors in leading Maryland to a national title.

Harper, who entered the game having scored a total of 14 points in Maryland's first two games, made 12 of 16 shots and scored a career-high 27 points to lead No. 1 Maryland to an 82-64 win against TCU (0-1).

"Things were just falling, and I was just playing basketball," Harper said. "Coach was telling me all week to stop thinking so much and just play. I play my best when I come out and not think about too many things."

Shay Doron scored 22 points for Maryland (3-0) and Crystal Langhorne finished with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Kristi Toliver had 10 assists for the Terrapins.

Adrianna Ross led TCU with 15 points.

Maryland opened the game with a 16-0 run, powered by six quick Harper points. All five Terps starters scored in the outburst, which ended with a Harper layup at the 16:23 mark.

"I thought that was a tremendous first half," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "I thought we executed well and got out in our transition game. I thought it was the best we have done."

The Horned Frogs answered Maryland's initial run with five quick points to cut the deficit to 16-5, but never got closer.

"They came out really fast and hit some good shots," TCU coach Jeff Mittie said. "I think we got a little frustrated. We weren't so bad early as Maryland was very, very good."

The scariest moment for Maryland occurred when Marissa Coleman, the reigning ACC Rookie of the Year, lost her balance going in for a layup and bruised her tailbone at the 10:29 mark of the first half. Coleman left the court under her own power, but didn't return to the game. Her status for Saturday's game with Arizona is uncertain.

TCU, which returned four starters from a 19-12 team that advanced to the second round of the 2006 NCAA tournament, was overwhelmed on both ends of the court, falling behind 51-28 at the half. The Frogs trailed by as many as 36 before finishing strong. Maryland, which enjoyed its biggest lead at 72-36, recorded assists on 27 of its 31 baskets.

"Our ball movement was tremendous and we were unselfish making the extra pass," Frese said. "I thought we really communicated well."

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Maryland has made a habit of controlling games early before allowing opponents to come back.

For the second consecutive game, the top-ranked Terrapins were outscored in the second half but still won comfortably.

Ashleigh Newman scored 17 points to lead Maryland to a 75-61 victory over Arizona on Saturday. Laura Harper added 14 points for the Terrapins (4-0), who had four players score in double figures.

Joy Hollingsworth led Arizona (1-2) with 22 points - 14 in the second half.

Crystal Langhorne continued her efficient start to the season, making five of six shots to finish with 11 points to extend her double-figure scoring streak to 28 games. She has missed just five field-goal attempts in four games and is shooting 81 percent for the Terrapins.

Maryland's defense effectively put the game out of reach early. After making their first basket, the Wildcats missed their next nine shot and made only two field goals in the first 10:26. By that point, Maryland led 31-5.

"We put ourselves in a hole early," Arizona coach Joan Bonvicini said. "They took advantage of every opportunity."

The Terps maintained at least a 20-point lead until Kelsey Burns hit a 3-pointer with 4:15 left in the half to pull Arizona to 42-23. After a quick timeout by coach Brenda Frese, the Terps went back up by 21 on a pair of free throws by Laura Harper.

Arizona trailed 48-28 at halftime but outscored Maryland 33-27 in the second half, shooting 51.9 percent from the floor. On Friday night, Maryland suffered a similar lapse against TCU. The Terps won 82-64 despite being outscored 36-31 after halftime.

"Being able to hit that knockout punch early. I'm excited about our starts," Frese said. "Now I'm focused on our finishes."

Maryland native Ashley Whisonant, Arizona's third-leading scorer, picked up three quick fouls in the first half and played only 19 minutes. She finished with eight points.

Arizona, which has lost two games on its current road trip, plays TCU on Sunday in the final game of the BTI Classic, a round-robin tournament hosted by Maryland. The Terrapins will face George Washington.

"We're not satisfied with the way we've been playing for two games," Harper said. "I think (Sunday's game) is going to be really big, proving something for us. We're playing three games in three days. We're trying to see how we can fight through fatigue."

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Three games in three days wasn't a problem for No. 1 Maryland.

Crystal Langhorne had 20 points and 11 rebounds to lead the top-ranked Terrapins to a 73-48 win over George Washington (No. 25 ESPN/USA Today) on Sunday.

Shay Doron scored 17 points, Laura Harper added 14 and Jade Perry had 10 for the Terps, who won their first five games for the first time in coach Brenda Frese's five-year tenure.

Kimberly Beck scored 17 points to lead the Colonials (4-1), who fell to 0-6 all-time against No. 1-ranked teams. Sarah-Jo Lawrence scored 15 and Jessica Adair added 10.

"I'm excited about how we played against a very good GW team," Frese said. "We really talked about focusing for a 40-minute game and I thought we were close to that."

In just the fourth meeting between the schools, which are located about 15 miles apart, Maryland took control with a 15-2 run to close the first half. A 3-pointer by Doron sent Maryland into the break with a 36-22 lead.

"That run at the end of the first half obviously (hurt)," Colonials coach Joe McKeown said. "We felt good about where we were."

Both teams were playing their third game in as many days as part of the BTI Classic, and their shooting showed it. Maryland, which entered the game shooting 53.6 percent from the field, made a season-low 43 percent of its shots, but compensated with a 53-30 rebounding advantage.

Langhorne, who came into the game shooting 81 percent, remained accurate, hitting 9 of 12 shots, including an assortment of layups.

"She catches everything you throw in there," Frese said. "She is a dominant inside presence. Crystal is obviously one of the best post players in the country, and she continues to show that each and every game."

After a basket by Adair 12 minutes into the second half, George Washington made just one field goal over the next 7:44. Maryland built a 42-27 lead, then erupted with a 9-0 run, capped by consecutive 3-pointers by Doron and Kristi Toliver.

George Washington shot 33 percent from the field and grabbed just six offensive rebounds.

"I feel like we are ahead of the curve defensively," Frese said.

The Terps were more than happy to play on three consecutive days.

"I think the more games, the better for us," Doron said. "We are excited about having more games. The whole season is preparation for NCAA tournament time."

JUNKANOO JAM
NOVEMBER 24, 2006
ST. GEORGES GYM

FREEPORT, Bahamas - Crystal Langhorne scored 16 points and Laura Harper had 11 to help No. 1 Maryland rout Gardner-Webb 83-41 on Friday night in the fourth annual Junkanoo Jam on Grand Bahama Island.

Maryland (6-0) scored the first 13 points of the game and led 24-2. On the other end, Gardner-Webb (2-3) missed 20 of its first 24 attempts from the field, while Maryland hit 16 of its first 28 shots.

The Running Bulldogs had a hard time containing Maryland's posts, as Langhorne and Laura Harper combined for 9-for-13 shooting and 21 of the Terps' 45 first-half points. Both also had 10 rebounds, one less than GWU's entire team.

The Terps shot 61.3 percent from the field during the opening 20 minutes and outrebounded Gardner-Webb, 24-11. GWU also made just 19 percent of its shot attempts.

It was 38-8 with 3:48 to play in the first half, and Maryland coach Brenda Frese pulled most of her starters early in the second half.

"You can't complain when you're coming here to the Bahamas," Frese said. "They've had a couple of wonderful days and enjoyed [Thanksgiving] and getting ready to play some games. I thought we had great first-half intensity. I think we need to do a much better job of picking up our intensity from half to half, especially on the defensive end."

In the second period, it was Marissa Coleman who the Bulldogs struggled to control. She was 5-for-5 from the floor and scored 14 of her 18 points. Gardner-Webb did not get closer than 34 points early in the second period.

Coleman led all scorers with 18 points, while GWU's Candyse Kelly led the Bulldogs with 15 points. Shay Doron netted 10 points as four Terrapins reached double figures. She also had six rebounds.

MISSISSIPPI 79

JUNKANOO JAM
ST. GEORGES GYM

FREEPORT, Bahamas - Shay Doron had 23 points and seven assists to help No. 1 Maryland rout Mississippi 110-79 on Saturday night in the Junkanoo Jam title game. The Terrapins improved to 7-0 on the season, their best start since he 1991-92 campaign.

"I thought we did a tremendous job again of being unselfish," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "Our intensity was there."

The 110 points are the most scored on the road by a Terrapin squad since defeating Arkansas, 110-84, on Nov. 26, 1988. It also set a new tournament record.

"They just took it to us," Rebels coach Carol Ross said. "They played like the No. 1 team. ... Physically, they were clearly better than us."

Maryland ran out to a 9-0 start, before Ole Miss (5-2) got on the scoreboard. Mississippi hung around, keeping the lead within five on four different occasions. Leading 27-18 with 9:31 remaining in the game, the Terps began to pull away, going on a 16-5 run to jump ahead, 43-23, on a Doron three pointer with just over five minutes left to play in the half.

A pair of made free throws by Christie Marrone gave Maryland the biggest lead of the half, 54-27, before Ole Miss closed out the period on an 8-2 run to go into the half trailing, 56-35.

The Terrapins shot 64.5 percent in the half as Doron and Laura Harper led all scorers with 16 and 14 points, respectively. They also limited Wooden Award and Wade Trophy Candidate Armintie Price to zero points in the half.

In the second half, Maryland never let up, pushing its lead to a 29-point cushion just three minutes in. Ashleigh Newman's layup at 14:59 put the Terps ahead by the overwhelming margin of 72-42.

Late in the period, the Terrapins went out in front, by an insurmountable 40-point margin, 101-61.

With 53 seconds left in the game, Kristi Toliver's free throws tied and broke the tournament single-game scoring record, netting the Terps' 105th and 106th points of the game.

Harper scored 19 points and Langhorne had 17 points and 13 rebounds for the defending NCAA champion Terrapins, who had five players reach double digits. Both were named to the all-tournament team. Doron was selected the tournament MVP.

Alliesha Easley had 15 points for Mississippi and Shantell Black added 13. Price ended the game with just nine points.

#1/1 MARYLAND 68
MARSHALL 49

CAM HENDERSON CENTER

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) - Maryland overcame another mistake-filled game.

The top-ranked Terrapins committed 21 turnovers but never trailed in a 68-49 win over poor-shooting Marshall on Wednesday night.

Maryland (8-0), off to its best start since the 1991-92 team opened 9-0, surpassed 20 turnovers for the fourth time in six games.

"It's something we've addressed early on and we need to get better at," coach Brenda Frese said.

Crystal Langhorne led a balanced Maryland offense with 15 points. Marissa Coleman added 13 points, and Kristi Toliver and Shay Doron scored 12 apiece.

Defending national champion Maryland has beaten its opponents by an average of 25 points. Frese said it's difficult to get a complete performance from her team every game, although Maryland came close in a 101-79 win over Mississippi on Saturday to win the Junkanoo Jam tournament in the Bahamas.

The Terrapins' 33 first-half points on Wednesday were a season low and they didn't put away Marshall until the second half. Maryland had its worst shooting performance of the season from the field at 37.5 percent (24-of-64).

"Up until this point we've been shooting the ball well," Frese said. "It was a different kind of game for us where we needed to find offense in different ways. We did a tremendous job in trying to get to the glass until we were able to find our offense again."

Meg Withrow scored 11 points to lead Marshall (5-2), which hosted a top-ranked team for the first time and was held to its lowest point total of the season.

"They're so good," Marshall coach Royce Chadwick said. "The only thing they're doing wrong right now is they're shuffling their feet a little bit too much and traveling in situations because they're a little rusty. When they get going in the spring, holy smokes."

Modupe Ishola made a free throw and a layup to bring Marshall to 35-25 with 18:37 left. But Toliver made a pair of 3-pointers to start a 21-5 run that put the Terrapins ahead 56-30 with 9:22 to go.

"Every time she shot it, it crippled me," Chadwick said. "She's just big-time."

Marshall struggled to get off shots against Maryland's full-court press. The Thundering Herd made just 31 percent (19-of-62) of their field goals and only 11 of 25 free throws and were outrebounded 53-37.

"If you get a look against Maryland, you better put it in. If you want to play at that level, you've got to make those shots," Chadwick said. "We missed some opportunities and Maryland doesn't give it to you twice."

The Terrapins made only three of their first 15 shots and went nearly seven minutes between first-half field goals.

Toliver's 3-pointer started a 14-4 run midway through the first half for a 28-11 lead, but Maryland softened on defense and Withrow made three free throws and scored off a steal to pull the Thundering Herd to 30-22 with 2:08 left in the half. Marshall got no closer.

Langhorne scored 11 points after halftime and finished with 10 rebounds for her fifth double-double of the season.

"In the first half we didn't get her enough touches," Frese said. "We came out right away after halftime and were much more aware of being able to get her the ball. She really gave us a lift in the second half."

UC SANTA BARBARA 44
DECEMBER 2, 2006
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Marissa Coleman and her teammates finally showed what they are capable of when they play a full game.

Coleman had 15 points, 14 rebounds and 10 assists - the first triple-double in Maryland history - to lead six teammates in double figures and the top-ranked Terrapins to a 105-44 victory over UC Santa Barbara on Saturday night.

"From the coaching staff on down, our expectations are so much higher than we've been playing," Coleman said. "We hadn't played a full 40 minutes game yet, which we proved tonight we are capable of doing."

Laura Harper was 7-of-7 from the field and scored 19 points, and Crystal Langhorne added 18 for Maryland (9-0), which equaled its best start since the 1991-92 season.

Jenna Green led the Gauchos (1-5) with 15 points.

Coleman hit Langhorne with a long outlet pass for her 10th assist with 6:26 remaining in the game, extending Maryland's lead to 88-40 and completing her triple-double.

"What a special, special performance by Marissa," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "She just made it look so easy."

The Terps turned the ball over a season-low nine times, shot 63.5 percent from the field and outrebounded UCSB 51-17.

Maryland controlled the game with its stifling defense, forcing the Gauchos to turn the ball over on six of their first seven possessions to fuel a 17-2 run.

"I thought we did a tremendous job coming out from the tip being ready to play and playing hard," Frese said. "Hands down, this was our best game of the season. It's exciting when you challenge this team; they really take it to heart."

The Terps went on a 15-3 spurt in the final 4:30 of the first half, making seven of their last nine shots to take a 45-17 halftime lead.

Maryland continued its torrid shooting in the second half, making 23 of 32 field goal attempts. Every Maryland player scored at least five points and logged at least 14 minutes.

UC Santa Barbara shot 32.1 percent from the field and was outrebounded 51-17.

The 61-point win was the largest margin of victory since the Terps won by 71 over UMES on December 28, 1993, tying the school record set on January 31, 1974.

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Once top-ranked Maryland got going, Siena couldn't keep up.

Marissa Coleman had 19 points and 12 assists to help Maryland rally from a sluggish start and the top-ranked Terrapins defeated Siena 93-54 Monday night.

Maryland improved to 10-0, the team's best start since 1991-92. The school record is the 16-0 start the Terrapins had in 1982-83. Their 16-game winning streak, dating back to last season, is the nation's best.

"I thought Siena played really scrappy," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "I didn't like our (early) intensity. The second half we did a much better job. I'm proud of how we responded in the second half, being much more focused and ready to play."

This was Maryland's second game in three days, and even though the Terrapins made their first eight shots from the field, they had trouble finding a rhythm against fired-up Siena. Maryland pulled away with a late first-half run and then outscored Siena 48-20 in the second half.

2006 NCAA CHAMPIONS
EIGHT-TIME ACC CHAMPIONS

"This year everyone knows that we're the defending national champion," Coleman said. "They want to come right after us."

Coleman was named the Atlantic Coast Conference's Player of the Week earlier Monday for recording the program's first triple-double (15 points, 14 rebounds, 10 assists) in Saturday's 105-44 victory over the University of California Santa Barbara.

Kristi Toliver (14 points), Crystal Langhorne (13 points), Ashleigh Newman (11 points) and Christie Marrone (10 points) all scored in double figures. Shay Doron had nine points, and Laura Harper added six points and 10 rebounds.

Maryland shot 67 percent from the field (36-for-54) and held a 38-16 edge in rebounding that resulted in easy follow-ups and scoring chances from inside. The Terrapins also went 17-for-23 from the free throw line.

Siena, meanwhile, was 0-for-3 in free throws.

"They're a machine," Siena coach Gina Castelli said. "We ran out of gas a little bit, but they're a great team. They got to the line a lot more in the second half, and obviously we didn't and that hurt us quite a bit."

Siena (1-7) stayed close in the early minutes and had a few leads thanks to some good outside shooting. The Saints couldn't get the ball inside, but Shondaya Burrell (17 points) made a number of tough shots.

Maryland took command with a 14-point run late in the first half. Siena had taken a 26-25 lead on Kately Dooley's three-pointer with 7:28 left.

But Coleman and Toliver hit back-to-back jumpers, and Langhorne twice got putbacks along with a layup to help Maryland take a 39-26 lead with 2:32 left. The Terrapins took a 45-34 halftime lead and then turned the game into a rout by scoring 15 of the first 21 points in the second half.

#1/1 MARYLAND 77
NORTHERN IOWA 33

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa (AP) - Maryland's suffocating defense helped coach Brenda Frese enjoy a sweet return home.

Kristi Toliver scored 15 points, Laura Harper had 13 and No. 1 Maryland closed the first half with a 20-0 run in a 77-33 romp of Northern Iowa on Wednesday night.

Crystal Langhorne added 12 points for the Terrapins (11-0), off to their best start since winning their first 16 games of the 1982-83 season.

Frese, who grew up in Cedar Rapids, about an hour south of the Northern Iowa campus, had a large contingent of family and friends wearing Maryland gear sitting behind the Terrapins' bench.

Before the game, Northern Iowa athletic director Rick Hartzell read a proclamation from Iowa Gov. Tom Vilsack recognizing Frese for her achievements and "her service to her sport and to Iowa." Northern Iowa coach Tony DiCecco presented the proclamation to Frese while the crowd stood and applauded.

"It's very special to be recognized and honored like that," said Frese. "I always feel very appreciated every time I come to Iowa."

Northern Iowa (2-5), playing a No. 1-ranked team for the first time, kept it somewhat close for a while. But the Panthers shot 20.6 percent and never threatened after Maryland charged to a 35-8 halftime lead.

The Terrapins forced the Panthers into 4-for-35 shooting in the first half and kept up the defensive pressure in the final 20 minutes.

JADE PERRY GRABBED 11 REBOUNDS VS. NORTHERN IOWA

"I'm really pleased with our defense," said Frese. Our focus has been to come out and guard for 40 minutes, especially with the way Northern Iowa shoots the ball."

They intimidated the Northern Iowa players inside, deflected passes and generally made life miserable for their overmatched Missouri Valley Conference opponent. When the Panthers had open shots on the perimeter, they couldn't knock them down.

"The toughest part about it is we didn't shoot the ball very well," DiCecco said. "To be honest about it, we didn't shoot the ball at all. When we couldn't make shots, it snowballed on us."

Despite its shooting woes, Northern Iowa hung with the Terrapins for the first 14 minutes. After Tara King and Kristyn Ferris scored on layups to draw UNI to 15-8, Frese called a timeout.

Her team responded by scoring the next 20 points and looking more like the defending national champions.

"We weren't getting a lot of transition baskets," Toliver said. "We just started pushing the ball more and kept playing defense."

Langhorne had eight points during the burst, including a pair of 3-point plays, and Toliver added seven. Toliver closed out the half with a 3-pointer, and the run grew to 22-0 when Harper scored inside to start the second half.

A 13-0 run stretched the lead to 52-13 and by then, it was only a question of whether the Panthers would reach 30. They did when Megan Keefe scored with 3:20 left, making it 73-30.

King led Northern Iowa with 10 points on 4-for-19 shooting.

"I loved the way we came out," DiCecco said. "I didn't think we were intimidated. I thought we played hard, I thought we competed. We just couldn't shoot it."

Frese substituted liberally to avoid running up the score, but her options were limited with just nine players. Harper played only 15 minutes and no one played more than 28.

"I definitely think our size gave them problems," Langhorne said. "Our coaches stressed that. I think we used that to our advantage."

#1/1 MARYLAND 77
TEMPLE 66
COMCAST CENTER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - Maryland had been in the situation before - down late on the road.

With all five starters returning form last season's team that won the national championship, the Terrapins didn't fold.

Kristi Toliver scored six points during a decisive closing run to help the top-ranked Terps hold off the pesky Temple Ows, 77-66.

"We knew we had been in these situations before," said Maryland center Crystal Langhorne, who scored 12 of her 16 points in the second half. "With all our players returning, we are very experienced and have an advantage down the stretch."

Trailing 57-44 with 9:36 left in the second half, Temple went on an 18-1 run to take a 62-58 lead with 5:38 left. Kamesha Hariston scored 10 points during the spurt.

"We can walk away with our head up high and know that we put up such a good fight," said Temple coach Dawn Staley.

Maryland (12-0) responded by scoring the next 13 points, with Toliver hitting consecutive jumpers and two free throws to give the Terps a 5-62 lead with 3:34 left. Th Terps held the Owls scoreless until Shenita Landry's layup with 43.8 seconds left, when the game was out of reach.

"Poise was the biggest thing," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "We knew they would make a run, we just had to value the ball."

Marissa Coleman scored 16 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for Maryland. Laura Harper led the Terps with 17 points. Shay Doron added 11 and Toliver finished with 10 points and eight assists.

All five Maryland starters have been averaging double figures since the last couple of games.

Hariston scored 28 points and Fatima Maddox added 22 for the Owls (4-4).

"They played like seniors," Staly said of her top two scorers. "They'll make mistakes, but they always are there for us."

Maryland has won 18 straight games, with its last loss coming to North Carolina in the championship game of last season's ACC tournament.

The Terps were sluggish in the first half, settling for jump shots. They held a 28-18 lead with 3:56 left before Maddox scored eight points to close the gap to 30-28 at the half.

"We just needed a stop," Maddox said. "My offense just came."

The Terps opened the second half with a 15-4 run, extending a two-point halftime lead to 45-32 with 16:15 left in the game. Langhorne scored nine of her points during that spurt as the Terps constantly pounded the ball inside.

"We didn't have enough post touches in the first half," Frese said. "We were more patient in the second half getting the ball inside."

The Owls were without Lady Comfort, who scored a career-high 25 points in Temple's 72-58 win over Stony Brook on Wednesday night. She was suspended for Saturday's game by Staley for violating team rules.

"She broke a team rule and it was discussed last night with the team captains and then I made an executive decision," Staley said.

Maryland is off to its best start since winning its first 16 games of the 1982-83 season. The top-ranked team will be off for the next 10 days on exam break. The Terps will next play Dec. 21 at Loyola, Md.

"We didn't want to lose with our next game in 11 days. Itw uld stink if we had lost," Harper said.

#1/1 MARYLAND 110
LOYOLA 55
COMCAST CENTER

BALTIMORE (AP) - Any worries that an 11-day layoff for final exams would slow Maryland's juggernaut were quickly laid to rest with another lopsided victory.

Marissa Coleman scored 21 points, Crystal Langhorne added 18 on 9-for-9 shooting and No. 1 Maryland remained unbeaten with a 110-55 rout of Loyola of Maryland on Thursday night.

"I thought we played 40 minutes of inspired ball. ... We were unselfish moving the basketball and we were really up-tempo," said Terrapins coach Brenda Frese.

Laura Harper had 11 points and 12 rebounds for Maryland (13-0). The Terrapins have won 19 straight over two seasons, the nation's longest current winning streak.

Maryland, which had six players in double figures and shot 66 percent from the field, has won seven straight and 13 of 16 against the Greyhounds (4-6). The Terrapins matched their season high in points, their most since amassing 111 against La Salle on Feb. 15, 1978.

"We tried to come out with intensity and put them out early," Langhorne said.

Jill Glessner scored 13 points and Meghan Wood added 11 for Loyola, which had won three of four. But the Greyhounds were no match for the depth and strength of the defending national champions, who led by as many as 25 in the first half.

"When we were in zone, they made 3s. When we were in man, someone made layups. ... They really, really score at will," said Greyhounds coach Joe Logan, whose team committed 22 turnovers.

Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood, a junior transfer from Tennessee, had seven points and eight assists in her Maryland debut. She had to sit out the Terrapins' first dozen games because of NCAA transfer rules.

"I had butterflies pregame. I hardly ate anything, thinking about it. ... It's hard to come in and get a place on this team," Wiley-Gatewood said. "But I just felt comfortable out there."

The Terrapins were buoyed by a sellout crowd of 2,862, many of whom were red-clad Maryland supporters.

"We're [still] in the state of Maryland," Langhorne joked. "I guess a lot of people like us."

Langhorne had 14 points in the opening 20 minutes, helping Maryland to a 54-32 halftime lead. Two big runs -- an 11-0 burst early and a 10-0 spree midway through the first half -- did most of the damage. The Terrapins converted 21-of-32 first-half attempts from the field.

Maryland went ahead 13-2 with 17:29 left in the first half, with Coleman nailing a 3-pointer from the left corner to finish the first run. When a layup by Glessner cut the deficit to 24-15 with 11:14 to go, the Terrapins responded with the next 10 points.

The Terrapins opened the second half with a 26-5 barrage, more than enough to make up for what Langhorne thought was an uneven first half.

"We had to pick it up," she said. "We weren't playing our best defense and we had a lot of turnovers."

Wiley-Gatewood's short jumper with 6:48 remaining in the game made it 101-48.

TERRAPIN CLASSIC
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Maryland showed few signs of being rusty despite playing for only the second time in 19 days.

The top-ranked Terrapins set a school record with 12 three-pointers and Kristi Toliver scored 16 points in a 92-57 rout of UNC Greensboro in the first round of the Terrapin Classic on Friday.

Maryland (14-0) extended its winning streak to 20 games, the longest in the nation. The Terps shot 57 percent from the floor, made 24 of 25 free throws and outrebounded the Spartans 45-19. Maryland's start is the best since it won 16 games in a row in 1982-83.

"Offensively, I like where we are. I thought we were extremely unselfish, almost to a fault," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "I'm pleased with our efficiency. The shots we're taking are good shots. ... I'm very pleased with where we are."

Toliver, who led six Maryland players in double figures, scored 14 points during a 35-5 first half run. She made all four of her 3-point attempts.

Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood added 15 points. Marissa Coleman had 13, Crystal Langhorne and Ashleigh Newman scored 11 apiece and Shay Doron had 10.

It was the fourth time this season that Maryland had six players score in double figures. The Terps also had 23 assists, registering one on each of their first 13 baskets. Toliver led in that area, too, with seven, and Coleman added five.

Maryland trailed 13-10 early in the game before going on the decisive run that led to a 48-25 halftime lead. In the second half, Greensboro closed to 64-48 before a 27-7 Maryland spurt.

"I thought our starts in both halves were really slow: we need to sustain our intensity for 40 minutes," Frese said. "We had a lot of time off for Christmas. We have played just two games between exams and the Christmas break. Plus, were using a lot of different lineups, working with a lot of different combinations."

Jasmine Byrd led Greensboro (6-5) with 15 points. The Spartans had 16 turnovers and shot 35.9 percent from the floor.

The loss kept coach Lynne Agee stuck on 499 career victories at Greensboro. She is in her 26th season at Greensboro and ranks in the top 20 in career victories with 543 in 29 seasons.

It was the Spartans' first game against a No.1 team. Earlier this season, they lost to No. 2 North Carolina, 103-48. They're now 0-19 all-time against top 25 opponents.

"The game for us today was about composure and ball control," Agee said. "It's hard to talk about winning this game and beating the No. 1 team in the country. We wanted to maintain our composure when they made their runs.

"We went about the game as best we could. With their height advantage and 3-point shooters you are between a rock and a hard place."

MARIST 60

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - As if top-ranked Maryland wasn't already deep enough, the Terrapins recently unveiled yet another talented player with the ability to take down the opposition: Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood. Wiley-Gatewood scored eight of her career-high 17 points during a 25-6 first-half run, and Maryland rolled past Marist 86-60 Saturday night to win the Terrapin Classic.

Marissa Coleman scored 15 points, and Crystal Langhorne and Kristi Toliver had 11 apiece for the Terrapins (15-0), who finished with a 42-24 rebounding advantage. The defending national champions have won 21 straight, the longest active streak in the nation.

"Not only do they have a lot of depth, they're just extremely skilled," Marist coach Brian Giorgis said. "I haven't seen a team shoot like that and have so many different weapons, along with the weapons coming off the bench. You start talking to yourself."

Maryland shot 63 percent, had five players score in double figures and two more chip in with 8 points apiece.

"I loved the display of unselfishness on the offensive end," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said.

Meg Dahlman led Marist (9-4) with 12 points and Julianne Viani had 11.

Wiley-Gatewood was playing in her third game with the Terrapins after sitting out a year following her transfer from Tennessee. The 5-foot-9 junior guard, who came off the bench to go 4-for-4 from the field and 7-for-8 at the foul line, provides further depth to a team that has all five starters back from last season.

"Sa'de brings so much to the table with the way she defends, the way she's unselfish and shoots the ball," Frese said.

After Marist pulled even at 12 with 6 1/2 minutes elapsed, Coleman hit a 3-pointer to put the Terrapins ahead for good. Wiley-Gatewood followed with a jumper in the paint, Toliver added a 3-pointer and Jade Perry made a jump shot for a 22-12 lead.

CRYSTAL LANGHORNE

EIGHT-TIME ACC CHAMPIONS

Rachele Fits answered with a layup for Marist, but successive 3-pointers by Coleman and Wiley-Gatewood expanded the margin to 14. It was 32-18 before Langhorne made two free throws and Wiley-Gatewood scored from beyond the arc to make it 37-18.

Wiley-Gatewood has no complaint about coming off the bench; no matter what role she plays, she does it with enthusiasm.

"I try to bring more energy to the team, get everybody ready to play," she said.

"All of us couldn't wait for Sa'de to step on the floor. She brings a lot of energy and we feed off that," said Coleman, the tournament MVP.

The Terrapins led 48-25 at halftime after shooting 63 percent from the floor and outrebounding the Red Foxes 19-7.

It was 59-35 in the second half before Wiley-Gatewood made two free throws and Ashleigh Newman sank a 3-pointer to boost Maryland's lead to 29.

Maryland has won three tournaments this season: The BTI Classic, the Junkanoo Jam and the two-day Terrapin Classic, which the Terrapins began with a 92-57 rout of UNC-Greensboro on Friday.

Maryland opens Atlantic Coast Conference play Wednesday at home against North Carolina State, then hosts No. 21 Michigan State on Saturday.

"This should give us a ton of confidence going into the real stuff, starting on Wednesday with ACC play," Frese said. "We're ready for the next challenge."

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - On a night of milestones for top-ranked Maryland, the Terrapins and coach Brenda Frese were far more interested in pursuing loftier accomplishments.

Frese won her 100th game at Maryland, Shay Doron moved into second place on the career scoring list and the Terrapins opened Atlantic Coast Conference play with an 80-61 rout of North Carolina State on Wednesday night.

Doron scored 10 points to pass Christy Winters on the Terps' career scoring list. Doron, a senior guard, has 1,681 points - second only to Vicky Bullett (1,928).

"Winning two straight national titles is more important to me," said Doron, who insisted that she had absolutely no idea where she stood on the career list.

Like Doron, Frese is much more focused on getting the Terrapins back into the title game than collecting more trophies for her living room. Frese smiled broadly when presented the game ball, but she said later that the significance of her 100th victory at the school was that it justified the faith her players had in choosing to attend Maryland.

"When you hit a milestone like that," Frese said, "what it symbolizes is what's special."

Now in her fifth year at Maryland, Frese is 100-45 and well on her way to a fourth straight winning season. She joined Chris Weller (499-286) as the only women's basketball coach to win 100 games.

Laura Harper scored 17 points, and Crystal Langhorne and Kristi Toliver had 15 apiece for the Terrapins (16-0, 1-0). The defending champions led 46-20 at halftime and coasted to their school-record 22nd consecutive victory, a streak that began in last season's NCAA tournament.

"Maryland is a great team," interim coach Stephanie Glance said. "They had a lot of weapons and they use those weapons well."

Glance is subbing for Kay Yow, who has taken a leave of absence while she fights breast cancer. It hasn't been easy for Glance - or her players.

"You can't take a legend and an icon out of the situation and expect everyone to just move on," Glance said. "It's affected them greatly."

Nikitta Gartrell, Khadijah Whittington and Marquetta Dickens each scored 10 points for the Wolfpack (11-4, 0-1). N.C. State missed eight of its first nine shots and was 10-for-31 from the floor (32 percent) in the decisive first half.

"I thought in the first half we came out with great intensity on the defensive end," Frese said.

Maryland led 13-10 before Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood sank two straight 3-pointers to spark a 20-4 run that put the Terrapins up by 19. Harper scored eight points in the spree and Doron added six.

It was 39-20 before Toliver hit a 3-pointer and a jumper in succession. Langhorne added a layup at the first-half buzzer for a 26-point cushion.

Maryland hosts No. 19 Michigan State on Saturday before concluding the regular season with 13 straight games against ACC foes.

GAME 17
#18/19 MICHIGAN ST. 57
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - If there were any questions about how good the defending NCAA women's basketball champions are this season, Maryland erased any doubts with a dazzling performance against No. 19 Michigan State.

Crystal Langhorne scored 28 points on 13-for-14 shooting, Kristi Toliver made four 3-pointers and the Terrapins snapped the Spartans' five-game winning streak with a 97-57 victory Saturday.

"Just a lot of fun today. We really talked about being able to make a statement," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "We got after it in so many dimensions of the game."

Playing in front of 12,295 fans and a national television audience, the Terrapins turned the Spartans inside out. After Toliver made three straight 3-pointers to put Maryland up 20-6, Langhorne dominated the post against 6-foot-9 freshman Allyssa DeHaan.

"Toliver was the key to the game," Michigan State coach Joanne McCallie said. "Her shots in the first half were very significant; that opened up the inside more."

Reserve Jade Perry had 12 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins, who had five players score in double figures. Langhorne, a 6-foot-2 center, grabbed nine rebounds and Toliver finished with 12 points on 4-for-4 shooting from beyond the arc.

"This was a big statement game," Toliver said. "We came out with a lot of energy, and made that statement by playing great on both ends of the floor. We wanted the country to know that we're a talented team and we're fun to watch."

Talented, yes. Fun to watch? Not for the Spartans.

"Not much to say. Maryland played great," McCallie said. "They played very well together and are obviously very well-coached."

Maryland has won 23 straight, and at 17-0 is off to the best start in school history.

Victoria Lucas-Perry led the Spartans with 20 points and DeHaan, the nation's leading shot blocker, swatted away five shots before fouling out.

Playing a ranked team for the first time this season, Maryland expected to be tested by a Michigan State squad that came in tied for the Big Ten lead. It turned out to be just another blowout for the Terrapins, who have won 14 games by at least 18 points.

With Langhorne going 8-for-9 and Toliver displaying uncanny accuracy from the outside, the Terrapins went up 46-25 at halftime. A layup by Langhorne with 15:20 left expanded the lead to 30 points, and the margin reached 40 with just under 8 minutes to go.

DeHaan blocked two shots on Maryland's first possession, serving notice that scoring inside might not be easy for the Terrapins. Undaunted, Langhorne got Maryland's first points on a driving layup and guard Shay Doron followed with a 10-footer over DeHaan's outstretched arms.

The Terps then provided Michigan State a sample of their quickness. Doron got free in transition before being fouled, and Langhorne added a breakaway layup for a 9-3 lead.

McCallie switched to a zone defense, which proved to be a mistake. Toliver hit three straight 3-pointers over a 61-second span to put Maryland up by 14. Lucas-Perry followed with a 3-pointer for the Spartans, but by then Michigan State was 3-for-13 from the floor with six turnovers.

Minutes later, Langhorne worked around DeHaan for two straight layups to put Maryland up 31-11. After Michigan State closed to 37-22, Toliver hit a 3-pointer and Marissa Coleman added a fastbreak layup to restore the 20-point cushion.

#1/1 MARYLAND 111
MIAMI 53

BANKUNITED CENTER

Reserve Jade Perry had 19 points and 14 rebounds to help the top-ranked Terrapins achieve a season-high point total by beating the Miami Hurricanes 111-53 Wednesday night.

Fellow reserve Ashleigh Newman also scored 19 points, sinking six of seven 3-point tries for the Terrapins.

Defending national champion Maryland (18-0, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) earned its 24th consecutive victory, extending a school record. The Terrapins face No. 3 Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium on Saturday.

"We just really talked about wanting to come out with our first ACC road game and being able to make a statement," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "Our team's playing with the most confidence I've seen us play with."

Miami (9-9, 0-3) lost its fourth game in a row but only its second this season at home.

The Terrapins, who lead the nation in shooting, finished at 57 percent and topped 100 points for the fourth time this season. Perry went 8-for-10, repeatedly hurting Miami from the top of the key.

"The high-post shot was open," she said. "I was making them, so it was boosting up my confidence."

Marissa Coleman had 14 points, all in the first half, and added nine rebounds for the Terps, who had a 56-25 advantage on the boards.

Crystal Langhorne had 13 points and nine rebounds. Shay Doron scored 14 points, and Kristi Toliver added 12.

"We're just so unselfish, always making that extra pass," Frese said.

Maurita Reid led Miami with 24 points, and Albrey Grimsley added 13. Renee Taylor was held to eight, well below her average of 20.5 per game.

The Terrapins raced to leads of 19-4, 36-8 and 57-16.

"They're an awesome team," Hurricanes coach Katie Meier said. "But we would have lost to a lot of teams tonight, the way we played. Our energy level, effort and intensity were not there."

The Terps scored a season-high 59 points in the first half, and their 39-point lead at the half was also a season high. During one stretch midway through the game, they scored on 15 of 16 possessions to lead 66-22.

Maryland kept gunning until the end - Newman sank a pair of 3-pointers in the final 4 minutes. Her point total was a season high.

"I really like where we're at in terms of the offensive end and the ability to shoot the ball," Frese said. "And obviously, defensively we're really starting to get after it."

The Terrapins came into the game with an average victory margin of 32 points, and Newman sank three consecutive 3-pointers to put them ahead 19-4. A 16-point run late in the first half boosted the margin to 41 points.

Miami missed all 11 3-point tries in the first half, while Maryland went 7-for-12.

"I don't know if we were intimidated, or what it was," Reid said. "Definitely this was a learning experience."

GAME 19

#3/3 DUKE 81
#1/1 MARYLAND 62

CAMERON INDOOR STADIUM

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Lindsey Harding scored 16 of her 28 points in the first half, Alison Bales flirted with a triple-double and No. 3 Duke routed top-ranked Maryland 81-62 Saturday in a rematch of last season's national championship game.

Bales finished with 18 points, 12 rebounds and seven blocked shots for the Blue Devils (18-0, 4-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who closed the first half with a 13-4 run, didn't let up in the second and made a strong case to take over the No. 1 ranking from the Terrapins.

Duke's smothering defense dominated a Maryland offense which entered with the nation's best field-goal percentage at 53.8 percent. The Terrapins were held to 37.8 percent by the Blue Devils - who have the country's stingiest defense - and were held 1-of-15 shooting during the final 5:49 of the first half.

"We knew Duke's defensive pressure was tremendous," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "In the first half when we weren't hitting shots, we didn't find other areas in the game to have an impact on."

Duke won its sixth game against a ranked team, and for the Blue Devils, this one clearly was the most satisfying. Maryland beat Duke 78-75 in an overtime thriller in the national title game last April, a classic that included Kristi Toliver's game-tying 3-pointer at the end of regulation.

This time, the Blue Devils wouldn't give Toliver another chance to break their hearts, holding her to eight points - and just two at halftime on 0-of-8 shooting - before she exited with 5:37 remaining after apparently injuring her ankle. She downplayed the injury, saying it wasn't serious and that she simply slipped on moisture.

"Our frustration came from us not knocking down shots," Toliver said. "That's something we need to improve on. We can't let our offense dictate our defense, which is what we did tonight."

Crystal Langhorne had 14 points and Shay Doron added 11 for the Terrapins (18-1, 2-1).

Wanisha Smith added 15 points and Abby Waner had 11 for the Blue Devils, one of two remaining unbeatens in the country, and the other is Tobacco Road rival No. 2 North Carolina.

Duke's two stars - Harding and Bales - led the way during its game-breaking run late in the half.

Duke led 28-26 before Harding started the burst with a layup. Bales blocked three shots during the stretch and Harding closed the spurt with two free throws, making it 41-30 at the break.

VIRGINIA 68

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - For six days, Maryland waited for redemption. When the opportunity finally came, the defending national champions wasted little time blunting the memory of a painful loss.

Crystal Langhorne had 17 points and 12 rebounds, Laura Harper scored 21, and No. 3 Maryland bounced back from its first defeat of the season by cruising past Virginia 95-68 Friday night.

Kristi Toliver scored 20 points and Marissa Coleman added 16 for the Terrapins (19-1, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference). Maryland was coming off an 82-61 embarrassment at Duke on Saturday that dropped the Terps from the top spot in the AP poll.

"Obviously, we had a tough one down in Durham. There was only one thing we could do, and that was recover and regroup," Toliver said. "I think tonight we showed we are a mature bunch. We could have folded because UVA is a very talented team. But we just came out with a lot of confidence and a lot of focus."

Maryland trailed 6-4 before Toliver scored five points in a 14-0 run that put the Terrapins ahead for good. Five different players contributed to the spree, which included five free throws.

It was 32-23 before Harper made a layup and a three-point play during a 9-0 spurt that increased Maryland's lead to 18.

The Terrapins ended up topping the 90-point barrier for the ninth time, but coach Brenda Frese spoke excitedly about a defense that was repeatedly burned for easy baskets by Duke.

"I thought our team showed a lot of character tonight," Frese said. "I'm very pleased with our improvement defensively. We really focused and brought a lot more energy to the game."

Lyndra Littles led Virginia (12-6, 2-2) with a career-high tying 23 points and Shamee Zoll had 11 assists. The Cavaliers, who were outscored 22-6 at the foul line, have lost four straight at Maryland.

Virginia knew the Terps would be eager to rebound from their defeat at Duke, but that didn't influence the game plan of coach Debbie Ryan.

"I don't think we got anything different than we were going to get. I know they lost a game the other day, but I didn't feel like it was a game where I had to tell my team to be afraid," Ryan said. "They knew what happened last week. We watched that game together."

Ryan said the Cavaliers got in trouble in the first half when guard Monica Wright picked up two fouls in the opening 3 minutes. And although Virginia was outrebounded 49-32, Ryan said it had nothing to do with a lack of effort by her front court.

"They're very big inside. We just don't have that kind of size," Ryan said.

Down 42-27 at halftime, Virginia used two straight baskets by Wright to close to 48-35. After Frese called a timeout, Langhorne returned to make two straight layups, Toliver hit a 3-pointer and Shay Doron capped the 9-0 run with two free throws.

WAKE FOREST 60
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Maryland has raised its expectations so high that coach Brenda Frese talks about team shortcomings - even after a 23-point victory for the defending national champions.

Marissa Coleman had 21 points and six rebounds to lead No. 3 Maryland to an 83-60 win over Wake Forest on Sunday. Ashleigh Newman came off the bench to score 20 points for the Terrapins (20-1, 4-1 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Kristi Toliver had 10 points, five assists and five rebounds and Shay Doron also scored 10 for the Terrapins. The Terrapins entered the game having defeated Virginia 95-68 Friday.

Still, Frese didn't like the way her team played defensively, especially in the second half when the Terrapins allowed the Demon Deacons to connect on six of 10 three-point attempts.

"Today, I liked where we were on the defensive side in the first half," Frese said. "That is an area we have been trying to improve. In the second half, we definitely had our lapses and lost some concentration. The biggest thing is just to keep our focus and intensity for 40 minutes."

Yolanda Lavender led Wake Forest (8-11, 0-6) with 22 points, and Alex Tchangoue finished with 20. The Demon Deacons, who shot 18.1 percent from the field in the first half and 31.1 percent for the game, have lost nine straight after having won seven straight earlier in the season.

Trailing 41-16 at halftime, Wake Forest pulled within 55-37 following a pair of 3-pointers by Lavender. Maryland answered with a 14-5 run, including 10 straight from Newman.

Frese said Newman's performance meant even more since forward Crystal Langhorne had a rare off night. The junior finished with seven points, marking the first time in 44 games that she failed to score in double figures.

"I loved to see the kind of floor game that Ashleigh had today," Frese said. "She made smart decisions."

Tchangoue answered Newman's spurt by scoring Wake Forest's next 12 points, pulling the Demon Deacons within 72-54 with 4:56 remaining. But the game didn't get any closer.

"I thought we played pretty well in the second half," Wake Forest coach Mike Petersen said. "We shot 18 percent in the first half, and 45 percent in the second half. We took about the same quality of shots, but we just made shots in the second half."

CLEMSON 62
LITTLEJOHN COLISEUM

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) - Maryland's Crystal Langhorne was so surprised by Kristi Toliver's perfect 3-point shooting, she had to double check for herself.

"You went 6-for-6?" Langhorne asked her teammate.

Toliver finished with 20 points and the third-ranked Terps continued the best start in school history with a 76-62 victory over Clemson on Thursday night.

The Terps (21-1, 5-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) head into their Sunday night showdown against undefeated and second-ranked North Carolina filled with confidence.

"I just trusted my shot and looked for it," Toliver said. "But I knew I was feeling pretty good when I made the first back-to-back shots there."

Toliver became a cherished name in Maryland hoops history last April with her 3-pointer to force overtime in the NCAA tournament finals. The Terps went on to beat Duke for the championship and Toliver's play is simply called, "The Shot" in the land of the turtle.

Her shooting helped Maryland surpass the 20-1 start of its 1991-92 team - and win its sixth straight over the Lady Tigers (9-12, 1-5).

She was perfect on five 3-point attempts in the first half as the Terps built a 23-point lead.

Maryland was still comfortably ahead 68-46 with 6:42 to go when Clemson threw a little scare into the national champs with a 13-1 run that drew the Lady Tigers within 10.

That's when Toliver struck with her sixth 3 from several steps behind the line with 2:30 left to regain momentum for the Terps. It was her only field-goal attempt of the second half as she tied her career best for 3s, set last March 27 against Utah in Maryland's run to the NCAA tournament title.

"We told them they can all shoot, but (Toliver) was the most dangerous," Clemson coach Cristy McKinney said. "And everytime we did, she hit it."

Langhorne added 17 points and Marissa Coleman 15 for Maryland, which has won its past three since losing its No. 1 ranking after an 81-62 defeat at Duke.

Instead of ranting about Clemson's comeback, Maryland coach Brenda Frese was happy her club played tighter defense in the second half. The Terps held Clemson's top scorer, D'Lesha Lloyd, to six points, nine fewer than her average.

"We know we've got options on offense," Frese said. "We've got to get our defense up to our offense."

Moreemi Davis had 10 points to lead Clemson (9-12, 1-5), which has lost its past five games.

Maryland couldn't break free of the Lady Tigers, who trailed 28-22 after Christy Brown's two foul shots with 8:35 left. Toliver led a 20-4 run, during which the Terps went 8-for-9 from the field.

Toliver opened the surge with her third 3 of the half. She added another long-range shot two minutes later. By the time Tolliver had swished her fifth 3-pointer with 3:49 remaining, Maryland led 47-24.

Toliver finished with 15 points while Langhorne had 10 as Maryland led 48-30 at the break.

Clemson could not contend with its stronger, deeper opponents, getting outrebounded 26-14 in the first 20 minutes.

Frese says her players will need every bit of that effort to get past the Tar Heels.

"Obviously, (North) Carolina has had a week to prepare for this game," Frese said. "The ACC was kind enough to give them a week and we get two days. We've got to get back tomorrow and get to work."

North Carolina has not played since defeating North Carolina State, 86-65, this past Sunday.

Still, Langhorne likes where her team is right now, no matter how much practice time Maryland opponents get in.

"I think we're doing really well, but we have to get better in rebounding," she said. "Against North Carolina that's going to be crucial."

Toliver knows the Tar Heels hope to avenge their NCAA tournament semifinal loss to Maryland last spring. "Overall, it's going to be intense and hopefully we can take the things we're learning into that," she said.

#2/2 NORTH CAROLINA 84
#3/3 MARYLAND 71

FEBRUARY 28, 2007
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - North Carolina waited 20 minutes to find someone who could put the ball in the basket with a measure of consistency.

Ivory Latta happily assumed the role, and her sharpshooting enabled the No. 2 Tar Heels to remain unbeaten and extract a measure of revenge against third-ranked Maryland.

Latta scored 22 of her season-high 32 points in the second half Sunday night, leading North Carolina past the defending national champions 84-71.

The sellout crowd of 17,950 was the largest to watch a women's basketball game in Atlantic Coast Conference history, surpassing the 17,243 that viewed the Terrapins' loss to Duke in February 2005. Maryland has hosted the top five crowds in ACC history.

Most in attendance Sunday will remember the performance of Latta, a 5-foot-6 senior guard who sank four 3-pointers in the opening five minutes of the second half to give the Tar Heels a 55-35 lead.

"I definitely got into a groove because my teammates found me," Latta said. "I was confident I'd hit the shot."

Latta went 3-for-8 in the first half, when the Tar Heels (23-0, 7-0) shot 34 percent in taking a 35-27 lead. She finished 9-for-18, including 6-for-10 beyond the arc, and was 8-for-8 at the foul line.

"She looked pretty darn good tonight," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said.

Erlana Larkins had 20 points and 13 rebounds, and Camille Little scored 17 points for the Tar Heels, whose 23-game winning streak is longest in the nation. North Carolina and top-ranked Duke, which handed Maryland its other defeat this season, are the lone remaining unbeaten teams in the nation.

North Carolina lost only two games last season - both to Maryland. The first loss came in overtime during the regular season, and the second came in the semifinals of the Final Four.

"We just tried to play our game and stay focused," Latta said.

Shay Doron led Maryland (21-2, 5-2) with 19 points and Crystal Langhorne added 14 points and 10 rebounds. The Terps committed 21 turnovers and shot 39 percent.

"We felt like if we pressured them with different looks, we could force them into turnovers," North Carolina coach Sylvia Hatchell said. "I guess it worked."

The Terrapins waited too long to match the intensity of their enthusiastic fans. Maryland fell behind with five minutes elapsed and never caught up, crumbling under a series of turnovers and missed shots.

"For 30 of the 40 minutes, we were on the back of our heels, just making soft passes and not displaying the type of confidence we usually have on the offensive end," Frese said. "Anxiousness, nerves, you name it. We've got to find a way to get our swagger back."

Maryland trailed 65-59 before Doron hit a 3-pointer, Kristi Toliver scored in the lane and Doron added a short jumper to make it 67-66.

Larkins followed with a layup, however, and a jumper in the lane by Latta put North Carolina up 71-66 with 2:02 remaining. Little then hit a short jumper, and two foul shots by Latta gave the Tar Heels a nine-point cushion with one minute to go.

"We didn't play well, and a lot of that was dictated by Carolina's defense," Frese said. "It took a lot of courage to step up and play the way we did the last 10 minutes."

North Carolina limited the Terrapins to 22 percent shooting and forced 14 turnovers in taking a 35-27 halftime lead.

Playing in a charged atmosphere usually reserved for the postseason, both teams appeared jittery at the outset. Despite going 2-for-10 with five turnovers in the opening five minutes, Maryland trailed only 7-6 because the Tar Heels missed eight of their initial 11 field-goal tries.

With eight minutes elapsed, Langhorne was 2-for-3 from the floor and the rest of the Terrapins were 1-for-12.

At that point, North Carolina finally found its shooting touch. Little hit a jumper in the lane and added a layup before Larkins scored on a driving layup and nailed a 15-footer to cap an 8-0 run that made it 20-9.

A SELLOUT CROWD OF 17,950, THE LARGEST TO WATCH A WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME IN ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE HISTORY, WAS ON HAND TO WATCH THE NO. 2 TERPS TAKE ON THIRD-RANKED NORTH CAROLINA.

After Frese called a timeout, Doron hit a jumper to end a scoring drought of more than five minutes. Soon after that, however, Heather Claytor and Latta each made a 3-pointer in an 8-2 spurt that put the Tar Heels up 29-15.

The Terrapins closed to 33-27 before the usually reserved Frese went onto the floor to complain after Toliver appeared to be fouled in the backcourt. Frese was called for a technical foul, and Latta made both free throws.

GEORGIA TECH 77

ALEXANDER MEMORIAL COLISEUM

ATLANTA (AP) - Stephanie Higgs scored 26 points and Janie Mitchell added 17, and Georgia Tech defeated No. 4 Maryland 77-72 Thursday night.

Jacqua Williams had 16 points for the Yellow Jackets (14-8, 5-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), who had lost four straight to Maryland, last winning 58-57 on Feb. 15, 2004.

Marissa Coleman led Maryland (21-3, 5-3) with 17 points. Crystal Langhorne and Kristi Toliver each had 13 and Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood added 12 for the defending national champs, who lost 84-71 to No. 2 North Carolina on Sunday.

"This is life on the road in the ACC. Obviously, all the credit goes to Georgia Tech. They did a fantastic job and had a great game plan," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "On our end, we're hurting and need to find a way to regroup."

The Yellow Jackets' last victory against a team ranked as high as Maryland also came against the Terrapins, who were fourth-ranked when Georgia beat them 68-67 in the ACC tournament on March 7, 1992.

Tech's biggest lead of the second half was 58-44 with 9:31 left.

The Terrapins rallied to get to 60-55 on a basket by Coleman with 6:05 remaining, but never got closer.

Tech led by 40-27 at the half. The Yellow Jackets' biggest lead was 14 points on a 3-pointer by Chioma Nnamaka with 4:50 remaining before intermission.

Mitchell led the Yellow Jackets with 11 points and Higgs added 10 in the half. Langhorne had eight points for Maryland.

Maryland was hurt by 14 turnovers in the opening half, leading to 17 points for the Yellow Jackets. Tech also outrebounded the Terps 20-13.

"We have to find a way to take care of the basketball," Frese said. "We've had back-to-back games with more than 20 turnovers. We've got to handle the pressure."

BOSTON COLLEGE 39

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - After two straight losses, No. 4 Maryland was looking for a big win to regain some of its swagger. Boston College wound up being just what the defending national champions needed.

Shay Doron scored 15 points to lead Maryland's 71-39 rout of the Eagles, and Marissa Coleman and Laura Harper added 11 points apiece as every player on the squad scored.

Maryland (22-3, 6-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) lost back-to-back games to North Carolina and Georgia Tech, and lost two weeks ago to Duke, to drop from atop the national rankings.

"None of us likes losing. It's not a feeling we liked having," said Coleman, who also had nine rebounds and five assists. "People say you learn a lot more from losing than winning and we certainly learned from those three losses."

Mickel Picco scored 13 points for Boston College (11-12, 1-8), which shot 14 percent from the floor in the second half, making 5 of 35 shots, and just 23.4 percent for the game. The point total and shooting percentage were the worst of the season for the Eagles.

Sarah Marshall added eight points, six in the game's first 6 minutes, for BC.

The 39 points allowed by Maryland are the fewest the Terps have given up in a conference game since Jan. 28, 1994, when they defeated Florida State, 83-39.

"I think we're slowly getting our swagger back," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "We did a great job getting our teammates open, being unselfish and looking to attack more. I thought we were more aggressive on our press. Those are all things you need to do well to play better and get that swagger back.

"I really liked the way we approached the game today. I think we improved and in the big picture, that's what we are striving for."

Harper said the team was a little rattled by its two losses, but not down.

"The losses gave us a sense of urgency," Harper said. "We already have a target on our back because were the national champions, but losing gave us a sense of urgency. We needed to go out and start having fun again."

The Eagles trailed 36-23 at halftime, but made just two of their first 26 shots in the second half and went more than 8 minutes without scoring a field goal during a 31-9 Maryland run that made the score 67-32 with 8 minutes to play.

"We made a greater commitment to a quick start in the second half," Frese said. "We wanted to improve our focus and communication and I thought that happened."

The Terps trailed just once in the game, 10-9, after Kaydia Kentish's layup at 12:32 ended a 6-0 run for the Eagles.

Maryland countered with a 19-4 run to take a 28-14 lead with 4:54 left in the half. Doron scored eight straight points during the run.

"I've tried to be a leader to this team for a couple years now," Doron said. "I had some good looks and got some great passes and I took those opportunities. I wasn't being any more aggressive than I normally am."

Kathrin Ress broke the Eagles' drought with a basket and Picco added a 3-pointer to pull the Eagles back to within 28-19.

Maryland opened the second half with a 20-7 run and opened up a 56-30 lead with 10:01 to play. The Terps extended the run with an 11-2 stretch for its biggest lead of the game. Maryland held a 55-36 rebounding advantage. Jade Perry led the team with 10.

VIRGINIA TECH 59

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Maryland is showing signs of recovering from a mini-slump that dropped the defending national champions into fourth place in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Kristi Toliver scored 19 points, Crystal Langhorne had 15, and the sixth-ranked Terrapins used an impressive defensive performance to coast past Virginia Tech 78-59 Thursday night.

"I thought we got better tonight. We made another step forward," said coach Brenda Frese, whose team has won two in a row after dropping successive games to North Carolina and Georgia Tech. "I really like where our defensive intensity and focus is."

The Terrapins (23-3, 7-3) scored 45 points in the first half and shot 60 percent before emptying the bench, but Frese was far more excited about a swarming defense that limited the Hokies (16-10, 5-5) to 26 points after halftime.

"I thought our defensive energy and intensity brought our offense," she said. "Every night we should be able to bring our defense, regardless of how shots are falling. I'm pleased with the progression we're making."

Frese has convinced the Terrapins that their chances of successfully defending their title depends heavily on their ability the defend.

"We made progression on the defensive end. We just have to try to continue to get better," guard Marissa Coleman said. "One of main focuses in practice is defensive energy and intensity. Each game we've been playing, we've been getting better at it."

Coleman scored 12 points and Laura Harper contributed eight points and eight rebounds for the Terrapins. Maryland made 60 percent of its field-goal attempts during the first 30 minutes and finished 32-for-61, led by Langhorne (7-for-8) and Toliver (7-for-10).

But the defense made the difference.

"I thought we had a tough time getting in sync offensively, but that was a credit to Maryland," Hokies coach Beth Dunkenberger said. "Maryland's defense was much improved. That had as much to do with it as anything."

Brittany Cook scored 12 points, and Britney Anderson and Kirby Copeland had 10 apiece for Virginia Tech. The Hokies, who came in with five wins in six games, fell to 0-5 against ranked teams this season.

After Toliver scored 15 first-half points to stake the Terrapins to a 12-point lead, Langhorne took over after halftime, scoring nine points in the paint during the opening 8 minutes to put Maryland up 60-40.

"Once (Toliver) hit some open shots, we stretched our defense too much," Dunkenberger said.

Early on, Maryland struggled.

The Terps led 13-10 before Copeland made two straight baskets to give the Hokies their first lead. After 9 minutes, Maryland had seven turnovers and trailed 20-15.

That's when the Terrapins began to show the form that enabled them to open the season with 18 successive wins.

A basket by Ashleigh Newman, a 3-pointer by Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood and two straight layups by Harper gave Maryland a 24-20 lead. Minutes later, Toliver scored eight points during a 10-0 run that stretched the margin to a dozen.

Then, after the Hokies closed to 40-33, Toliver ended the first-half scoring with a 3-pointer and a driving layup.

Maryland opened the second half with a 10-3 spurt to take a 55-36 lead. The Terrapins made five of six field-goal attempts during the run, including a 3-for-3 effort by Langhorne.

#6/6 MARYLAND 83
VIRGINIA 74
FEBRUARY 11, 2007
JOHN PAUL JONES ARENA

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - In its drive for what it hopes will yield a second straight national championship, No. 6 Maryland got two things it needed on Sunday.

Crystal Langhorne had 19 points and 15 rebounds and Marissa Coleman added 18 points and 12 rebounds as No. 6 Maryland dominated most of the way, then let up early and allowed Virginia to make what could have been a blowout a respectable 83-74 loss.

With the victory came a lesson.

"I thought we kind of got slow, lethargic," Terrapins coach Brenda Frese said of the second half, when Virginia outscored the defending national champions 47-36.

"We've obviously had a tendency to do that this season," she said. "It's something that we're trying to correct to be a dominant team. We need to focus for 40 minutes."

Langhorne also had four assists as Maryland (24-3, 8-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) finished with a 52-42 edge in rebounding. The Terps led 63-35 with 14:21 remaining.

"When you get a lead like that, I think sometimes you just relax and loosen up a little bit," Langhorne, who missed 7 of 10 free throws, said. "I think when we're up 30 points, we just need to focus on getting defensive stops and executing plays."

Coleman agreed and said Maryland hasn't played its best yet.

"Definitely not. We need to play a complete 40-minute game," she said.

Virginia (14-11, 3-7) had its two-game winning streak snapped and lost at its new John Paul Jones Arena for the fifth time in 16 games this season. The Cavaliers saw their hopes of making a push for the NCAA tournament damaged by another lopsided loss.

Monica Wright led Virginia with 19 points and Sharnee Zoll had 14. Wright said a season that has been filled with adversity has also brought valuable experience.

"You don't learn about yourself or learn about your teammates or the people you love until you go through adversity and you go through hard times, and no matter what happens, we've gone through a lot of hard times this year, and no one has ever folded, no one has ever tried to leave or pointed fingers at each other," she said.

"We've all taken the blame on ourselves and carried each other."

Virginia had five players with at least two fouls by halftime as it tried without much success to defend the bigger Terrapins. No one struggled more than scoring leader Lyndra Littles, who finished 3-for-16 from the field with 14 points and 16 rebounds.

"I thought they did a good job playing her tendencies," Virginia coach Debbie Ryan said. "She was trying to force the puzzle piece the way she wanted it, and it wasn't quite the way it was supposed to be. ... She did a lot better in the second half."

For Ryan, the frustration finally boiled over and she was whistled for a technical, which she said was her first in 15 years and came after building up over time.

"I don't even know how to get a technical," she said. "I was just trying to stand up for my players. That's all I was trying to do. I didn't say anything disrespectful."

Kristi Toliver, a Harrisonburg Va., native who broke Ralph Sampson's career scoring records in high school, added 11 points for the defending national champions. They led 47-27 at halftime and never let the Cavaliers rally until it was too late.

Virginia shot 35 percent despite grabbing 20 offensive rebounds.

TUCKER CENTER

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Maryland coach Brenda Frese wanted 40 minutes from her team, but only got 20. On Thursday night, it was enough.

Crystal Langhorne scored 14 points and grabbed a dozen rebounds and the sixth-ranked Terrapins rallied from a one-point halftime deficit to defeat Florida State 74-60.

"We needed to play with a lot more fire and energy, especially with what was at stake," Frese said. "Sometimes you just have to grind games out."

With the win, the defending national champions took sole possession of third place in the Atlantic Coast Conference and virtually locked up a first-round bye in the league tournament next month.

"Right now that's what we're playing for," said Frese. "That extra day off."

Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver also had 14 points to pace Maryland's balanced scoring attack. Shay Doron added 12 and Laura Harper had 11 points and 12 rebounds.

Maryland shot 50 percent and had a 44-33 rebounding advantage.

"It was much more physical than even we anticipated," Florida State coach Sue Semrau said. "I like it when we can match that level of play."

Maryland (25-3, 9-3 ACC) took the lead for good at 38-35 on Toliver's 3-point basket 2:35 into the second half and built it to double digits with 10:02 left on a mid-range jumper by Toliver, who leads the country in 3-point shooting percentage.

Maryland's losses are all to ACC opponents - unbeaten, top-ranked Duke, once-beaten No. 2 North Carolina and Georgia Tech. The Terps have a rematch with Duke at home Sunday.

Florida State, which lost to No. 2 North Carolina 80-59 on Monday night, led 30-29 at the half. Maryland made just 2 of 8 tries from 3-point range and missed 6 of 7 free throws before the break.

The Seminoles (18-8, 7-4) had their last lead at 35-33 on a jump shot by Alicia Gladden, who led Florida State with 13 points. Britany Miller added 12 despite being in foul trouble all night.

"To finish in the top four would still be a huge accomplishment," said Semrau, who has just one senior (Gladden) on her team. "We've (just) got to grow up."

GAME 29
#6/6 MARYLAND 57
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Duke knows how to perform in front of a full house, even when most of the fans are rooting for the other team.

Lindsey Harding scored 20 of her career-high 29 points in the pivotal first half, and No. 1 Duke disappointed a spirited sellout crowd by defeating No. 6 Maryland 69-57 Sunday night to remain undefeated and clinch the Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season title.

The Blue Devils (28-0, 13-0) took control late in the first half and never trailed over the final 25 minutes in beating the defending national champions for the second time this season.

The crowd of 17,950 matched the largest single-game attendance in ACC history, set earlier this season when the Terrapins hosted North Carolina. The six largest crowds to see an ACC game have all been at Maryland, and the Terps have lost each one - including four against Duke.

"We love playing in big games. We love playing in great environments," Blue Devils coach Gail Goestenkors said. "I can't say enough about my team and the way they handle themselves in these type of situations."

Duke led by as many as 13 points in the second half. After Maryland (25-4, 9-4) got within seven, the Blue Devils kept the Terrapins scoreless for nearly 4 minutes.

Maryland then closed to 55-48 before Harding and Alison Bales made successive baskets for an 11-point cushion with 5:54 to go.

Harding went 9-for-10 from the floor in the first half and finished 12-for-20. Her previous career high was 28, set in the Blue Devils' 81-62 win over Maryland last month.

"I'll tell ya, if Lindsey Harding isn't player of the year, I'd like to know who is," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "She has stepped up big in every big game against any opponent they've played. She's on a mission. I just want to make sure the NCAA doesn't give her another year of eligibility because she is phenomenal."

Carrem Gay scored 14 points for the Blue Devils, and Bales had 12 points and 12 rebounds. But Harding was clearly the star.

"Once again Lindsey showed she's one of the best, if not the best, players in the country," Goestenkors said. "She does whatever it is that we need for her to do to be successful. Tonight in the first half we needed her to score, and she did a great job."

In explaining her success against Maryland, Harding said, "I'm just attacking the basket. I know this year I have to step up more offensively. In some of the other games, the whole team has gotten involved, but I know in big games I really do want to set the tone."

Crystal Langhorne had 15 points and 12 rebounds for the Terrapins, and Marissa Coleman had 12 points, 10 rebounds and six assists. The 57 points were the fewest Maryland has scored this season; the previous low came in the first game against the Blue Devils.

The Terrapins shot 33 percent after halftime and finished 3-for-16 from 3-point range.

"We take great pride in our defense," Goestenkors said.

Up 35-29 at the break, the Blue Devils extended their lead to 46-34 with an 8-2 run that included five points from Bales and a three-point play by Harding. It was 50-37 when a three-point play by Langhorne started a 9-3 spree that got the Terrapins to 53-46.

All this happened without Gay, who picked up her fourth foul with 17:33 left.

Maryland seniors Shay Doron and Aurelie Noirez were honored before their final home game. Doron was in the starting lineup, as usual, and Frese marked the occasion by giving the seldom-used Noirez her first start of the season.

Noirez opened the scoring by sinking a soft jumper from just beyond the foul line for her only points of the game. Doron finished with four points.

Harding accounted for Duke's first 11 points on 5-for-5 shooting before teammate Wanisha Smith hit a 3-pointer for a 14-12 lead. Maryland quickly tied it before Harding sank a 3-pointer to put the Blue Devils back in front.

Harding missed her first shot with 6:26 left in the half, but Gay got the rebound and made a short jumper to spark a 10-2 spurt that put Duke up 31-23.

#6/5 MARYLAND 76
BOSTON COLLEGE 60
FEBRUARY 25, 2007
CONTE FORUM

Langhorne scored 21 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and No. 5 Maryland rebounded from a loss to top-ranked Duke to clinch third place in the Atlantic Coast Conference by beating Boston College 76-60 on Sunday.

The Terrapins, playing in Boston for the first time since capturing their first NCAA title last April about five miles away at the Boston Garden, will get a first-round bye in the conference tourney, which begins Thursday in Greensboro, N.C.

"We talked a lot about it in the locker room before the game, the perspective of being here to finish the season where we finished the season last year," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "Obviously, we love Boston."

Kristi Toliver and Marissa Coleman each scored 12 points, and Shay Doron had 11 for Maryland (26-4, 10-4 ACC). The Terrapins will open their ACC tourney play on Friday.

For one weekend, they were able to briefly reflect on their NCAA title run last year before playing the Eagles.

"As a team we talked about in before the game," Langhorne said. "We were excited about coming back here. We knew a lot of good things happened in Boston."

Kathrin Ress led BC (13-15, 3-11) with 26 points, but the Eagles couldn't stop Langhorne down the stretch.

Maryland, which led 34-27 at halftime, relied on its inside strength to gradually wear down the smaller Eagles midway into the second half.

BC had some success in the first half, double-teaming inside, but Langhorne scored 13 of her points in the final 12:12.

"A kid like that is tough to stop," Eagles coach Cathy Inglese said. "Why weren't we double-teaming her in the second half? I don't know. We kept mentioning it [to our players]. That was the key part in the second half. She went to town and had a good game."

2006 NCAA CHAMPIONS
EIGHT-TIME ACC CHAMPIONS

The Terrapins lost to top-ranked Duke, which it beat in last year's NCAA title game, 69-57 last Sunday.

"That Duke loss made us more excited to get back on the floor," Toliver said.

Behind Ress, BC kept its deficit in single digits until Jade Perry, Toliver and Coleman had baskets during a 6-0 spree that helped Maryland open its first double-digit lead of the game, 48-36, with 12:56 to play.

"Being in close games and having success, they have that feeling they can get stops or make shots when they need to," BC point guard Sarah Marshall said.

BC closed it to five points twice, the last 56-51 on Ress' free throw with 5:03 left, but Langhorne converted a 3-point play and Doron hit a 3-pointer to open it to 62-51 with 3:44 to play. The Eagles never moved closer than 11 points the rest of the way.

In the opening half, the Eagles led 20-19 before the Terps scored 15 of the half's final 22 points, taking a seven-point lead into the break on Toliver's 3-pointer over two defenders at the buzzer.

Maryland came out with a hot hand from the outside early, hitting its first five jumpers to open a 10-5 edge before BC got on track offensively, mostly behind Ress' play.

ACC TOURNAMENT
MARCH 2, 2007
GREENSBORO COLISEUM

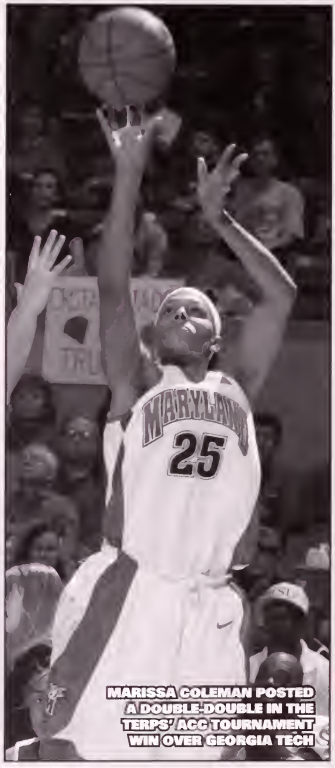
GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Maryland delivered one payback on Friday night. It will seek another when the 30th annual Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Tournament continues Saturday afternoon.

Crystal Langhorne scored 18 points and grabbed nine rebounds as the sixth-ranked and third-seeded Terps defeated sixth-seeded Georgia Tech, 75-59, in Friday evening's quarterfinal game.

Maryland (27-4) avenged a regular-season loss to the Yellow Jackets in Atlanta and drew a spot opposite fourth-ranked and second-seeded North Carolina in Saturday's 4:30 p.m. semifinal. The Tar Heels were responsible for one of the Terps' other regular-season losses, an 81-74 decision at College Park on Jan. 28.

"We have players in our locker room with a lot of character and a lot of heart, and they're tremendous competitors," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "We definitely took that game at Georgia Tech to heart, and we didn't want to feel that way again."

Langhorne echoed her coach's sentiment.



MARISSA COLEMAN POSTED A DOUBLE-DOUBLE IN THE TERPS' ACC TOURNAMENT WIN OVER GEORGIA TECH

"I know I've never been so angry in college as I was when we lost that game at Georgia Tech," Langhorne said. "We were so excited when we found out we were going to be able to play them (in the ACC Tournament), and we knew we were going to come out with a lot of energy."

Can the defending national champion Terps respond with that same kind of energy against UNC on Saturday. Guard Marissa Coleman plans on it, and she was quick to note that top-ranked Duke -- which handed Maryland its other two losses -- also lurks in the tournament field.

"Coming into the tournament, our coaching staff stressed that if we keep playing 40 mintues, we're going to be able to get revenge on all three teams that handed us losses this year," Coleman said. "We beat Georgia Tech, and now we're very anxious to play Carolina."

Coleman scored 16 points and pulled down 11 rebounds as Maryland posted a huge 46-21 advantage on the boards. That was a point of emphasis to the Terps, who felt they were physically outplayed in the game at Atlanta.

Georgia Tech (20-10) found it difficult to match up after forward Janie Mitchell picked up three early fouls. The Terps looked primarily inside to build a 40-26 halftime advantage.

"Obviously, Maryland is a phenomenal team," Yellow Jackets coach MaChelle Joseph said. "We couldn't counter their inside game in the first half. It was a very physical game, and we like a phyiscal game. But I don't know that we responded the way we would have liked to."

Kristi Toliver added 12 points for the Terps, who shot 59 percent from the floor and led by 24 points with just over four minutes to play.

Stephanie Higgs' 16 points led the Yellow Jackets. Mitchell finished with 14, and Chioma Nnamaka added 12 before being forced to the sidelines in the second half by what Joseph said was apparent dehydration.

ACC TOURNAMENT
MARCH 3, 2007
GREENSBORO COLISEUM

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Fourth-ranked North Carolina broke open a tied game with two minutes left and beat fifth-ranked Maryland 78-72 Saturday in the semifinals of the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament in the Greensboro Coliseum.

The win sends the Tar Heels, the defending ACC champions, to the championship game set Sunday at 1 p.m. against N.C. State.

"We didn't get rattled, and we made some big shots when we needed to," said North Carolina coach Sylvia Hatchell, whose team is now 29-3.

Maryland, which never led, tied the game at 67-all on Kristi Toliver's jumper from the top of the key with 2:01 left on the clock.

But North Carolina dominated the rest of the way. It started with point guard Ivory Latta finding LaToya Pringle open under the basket to take the lead for good with 1:34 remaining.

"Coach called the play, I saw LaToya in there and I threw it to her," Latta said.

Pringle then partially blocked a shot by Shay Doron with 35 seconds left, and UNC salted away the win with four free throws by Latta, two by Miller and one by Little.

Latta led the winners with 19 points, followed by Jessica Breland with 14, Erlana Larkins with 12, and Pringle and Camille Little with 11 each.

North Carolina center Erlana Larkins chalked up a double-double with 10 rebounds to go with her dozen points.

Maryland, now 27-5, put three different post players on Larkins throughout the game.

"Sometimes it's Laura Harper, sometimes it's Langhorne, and sometimes it's Perry," Larkins said. "I'm a big woman, but three women coming at you the entire 40 minutes, it kind of wears you down."

Hatchell had high praise for Larkins, noting, "I've called her many times my warrior, and she is. When we need her, she's there."

Maryland coach Brenda Frese said, "It was just a tremendous game for both teams. We didn't want to go home, but I'm proud of our effort. A Final Four game--that's what it felt like."

Maryland, the defending NCAA champion, trailed 37-30 at the half and by 10 points in the second half before mounting a furious rally to tie the game.

"Jessica Breland was their X-factor today," Frese said. "It speaks volumes for their depth."

Breland went 5-for-6 from the field and hit 3-of-4 free throws in just 16 minutes of play.

"Jessica was a McDonald's High School All-America," Hatchell said. "Today was not a fluke. She's going to play like she did today and probably better."

Doron said it was tough finishing her career without an ACC championship, but added if the Terps had to lose Saturday to win another national championship, she would take it.

"I'm looking at the big picture," Doron said.

Marissa Coleman led Maryland with 18 points and eight rebounds, followed by Crystal Langhorne with 16 points, Doron with 13 and Toliver with 12.

Coleman said, "Toward the end of the game, we let them get some crucial rebounds."

Hatchell said down the stretch, her Tar Heels showed mental toughness--and played as a team.

"We had 20 assists out of 28 field goals made," Hatchell said, pointing out that's good team basketball.

Hatchell said another key to the victory was having Little guard Toliver.

"I was proud down the stretch when Maryland made their comeback, and we did a couple of things that really made a difference and were able to pull the game out. Maryland is so good at so many areas of the game. You take one thing away, they make up for it with something else. Those kids can shoot the lights out, especially Toliver and Shay and Coleman. They got hot at the end."

KRISTI TOLIVER SCORED 13 POINTS AND ADDED NINE ASSISTS OFF THE BENCH IN THE FIRST ROUND OF THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

HARVARD 65

NCAA TOURNAMENT
HARTFORD CIVIC CENTER

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - Maryland coach Brenda Frese thought Kristi Toliver was trying too hard. So the coach decided to have her star guard come off the bench for the first time this season - and it worked.

Toliver scored 13 points and added nine assists to help second-seeded Maryland beat No. 15 Harvard 89-65 on Sunday in the first round of the Dayton Regional.

"Kristi has been putting too much pressure on herself," Frese said. "She's a tremendous team player and I'm extremely proud of her."

Toliver averaged 14 points in the NCAA tournament last season and hit the 3-pointer that sent the national championship game against Duke into overtime.

The sophomore guard entered 3:41 into this game with the score tied and immediately sparked Maryland (28-5), starting a 19-5 run on a 3-pointer that put the Terrapins ahead 28-14.

"I'm willing to accept any role that I'm given," Toliver said. "I'm just trying to play for my teammates and get wins and do whatever I have to do. I'm the same person, I'm the same player I was before, I'm just coming about four minutes later."

Harvard (15-13) closed within seven, but Toliver and Maryland answered by ending the half with a 10-4 spurt to lead 38-25.

The Terps started the second half with a 16-5 burst to put the game away. Shay Doron, who led Maryland with 21 points, closed the run with the final nine points.

2006 NCAA CHAMPIONS
EIGHT-TIME ACC CHAMPIONS

The Rebels, who lost to Maryland 110-79 on Nov. 25, beat TCU 88-74 in the opener at Hartford Civic Center.

"It gives us some confidence, but we played them a long time ago," said Crystal Langhorne, who had 12 points and nine rebounds for the Terrapins. "Ole Miss is a better team and we have to be prepared."

Emily Tay scored 16 points and Christiana Lackner added 14 to lead the Crimson, whose 12-game winning streak ended.

Harvard was hoping to pull off another stunning NCAA tournament upset, having beaten Stanford 71-67 in 1998 as a No. 16 seed.

"The Stanford win is a huge part of our history," said Harvard guard Lindsay Hallion. "It's a source of inspiration for us and most underdogs."

The Crimson are the only team seeded 14th or lower to prevail in the first round.

"The stars had to be aligned a little more closely for us to knock off the defending champions," said Harvard coach Kathy Delaney-Smith.

Dayton was expected to be the toughest region with Maryland, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Ohio State.

"We don't whine, we shine," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "We're all about not looking at the negative. We want to look at what the positives are, and if people deem this as the toughest bracket you've got to get through, more power to the team that is able to get through it."

The Buckeyes were upset Saturday night by Marist. The Terps have won 31 straight nonconference games and weren't about to let that happen to them.

Toliver was replaced in the starting lineup by Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood. She had four points, all on free throws.

Wiley-Gatewood had transferred from Tennessee and sat out last season's national championship run. She was injured her freshman year for the Lady Vols and was seeing her first tournament action.

MISSISSIPPI 89
NCAA TOURNAMENT
MARCH 20, 2007
HARTFORD CIVIC CENTER

HARTFORD, Conn. -- Maryland fell into Mississippi's trap and the defending NCAA champion never got out.

Ole Miss (23-10) used its stifling defense to steal the ball 15 times and scored 42 points off 29 Maryland turnovers and the Rebels upset the No. 2 seed Terrapins 89-78 in the Dayton Regional on Tuesday night.

Maryland was expected to have a good chance at repeating as national champions with all five starters returning. The Terps added depth with transfer Sa'de Wiley-Gatewood, but it wasn't enough to stop them from a disappointing second round loss.

"A season ago, we loved the fact that we had youth," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "I think it really hurt us tonight and spiraled in terms of our frustration and Ole Miss fed off of it."

Armintie Price scored 28 points to lead the Rebels, the same Ole Miss team that was blown out by the Terps 110-79 at a tournament in the Bahamas in November.

This time there was a lot more on the line.

"This time we were trying to win a championship, we were playing for bigger and better things, so we were more focused," Price said.

Kristi Toliver led Maryland (28-6) with 24, including 14 in the second half when the Terps cut a 23-point lead to seven. But she also had 10 turnovers.

"Kristi is a tremendous shooter for us and when she can knock down shots for us her game is really flowing," Frese said. "In terms of all our point guards, we need to take better care of the basketball."

Maryland made its final run with 6 minutes left after Ole Miss' Alliesha Easley was injured battling for and offensive rebound and Shantell Black hit two free throws to make it 75-60. The Terps, led by Toliver, went on a 12-4 run to make it 79-72.

But Shay Doron and Marissa Coleman fouled out late, and the Rebels hit their free throws down the stretch.

"We shoot the ball better than anyone in the country, and we just couldn't get good looks," Doron said. "We just couldn't get good shots and we just kept turning the ball over and they got easy layups out of that."

Ashley Awkward had 22, and Easley, who was able to come back at the end of the game, had 16 for Ole Miss.

Ross said November's loss came before her team had found its running, pressing, trapping identity.

It was on display from the start this time. After trailing 6-2 early, The Rebels went on an 18-0 run, led by Price, who hit her first six shots.

The Rebels led by as many as 23 and took a 47-30 lead into the half.

Ole Miss shot over 55 percent from the floor and won despite being outrebounded 46-29.

The Terps early exit matches the quickest departure for any NCAA champion. Purdue in 2000 and Notre Dame in 2002 also went out in second-round games.

Maryland had won its last seven NCAA games. The defending national champions had beaten 31 consecutive nonconference opponents, including Harvard, 89-65 in the first round.

This was Mississippi's 17th trip to the NCAA Tournament, but the first appearance in the third round since 1992.

ALL-TIME COACHING HISTORY

DOTTIE MCKNIGHT

4 YEARS (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

CHRIS WELLER

27 YEARS (1975-2002)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball history. She guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams enjoyed national rankings in 18 seasons and she engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She was been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

BRENDA FRESE

5 YEARS (2002-PRESENT)

Brenda Frese was hired in 2002 to rebuild a Maryland program and to return it back to prominence. In 2005-06, the 2002 AP Coach of the Year, led the Terps to the program's first-ever NCAA title. Working hard on the recruiting trails and luring some of the top talent to every play in a Terrapin uniform, the Terps burst onto national the scene. After logging just 10 victories in her first season, Maryland received postseason bids four-consecutive years, earning a No. 2-seeding in 2006 and 2007. In 2006, the Terps advanced to the Final Four for the first time since 1989, defeating two No. 1 seeds to win the crown. The Terps garnered a top-5 national ranking in the AP and Coaches poll for the first time in 17 years, finishing No. 1 in the coaches for the first time in school history. Maryland began the following season ranked No. 1 and maintained that position for 10 weeks.

GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland women's basketball season since 1971-72. Atlantic Coast Conference play began in 1977-78. Overall records are followed by home, road and neutral court records in parentheses. Home games were played at Preinkert Field House in the 1971-72 and 1972-73 seasons. Home games were played at Cole Field House from the 1973-74 season through 2001-02, except where indicated. In 2002-03, Maryland began play in Comcast Center. RC indicates games at Ritchie Coliseum; •-Indicates ACC games.

GREAT TEAMS & MOMENTS

Great Teams and Great Moments define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence nearly 30 years later. The biggest moment in the program's history is winning the National Championship in 2006.

Two eras mark the history of Maryland women's basketball. For 30 years, Chris Weller had been synonymous with the Terrapins, beginning with her legacy first as a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant coach, and eventually, a head coach until her retirement in 2002. The Weller Era was marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings.

The Frese Era began in April 2002 and Terrapins were quickly reshaped into a national powerhouse, claiming the program's first national title in 2006. Frese has put Maryland back on the map with some of the best talent in the nation donning the Terrapin uniform.

Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Terrapin history.

TERRAPIN TRADITION

- 1 NATIONAL TITLE
- 4 FINAL FOUR APPEARANCES
- 21 NATIONAL TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES
- 8 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP CROWNS
- 1 30-WIN SEASON; 14 20-WIN SEASONS
- 5 OLYMPIANS

- 1 RHODES SCHOLAR

1972-73
STATE CHAMPIONS

AIAW REGIONAL

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

EAIAW REGIONAL

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

EAIAW REGIONAL

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

AIAW FINALS

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

AIAW QUARTERFINALS

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80
AIAW QUARTERFINALS

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

AIAW QUARTERFINALS

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

NCAA FINAL FOUR

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus's first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll marking the highest finish in Maryland history.

NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-66 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic – Maryland's first to be so honored.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final AP poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks — the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

Success and championships return after just a one-year hiatus. The Terps enter the ACC Tournament as an underdog, yet win their sixth title, defeating NC State, Virginia and North Carolina. Deanna Tate is named MVP of the tournament after downing the Tar Heels 90-74 on March 3. Maryland accepts a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region, and suffers an opening round loss to Ohio State.

The Terps exit the ACC Tournament in a semifinal loss to Virginia. It is only the second season in the last 10 that Maryland has failed to reach a national tournament.

NCAA ELITE EIGHT

And back come the Terps again. Not to be denied an ACC title for more than a season at a time, Maryland goes 26-6 overall and never loses in 13 home contests. The Terps take a four-game win streak into the ACC Tournament where they down Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia, and claim a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Deanna Tate wins her second straight tourney MVP award as the Terrapins hold off the Cavaliers, 76-70 on March 7 for their seventh conference crown. They run their streak to nine games with an 81-66 victory over Ohio State in the regional semifinal on March 24. The Terps fall to Auburn in a bid for a third Final Four, but finish 26-6 and return to national prominence.

Maryland finishes eighth in the final poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

NCAA FINAL FOUR

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-66 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.

NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Dafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament. In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 91-73 win over Georgia Tech.

NCAA ELITE EIGHT

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. Prior to that historic, No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland finishes 11-18 on the season. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28

2006 NCAA CHAMPIONS
EIGHT-TIME ACC CHAMPIONS

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terps finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins gain an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a then-school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

1999-2000

Maryland returns to the national scene as the Terps claim a berth in the 2000 Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Terps advanced all the way to the tournament's quarterfinals before falling to finalist Florida. During the regular season, the Terps recorded a pair of upset victories over ranked teams, defeating No. 12 Duke on Feb. 3 and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24. The win over Duke ended the Blue Devils' 20-game home ACC win streak. Tiffany Brown became Maryland's most prolific 3-point shooter, setting the career records for treys made and attempted. She also set the single-game mark with eight at Clemson on Jan. 6. Marché Strickland made five consecutive 3-pointers in a 65-second span against Georgia Tech on Jan. 23. Because of her accomplishment, Strickland gamed national media recognition.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

The 2000-01 season marks the program's 17th national tournament appearance. The Terps tops then-No. 18 Clemson 85-73 in overtime in Cole Field House and sweeps the season series at Clemson when they are ranked 17th with a 68-62 victory. No. 22 NC State falls to the Terps 57-56 on its home court, and then suffers the 75-54 loss at Cole Field House when they are No. 17. On the doorstep of a Top 25 ranking all season, Maryland loses to Colorado State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament after receiving its first NCAA bid since 1997. Terp juniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland score their 1,000th point, Warley in the upset at Clemson and Strickland at Duke on Feb. 15.

A distinctive era comes to a close in the 2001-02 season, as 27-year head coach Chris Weller (499-286, .636) says goodbye to Maryland and Cole Field House closes its doors as the home of Terrapin women's basketball. On Feb. 21, with a 66-54 loss to NC State, the Terrapins celebrate their 28 years of memorable moments and championship history in Cole Field House. Weller officially announces her retirement from Maryland on March 5 after celebrating the ACC Tournament's 25th anniversary and the Terps' league-leading eight titles.

A new era begins as Maryland women's basketball moves to its new home at Comcast Center with a new mentor at the helm in Brenda Frese. The Terps will forever hold the distinction of playing the first-ever basketball game, men's or women's, at the new facility hosting Loyola on Nov. 22, a game which Maryland won, 80-72. Renneika Razor scores the first basket en route to the Terps victory. Maryland breaks 100 points for the first time since 1993, when they downed UMES, 102-31, on Dec. 1. In Maryland's 69-58 loss at Virginia on Jan. 19, Razor becomes the 20th Terp in school history to break the 1,000-point barrier, ending her career ranked 16th all-time amassing 1,163 points. A crowd of 5,078 are in attendance for Maryland's thrilling 74-72 win over NC State on Feb. 1. It was the largest crowd since 1996 when No. 9 Virginia came to town. Razor ends her career with second team All-ACC honors, the highest honor given to a Terp since 1998.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

In what was supposed to be another rebuilding year, the Terps win the most games since the 1996-97 campaign and finish in a tie for third place in the ACC, the best showing since that same year. Maryland equals its conference win total from the previous two years, combined, earning an NCAA Tournament berth for the first time in three years. Led by a couple of high school All-Americans, Shay Doron opens the season making an NCAA record-tying 23 free throws vs. Coppin State on Nov. 21. She goes on to break the school's single-season mark. A Comcast Center record 13,446 come out for the home regular-season finale vs. No. 4 Duke on Feb. 22 which is televised on ESPN2. The record is also the second-largest crowd for a women's basketball game in ACC history. After a 62-47 win over Florida State on March 6, the Terps advance to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament to face the Blue Devils and fall short of the upset, 70-63, on March 7. The Terps are selected the 12th seed in the West Region and go on to win their first NCAA tourney game in 12 years when they upset Miami (Fla.), 86-85, on March 21. Three Terps earn ACC postseason honors. Doron leads the way with third team nods becoming the first rookie in school history to earn All-ACC honors. Kalika France also becomes the first freshman Terp to be named Honorable Mention All-ACC while Delvona Oliver earns the recognition for the first time in her career. Doron (first team) and Oliver (second team) are also selected to the ACC All-Tournament team. By year's end, Doron and France lead the team in scoring, the first time a pair of Terp rookies has done so.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

The Terps earn a No. 23 preseason ranking in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls. Boasting the fourth-best recruiting class in the nation, the Terps win the most games since 1992-93, while making its second-straight trip to the ACC semifinals and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. After opening the season at 5-1, the Terps crack the AP's top 20 on Dec. 6, their first top-20 ranking in 11 years. On Jan. 9, Maryland tops No. 5/4 North Carolina, 92-77, its first victory over a top-five team since 1992. The Terps jump to No. 15 in the AP poll after the victory. Shay Doron scores a school-record tying 39 points on Jan. 16 at Florida State, but the Terps fall in overtime, 95-91. Jan. 25 marks the 30th anniversary of the first-ever nationally televised women's basketball game which featured the Terps and Immaculata. On Feb. 3 head coach Brenda Frese records her 100th-career victory with an 84-67 win over Georgia Tech. Maryland sets a Comcast Center attendance record for the second-consecutive year on Feb. 12, as 17,243 fans turn out for the Terps' clash vs. Duke, also setting the all-time ACC women's basketball single-game attendance mark. Crystal Langhorne scores 29 points and grabs 22 rebounds at Miami on Feb. 17, the first 20-rebound game in school history since 1980. Langhorne then sets a new freshman-class school record, netting 33 points in the regular-season finale on Feb. 28. The Terps upset No. 19 NC State on March 5 to advance to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row. Comcast Center plays host to the NCAA Tournament for the first time, as seven teams travel to College Park for the first and second rounds. Frese earns her 50th win at Maryland as the Terps advance to the second round for the second-straight year with a win over UW-Green Bay on March 20. Crystal Langhorne was named ACC Rookie of the Year and second team All-ACC, the highest-honored freshman in school history. Shay Doron was selected first team All-ACC, Kodak/WBCA Regional All-American and Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. At year's end, Langhorne set the freshman-class scoring and rebounding records, while Doron set the sophomore class mark for points. The Terps ended the year ranked 24th in the nation, the first time Maryland has been ranked in the final poll in 12 years.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The Terrapins boasted a roster stacked with six former high-school All-Americans and eight Gatorade Players of the Year, however, they were considered a long shot. Ranked 14th in both the preseason Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls, Maryland rose to become the No. 1 team in the nation under the guidance of fourth-year head coach Brenda Frese, capturing the program's first NCAA title and posting the most wins – men's or women's – in school history (34). The Terps led the nation in 3-point shooting (.400) and rebounding margin (+11.9 rpg). Its final No. 1 ranking by the coaches was the first in school history. The milestones and records came early. In the home opener vs. Xavier on Nov. 20, Shay Doron became the 21st player in school history to score 1,000 points, the fastest Terrapin to reach the milestone to that point. Rated in the top 10 for the first time in over a decade, the Terps registered a convincing defeat of 2005 NCAA finalist and 10th-ranked Michigan State on Nov. 25. Coupled with the win and near upset of perennial powerhouse and No. 1-ranked Tennessee on Nov. 26, Maryland moved up to No. 6 and cruised through December with a spotless record. Winning the Terrapin Classic for the seventh time, Doron garnered Most Valuable Player honors. The Terrapins opened the ACC slate with its first of six overtime games of the season at Boston College on Jan. 5. The second-largest crowd in ACC history came out to Comcast Center to support the Terps vs. rival and second-ranked Duke on Jan. 8, but the Blue Devils snapped the Terrapins' 10-game win streak with a decisive 86-68 win. Maryland regrouped, putting together another string of eight wins, including three more overtime victories, capped by the stunning triumph and upset of top-ranked North Carolina on Feb. 9 at Carmichael Auditorium, snapping the Tar Heel's 30-game win streak on their home court and handing them their first loss of the season. Ashleigh Newman hit one of the more memorable shots of the season, picking up a loose ball and sending the shot from just over half court to send the game into overtime. The Terps earned a No. 4 ranking and, in the 89-63 thumping of Clemson on Feb. 23, Crystal Langhorne became the 22nd 1,000-point scorer in school history, becoming the fastest Terp to do so (60 games), breaking Doron's record. A win over second-ranked Duke in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament on March 4, snapped a 14-game losing streak to the Blue Devils. It also put the Terps in the finals for the first time in 13 years. UNC, on the other hand, was also looking for revenge, defeating the Terps, 90-81, on March 5 to claim the conference crown. In the final AP poll, Maryland was ranked No. 3 in the nation, its best final ranking in the poll since 1993. The NCAA Tournament bracket was announced on March 13 and the Terps received their highest seeding since 1993. Tabbed the second seed in the Albuquerque Region, Maryland cruised to a victory over Sacred Heart on March 19, but struggled to put away an up-and-coming St. John's squad, pulling out an 84-71 win on March 21, advancing passed the second round for the first time since 1992. The Terrapins faced Baylor in the Sweet Sixteen and quickly disposed of the defending champions, 82-63, on March 25, and earned a spot in the Elite Eight. Langhorne had her second-straight 30-point outing. Looking to punch their ticket to their first Final Four since 1989, the Terrapins were struck with a stomach virus which filtered through most of the players, staff, band members and fans. Gutting it out, a determined Terrapin squad forced their fifth overtime game of the year after Utah missed a key free throw in the final seconds. Maryland dominated in the extra five minutes winning 75-65 on March 27. Kristi Toliver, who had been struck with the illness the night before, netted a career-high 28 points and was voted to the all-tournament team. Langhorne was the region's Most Outstanding Player. In Boston, Maryland faced a familiar foe – the top overall No. 1 seed North Carolina and the favorite to win the championship. The Terrapins had other plans, pulling off the upset, once again, winning 81-70, on April 4. In their first-ever trip to the NCAA Finals, Maryland faced its recent nemesis. Trailing 13 points with less than 15 minutes remaining, the Terrapins mounted their comeback, tying the second-largest in NCAA history. Toliver hit one of the biggest shots in tournament history with seconds remaining in regulation, a three-pointer over Duke's center, to force the overtime. The Terps, believing that "Overtime is Our Time," did not have a doubt in the eventual outcome, as they hoisted the trophy on April 4. Laura Harper was the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, while Toliver again earned all-tournament nods. The postseason honors were plentiful. Langhorne was the program's first All-American (AP and USBWA) since 1989, also earning first team All-ACC nods. Doron and Marissa Coleman were second team all-conference honorees, with Coleman becoming the second-straight Terrapin to win the ACC's Rookie of the Year award after a school-record tying five conference rookie of the week selections.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

Coming off its national championship run and with all five starters returning, Maryland earned its first preseason No. 1 ranking in school history in both the AP and ESPN/Coaches polls and remained in that position for 10 weeks. For the second-consecutive year, the Terps led the nation in rebounding margin (+14.3), while also recording the best assists-per-game average in the nation (18.3). Opening the season on the road and challenged by a talented Middle Tennessee State squad who was looking for an upset, the season began with an 80-76 victory on Nov. 10. From there, the Terps won their next 17 games, setting a new school record for best start to a season (18-0). It also extended its overall win streak to 24 games, dating back to the first round of the 2006 NCAA Tournament, also a new school record. In the midst of that streak, the Terps reached the 100-point plateau four times, including a 110-79 victory on Nov. 25 to win the Junkanoo Jam. The home opener against George Mason on Nov. 12 proved to be one of the highlights of the season as the national championship banner is unveiled. In the 105-44 thrashing of UC-Santa Barbara on Dec. 2, Marissa Coleman posted the first triple-double in school history, also becoming the 11th player in the ACC to accomplish that feat. The ACC opener against NC State on Jan. 3 is win number 20, the third-straight 20-win season. Their 111-53 win at Miami on Jan. 10 was the most points the Terps had scored in a conference game since 1980 and was also the largest margin of victory in an ACC game ever. During the year, two three-point shooting records go down. In the Dec. 29 win over UNC Greensboro in the Terrapin Classic, Maryland's 12 threes is a new school record. Ashleigh Newman's 6-for-7 performance from three-point range against the Hurricanes is a new field goal percentage record (.857) which has stood since 1989, but it was quickly broken four games later on Jan. 25 at Clemson when Kristi Toliver was perfect on six tries. The Terrapins stun a national television audience on CBS, routing No. 19 Michigan State by 40 points on Jan. 6. The win over the Spartans also marks the first time the Terps have swept the non-conference regular season schedule. On Jan. 28, the first sell out in Comcast Center and the first since 1992 sets a new single-game ACC record. The record is matched on Senior Night on Feb. 18. Maryland advances to the ACC Tournament semifinals on March 3 for the fourth-consecutive year. Earning a No. 2 seed in the Dayton Regional, the Terps defeated Harvard in the first round on the NCAA Tournament on March 18, advancing to the second round for the fourth-straight year, before bowing out by a vengeful Mississippi squad on March 20. With help from the fans, Maryland sets a new school attendance record as more than 150,000 people attend home games. The Terps are ranked sixth in average home attendance (9,533), making the largest single-season improvement in the NCAA in 2006-07. Their overall attendance of 241,280 at all games is the fourth-best in the nation. All five starters are named preseason candidates for the Naismith Award, while four are selected nominees for the Wade Trophy, a record for both awards. Three Terps are named to the All-ACC team, with Crystal Langhorne earning first team honors for the second time, only the third Terp to do so. Marissa Coleman is a second team honoree for the second time, as well, while Kristi Toliver is selected to the third team. Langhorne is the first Terrapin to be named an All-American by the WBCA, and is selected by the AP and USBWA for the second-straight year, the first multiple All-American in school history. Shay Doron leaves College Park ranked second on the all-time scoring list, while leaving her mark all over the record books. Maryland ends the season ranked 14th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and sixth in the AP rankings.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. Despite facing cosmetic renewal, Cole's charisma was never tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and was equalling as thunderous when it closed its doors as the men's team defeated Virginia on March 3, 2002. Cole was also the place where a capacity crowd witness the No. 1 Maryland women's basketball team host No. 2 Virginia on Feb. 12, 1992, then an ACC record. That attendance mark stood for 12 years until the Terps broke that record in 2005 at Comcast Center. Cole Field House will always be home to countless memories, buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Many great women's basketball teams and great players have played at Cole Field House. It ranks among the top 50 all-time Best Women's Basketball Home Courts, as the Terps compiled a 288-95 mark (75.2 percent) from 1973-2002, which ranks among the top 50 overall.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there were refinements. Additions were made such as an increase in seating capacity to 14,500, scoreboards that not only told the fan what the score was, but also how loud they were cheering, and a new floor design.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held there. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held at Cole in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place there in 1990. Cole Field House also served as the home to most of the athletic department offices.

COMCAST CENTER

Maryland's home for Terrapins Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002 and has provided four seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball games and serves as the campus site for university special events and select community events.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's approximate 700 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride. Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

WELLER ON LYTLE

"Debbie was one of the greatest athletes I've ever seen or coached. She could have been a point guard on a men's college team."

A versatile guard, Lytle remains at or near the top of several Maryland offensive records ... one of only 22 Terps to achieve the 1,000 point plateau, finishing with 1,189 points ... holds the Maryland record for most steals in her career (315) and in a single game (9, twice) ... also tops the Maryland all-time list for most assists in her career (583) ... averaged six assists per game during the NCAA Tournament, a team record ... member of the 1981 Kodak All-Region team and E.A.I.A.W. All-Region team ... member of the 1980 All-ACC Tournament Team ... a leader of the 1982 Final Four team, she was named to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team that season ... tallied 53 points, 32 rebounds and 32 assists during the Terps' first Final Four run ... also saw significant time at the small forward position.

WELLER ON BULLETT

"Those that saw Vicky play recognize her outstanding skill and athleticism. Those that work and play with Vicky know these are only a small part of what makes her special."

Named the 1989 ACC Player of the Year, Bullett led the Terps to their second NCAA Final Four while also playing her way to the top of many of Maryland's record lists ... is the all-time leading scorer in Maryland history with 1,928 points, nearly 250 points ahead of the next-closest Terp ... that total was helped by a record 686 points in her senior campaign of 1988-89, one of only four players in school history to score 600 points in a season ... was the first player in school history to register two 500-point seasons ... scored 30 or more points on seven occasions, with her highest total coming at Penn State on January 14, 1987, when she tallied 36 ... also tops the Maryland all-time list with 968 career rebounds ... first team All-ACC in 1988, in addition to her 1989 MVP campaign ... took home the MVP of the 1989 ACC Tournament, which the Terps captured with a 73-57 victory over NC State ... also named to the All-ACC Tournament team in her freshman year of 1986 ... named to the All-Mideast Region team of the 1988 NCAA Tournament and the All-West Region team in 1989 ... Kodak Regional All-American in 1988 ... gold medalist with the 1988 U.S. Olympic team in Seoul, Korea ... played six seasons in the WNBA with the Charlotte Sting (1997-99) and Washington Mystics (2000-02), scoring 2018 total points with an average of 10.8 ppg.

The Associated Press published its 500th women's basketball poll when it released its preseason rankings prior to the 2005-06 campaign, also marking the start of the 30th season of the poll. Among the 25 teams to appear in the preseason poll, Maryland was one of two schools to appear in the 2005-06 preseason ranking and the AP's first-ever poll published in 1976. The other school was Baylor.

THE UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 92 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes three Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND 1856 TM

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

In 2004, Maryland's School of Music hosted the National Symphony Orchestra in its first university residency, and its 2006 opera production was declared by the Washington Post music critic "... as good as any Bohème you are likely to see this side of the Metropolitan Opera or Covent Garden."

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park. The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 14TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 14th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 13-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 15 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $55 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.

Dr. Yow with former Terp student-athletes Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable six national championships during the past two seasons (2005-06, 2006-07).
- In 2006, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the most well-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 14 tournaments.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In 2006, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps beat Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Graduation rates in football are near 80 percent and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only nine universities to win the National Championship in football and men's basketball and is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the only other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of the past five seasons.
- Field Hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.

Debbie Yow is in her 14th year as Maryland's athletics director.

- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Men's Soccer has appeared in four consecutive Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in the 2005-06 season.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the $130 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events – part of a remarkable $250 million upgrade and expansion of athletics facilities during Dr. Yow's leadership of Maryland Athletics.
- In 2006-07, 13 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 13 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics' We have a great Terrapin family That's the foundation for all of our success. and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

CHIEF OF STAFF • FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND

Cheryl Levick, one of the top administrators in the country, is the Terrapins' new chief of staff. Levick has over 20 years experience in collegiate athletics, including the last seven running two Division I programs. She comes to College Park from Saint Louis University where she has served the last three years as director of athletics. Prior to her stint with the Billikens, Levick had a four-year run as the director of athletics of Santa Clara University.

"Cheryl Levick is widely acknowledged as one of the best collegiate athletics administrators in the country," said Maryland director of athletics Deborah A. Yow. "Her passion for the athletics enterprise and expectations for excellence are traits that will serve Maryland athletics well in the coming years. We are delighted that she will be joining us in the leadership role of chief of staff."

Levick led Saint Louis through its transition from Conference USA into the Atlantic 10, as well as spearheading the fund-raising effort for the new on-campus Chaifetz Arena and the design of the adjacent practice facilities. She also recently hired former national coach of the year Rick Majerus to run the men's basketball program. In addition, she served on the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four executive committee and partnered with the St. Louis Sports Commission to serve as host for the 2006 NCAA Men's Soccer College Cup.

"I am excited about joining the staff at the University of Maryland, working with Debbie Yow and being on a football campus again," Levick said. "This new position is an exciting opportunity to work with one of the top collegiate athletics programs in America, led by one of the elite administrators in our profession."

Levick, a former high school coach, is also well in tune with the student-athlete. During the 2006-07 academic year, the SLU department of athletics posted an overall grade point average of 3.28. There were also 123 student-athletes named to the Atlantic 10 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll for the spring 2007 semester.

Levick broke new ground at Santa Clara. She was the first female director of athletics in school history, as well as in the West Coast Conference. During her tenure at Santa Clara, Levick reorganized the department's administrative staff, oversaw a major renovation of the 5,000-seat basketball arena, broke ground on a 1,500-seat baseball stadium and received a $42.75 million commitment from the university's capital campaign.

Prior to Santa Clara she spent 12 years (1988-2000) at Stanford as the senior associate athletics director and senior woman administrator. She served as the department's chief operating officer, overseeing internal operations for 33 varsity sports. During Levick's time at Stanford, the Cardinal won 44 national championships.

Levick has received a number of accolades for her work in athletics. The National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (NACWAA) honored Levick as the 2000 Division I Athletic Administrator of the Year. In 1998 and 1999, she was named one of the nation's Top 25 Female Sports Executives by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal. In the spring of 2001, she was honored with a Bay Area Woman Achievement Award.

Levick, a native of St. Louis, is a 1974 graduate of the University of Missouri, and holds a master's degree in athletic administration from Indiana University. Levick has two daughters, Heather and Melissa, and a son-in-law, Michael Klass.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Laura Meckley (right) works with the women's basketball team.

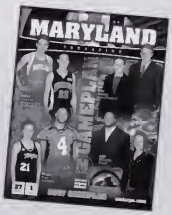
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

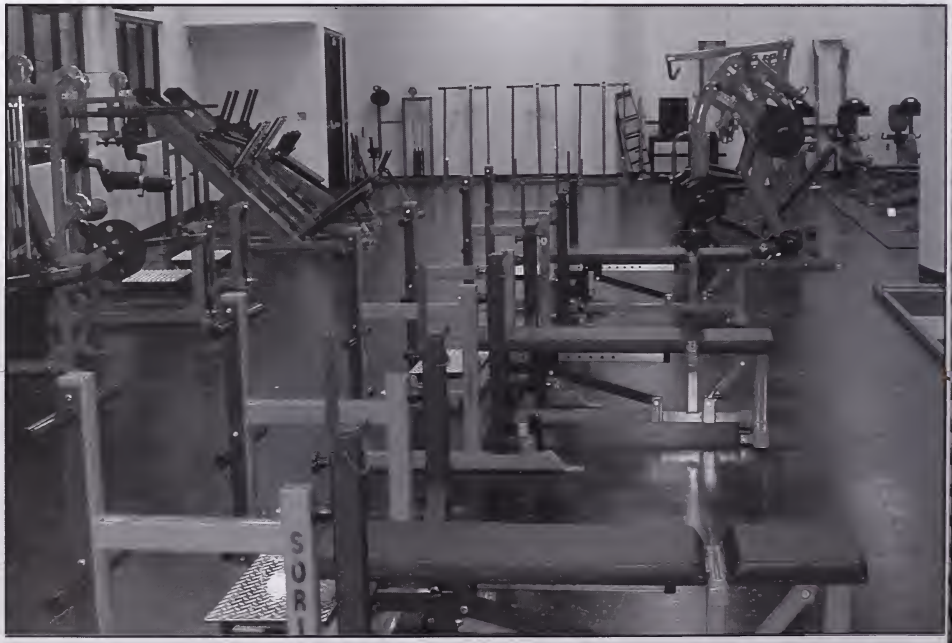
In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Corliss Fingers, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for women's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Corliss Fingers

Fingers' philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. She believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Brenda Frese's trademark. Fingers trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Frese's style.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.

The members of the women's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the women's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sq. foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.



SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

DARRYL CONWAY

Assistant AD/
Sports Medicine
Delaware '93
Fourth Year at Maryland

Darryl Conway was hired in June 2004 as Maryland's assistant athletics director for sports medicine after spending three years as the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. Conway oversees all medical and athletic training operations for the Terrapins' 27 varsity athletic programs.

Conway, who has been an athletic trainer at both the collegiate and professional levels, comes to the Terrapins after serving as head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida for three years. There he was the head trainer for the Golden Knight football squad, while supervising the assistant trainers, graduate assistants and student assistants who provide training coverage of Central Florida's 17 varsity sports. At UCF, Conway was responsible for overseeing the compilation and input of daily medical records, the computerized injury surveillance program and the NCAA injury surveillance system. He served as a clinical instructor/field experience supervisor for athletic training students, assisted in the development of marketing and fundraising projects for the sports medicine department and served as the site coordinator for the NCAA drug testing program at UCF.

Prior to his position at Central Florida, Conway served as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Northern Iowa, working as the head trainer for the Panthers' football and men's basketball teams from 1999 to 2001. He was the head athletic trainer at Morgan State University in Baltimore for one season and was an assistant trainer and professor at Delaware, his alma mater, for two years. From 1993 to 1996, Conway was an assistant trainer with the NFL's New York Jets.

Conway earned a bachelor's degree in physical education studies, magna cum laude, from the University of Delaware in 1993, before receiving a master's degree in physical education and a certificate in sports management from Adelphi University two years later.

Conway has taught numerous collegiate courses related to athletic training, has made numerous presentations and has co-authored several scholarly publications and book chapters. He has been a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) since 1989, and is also a member of the United States Weightlifting Federation.

Conway and his wife, Tracy, have a son, Michael.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY

The University of Maryland issues press credentials under the priorities and according to the guidelines set out below. These priorities and guidelines are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media and of other types of access not enjoyed by members of the public at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Office of Media Relations ("Media Relations") is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at UMTerps.com no later than five days prior to an event. For more information, contact the Media Relations Office at 301-314-7064.

PRIORITIES:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions; and official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
6. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline number 7, below.

GUIDELINES:

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this Policy, all passes and credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to any other person, including non-working members of a media organization.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."
6. Credentials may be issued to the official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
7. Credentials may be issued to other online entities that: a) are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; b) host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and; c) employ for that University of Maryland dedicated website at least one full-time, permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. An online entity that is a outlet primarily devoted to the recruitment of students athletes will not qualify for credentials.
8. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18.
9. Media Relations may deny or revoke credentials for noncompliance with the Priorities or Guidelines set out in this Policy; for violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request Media Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for a Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors on official letterhead no later than five days prior to an event. They should be sent to the Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094. No credential requests will be accepted via e-mail or by phone.

GAME DAY PRESS PARKING

Game Day parking is recommended on the north side of Comcast Center, best accessed from the University Drive (Rt. 193) entrance to campus at Paint Branch Drive. Parking is free and open to the public.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland media relations office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the media relations office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRESS SEATING

Press seating is located on the basketball floor in the northeast corner of the arena. The area is manned by members of the Media Relations Office throughout the game. The Media Relations staff desires to help the media be as comfortable as possible during each game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in the photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment, along with members of working television media, are given photo passes. Admission to the court and the photo boxes is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the northwest (Maryland bench end/directly in front of press seating) and southeast (visiting bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference policy. Please note that only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) will have access to the photography areas. Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Comcast Center. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Media Relations Office AT ALL TIMES. Failure to comply with their directions will result in expulsion from the arena.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

All Maryland players and head coach Brenda Frese will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. ALL INTERVIEW REQUESTS must be made through the Media Relations Office, contacting Natalia Ciccone. Please give a minimum of 24 hours notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of a game.

The Media Relations Office is located on the second level of Comcast Center in room 2725. The phone number is (301) 314-7064 and the FAX number is (301) 314-9094.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Postgame interviews with Maryland head coach Brenda Frese are held in media room following the game. Coaches from opposing teams will be brought to the media room after each game.

The Maryland locker room is closed to credentialed media. Players will be brought to the media room for postgame interviews at the media's request This is in accordance with ACC rules. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

POSTGAME STATISTICS

Statistics packets, including running play-by-play, first half and final boxscores and post-game notes and quotes, are compiled following every game and made available to the media at press row and in the press room.

E-MAIL SERVICES

Basketball releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Natalia Ciccone at nciccone@umd.edu. List TERP NEWS in the subject heading, and include the name of your media outlet and phone number in your message. (This is a media service only).

TELEPHONES

A limited number of telephones are available in the Comcast Center press room (calling card or reversed charges required). Any additional telephone requests should be directed to Aaron Haviland, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-7127. List Natalie Ciccone as the contact for all installations.
